June 16, 2024 — 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

“What shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it?” (Mk 4: 30) The Kingdom of God is like a mustard seed that when sown, grows into one of the largest of plants, so that like the great cedars (see Ez 17: 23 from the first reading), the birds of the sky may dwell there.

The investment seems so small, but the point of the parable is that large results can come from small beginnings. Consider human development from a single cell to a full-grown adult. Consider weekly contributions made to a retirement account over the course of a person’s career. Consider the witness of a single patriot or martyr against tyranny of a corrupt government. Consider the first step of one who is suffering from an addiction as they take the first step across the threshold for treatment; the sinner who wants to change themselves, summons the courage to confess their sins, and changes their way. If great results can come from small actions, what does that say of the dignity of the small ‘seed’? The seed is worth infinitely more than its small stature... it is a package that contains the potential of a glorious future, if planted, protected, nurtured, and nourished.

The parable speaks of faith being as a seed that grows into the great tree. How often do we recognize “promptings of the spirit”—those small inspirations to bring about some good in the world, such as a compliment to someone we encounter, generosity to someone in need, correction to someone in error, patience with someone that we struggle with, the inspiration to prayer? These small promptings which arise in our hearts and consciences have no substance in themselves until they are activated... when desire of the human will leads to action and then action becomes reality. We cannot possibly respond to all of the passing thoughts that we consider, but as we learn to discern that breath of the Spirit moving within us and how to respond, we learn how to become fruitful beyond all imagining.

Fr. Don Blickhan sent the following message:

When I was ordained fifty years ago I never envisioned that I would make it for fifty years! (Two classmates from the Diocese that same year have since deceased.)

I cannot imagine a nicer reception than the one the ladies of the parish and the Knights of Columbus hosted in the Parish Hall on May 25 for my 50th.

Thank you for a beautiful evening! — Fr. Don

Next weekend, June 22-23, we will have our annual missionary visit as part of the diocesan missionary co-op program. We welcome Fr. Balaji Boyalla, SAC from the Pallottine community of India. The Pallottine priests are no strangers to our diocese, with five serving in parishes in Athens, Girard and Virden, Carlinville, Gillispie and Benld, Farmersville, Raymond, and Morrisonville, Tuscola and Arcola, and Springfield. Like those serving in our own diocese, “Fr. B.” has been serving in Texas for the last 15 years, so he is no stranger to our country and its people.

The appeal is directed towards the needs of the international Pallottine missionary community who provides faithful witness to those in need in the 53 countries served all over the world. Thank you in advance for your consideration and generous response to next weekend’s appeal.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Thank You for Your Stewardship at St. Dominic Junefest

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. 1 Peter 4: 10 Thanks be to God for the wonderful stewardship of parish and school families working together to provide the St. Dominic School Junefest for our families, friends, and community. On Saturday, June 1, many families and friends gathered together on the beautiful campus of St. Dominic School for a lovely evening of fun with food, games, and entertainment. Fr. Tom provided Mass at 4:00 p.m. and we gave thanks to God for the beautiful weather and opportunity to enjoy time together at Junefest. Then, the Junefest festivities, including Kiddie Land, live entertainment and music, lots of games, bingo, the basket raffle, a silent auction, and delicious food, were enjoyed by a large crowd from 5:00 p.m. to midnight. Special thanks to Jackie and Junior Dreyer for their leadership at Junefest 2024!
