Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JUNE 30, 2024

Wisdom 1:13-15,2:23-24;
2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15; Mark 5:21-43 or
Mark 5: 21-24, 35b-43

Every human being struggles with the questions of good and evil, of life and death and suffering. Why do bad things sometimes happen to good people? Why do the wicked prosper? Why don't I get my special and necessary miracle?

The longer form of today's Gospel tells of two miracles: the raising from the dead of a little girl, and the healing of a woman who had been afflicted with a hemorrhage for many years. Suppose the woman was not cured. Suppose the little girl was not raised from the dead. Would we then blame God for not intervening?

The first reading tells us that God did not – and does not – make evil or death. The first principle of every Christian is to realize that God is good and merciful. We must look for other explanations of the problems of suffering and death; God doesn't ever cause them.

From today's readings, then, we should examine our philosophy or outlook about our lives. Who do we think we are? How does this world function? How do we ourselves fit in?

Some people think that all their thoughts and actions are at the mercy of angelic or diabolical forces; they are simply pawns on a cosmic chess-board who are at the mercy of others. And some others think that their conscious actions are merely an overflow of unconscious and buried manias and phobias and drives.

Other people think that they are little more than complex machines: Their thoughts and actions are a result of genes and environmental factors beyond their control; therefore they are not responsible. Other people cannot believe in God because they see so much evil in the world; they cannot imagine that an all-good God would permit bad things to happen to good people.

Christians believe in the "natural order." There are laws of physics and biology. But the human being even in this "natural order" has intelligence and free will. We can alter our environment; we can change our behavior consciously; we can cope maturely even when things go wrong. But over and above the "natural order," we believe that God is good and that he is with us.

He does not often intervene in the "natural order," he doesn't stop a truck; he doesn't interfere with gravity or with other forces. But somehow he gives us spiritual power (call it "grace") to put things together in our lives.

He can bring good out of evil. He makes all things – even suffering and death – work together for good for those who love him. The clincher is that he offers us everlasting joy. He asks us to be faithful to him, even if we don't get the miracle we want.

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A Note from Father Rafal:

Dear parishioners,

It's hard to say goodbye, but I believe God has a plan for me and I'm always there to fulfill His will. I enjoyed my time at St. Francis Solanus parish. I was honored to serve you and I'm grateful to God for every moment I got to spend with you. I truly appreciate your prayers for me. Thank you very much. My words are not enough to thank you for your generosity to me the past three years. Thank you for taking such good care of me. Not only did you open your hearts to me, but you also treated me very well. I am very grateful to you for that.

Being a priest for you was an absolutely wonderful experience. Thank you for being such a blessing to me throughout my journey. Thank you for your smiles and good company. The world would definitely be a more beautiful place with more amazing people like you. May the good Lord bless you abundantly for your kindness towards me. You have no idea how much it means to me. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I'm thankful to God for your hospitality. You brought me into your homes with so much love.

I'm grateful to God for Father Arisman. He put so much joy into my life. I enjoy his friendship. He was always nice and kind to me. I learned a lot from him. May God bless his ministry as he just celebrated 10th anniversary of his priesthood. You remain in my heart and prayers before God.

Thank you for everything!

May God bless your loving and generous hearts.

Reverend Rafal Pырchla

A Letter from Bishop Paprocki:

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I am inviting you to a once-in-a-lifetime experience that is being called "our national Emmaus moment," after the biblical passage in which Jesus walked with two of his disciples along the road to Emmaus. The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage is an unprecedented pilgrimage in which Catholics are praying and publicly following Jesus in their cities through Eucharistic processions. Our diocese is excited to have seven cities included in one of the national routes happening July 8-12.

You are invited to be a public witness of our faith by walking with our Lord in Eucharistic processions, you can pray before our Lord in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in our churches, grow in fellowship with your neighbors at dinners, and hear powerful witness talks from the national eucharistic procession team as they share their experiences of taking Jesus across the nation.

Our response to God's great gift of the Eucharist is thanksgiving, worship, and generous giving of ourselves in love of God and neighbor, so I encourage you to come follow Jesus as we take Him throughout our cities. It is the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ who is our source of strength and who nourishes both the individual soul and the collective heart of the community.

The closest procession to your parish is: July 9: Alton and Quincy.

To see a more detailed schedule of times, locations, frequently asked questions, how to register, and more, visit our diocesan website, www.dio.org/procession. I am confident your experience will be powerful and spiritually transformative. I look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

Congratulations to parishioner Jane Haas, who was nominated by the Quincy Deanery for this year’s Women of Distinction Award, representing St. Francis Solanus parish.

Thank you! To all of the ladies who volunteered to pray for our new priest, Father Bruce Scott, as part of the Seven Sisters of the Apostolate ministry. St. Francis is blessed to be getting a second parochial vicar, Father Kenneth Ahanonu, and we would love to have five more women to pray for him. If you are not familiar with the Seven Sisters of the Apostolate ministry, one woman each day of the week prays for a priest for one hour. The day is assigned, but the time and place for the hour is up to you—wherever you find to be most prayerful for that day. If you are interested or just want to know more about this ministry, please call or text Pat Holbrook at 217-257-2570.

Thank you! To all of the parishioners who signed up and attended our Wednesday Adoration. Due to school being out for the summer, we won’t have any scheduled times for Adoration. We hope to resume Adoration opportunities in the fall. Thank you again for celebrating the Eucharist!
