Father's Day.

My Grandfather on my Dad's side, Stipan Troselj (Stephen Trosley on this side of Ellis Island!) lived well into his nineties. In the last years of his life, my Dad would frequently visit him and take care of him. "Dida," as we called Grandpa, was on the decline, and would tell Dad about his life. Dad talked to me one day about those visits. His face looked radiant, as if he had seen a vision. Dida had told him things Dad had never known before. How he laid railroad tracks across the Northwestern and Southern States; how he had been a logger; what life was like at home in what is now Croatia: Dad was like a child, beaming as he talked with pride and amazement about the things his Dad did in life. Dida died in the early 1970's; that means that Dad was listening to him in his early 50's. Still a child, when it came to the pride stored in his heart for his Dad. On this Father's Day, Dads, remember that you're still a child, too. Show your kids how proud you are of yours - let them see your face when you relate the good things you remember about him. They'll remember you for that; and one day, they'll be talking about you, too. And it will show, all over their faces. Fr. T.

Spanish Mass Returns in August; No Spanish Mass in July. We will not have our second Sunday of the month Mass at ICC in Spanish for the month of July. This Mass will return to our schedule on Sunday, August 11.

Fr. Tony will be gone on Thursday, June 20, to be a part of an OSF retreat and Mass at Sacre Coeur diocesan retreat center, and then the Priest Jubilarians Anniversary Mass in Peoria.

Healing Service Returns in August; No Healing Service in July. We will not have our third Saturday of the month Healing Service at SMH in the month of July. We will return to our schedule on Saturday, August 17. (In the event of an emergency need, please contact Fr. Tony and inform him of the situation at hand.)

Now, a few things to be said here. First, there will be an introductory prayer and explanation of the Catholic Church's definition of the gift of healing to begin these evenings. Second, I ask all participants to be aware that the time reserved for this service has to be shared. On both our part as ministers, and yours as participants, we have to be aware of such a length of time as to discourage more people from coming to such a wonderful gift to our churches. The best way for any of us to feel unhurried, or slighted as if we're being put to the clock, is to come prepared in prayer for what we want to share in Mr. Shaner's ministry, as well as in the sacramental encounter with Fr. Tony. This doesn't mean "don't come". It means that we want others to come, along with you. And that means being aware of time. Fr. T.

A Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
