JUNE 30, 2024

Wisdom 1:13-15,2:23-24;
2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15; Mark 5:21-43 or
Mark 5: 21-24, 35b-43

Every human being struggles with the questions of good and evil, of life and death and suffering. Why do bad things sometimes happen to good people? Why do the wicked prosper? Why don't I get my special and necessary miracle?

The longer form of today's Gospel tells of two miracles: the raising from the dead of a little girl, and the healing of a woman who had been afflicted with a hemorrhage for many years. Suppose the woman was not cured. Suppose the little girl was not raised from the dead. Would we then blame God for not intervening?

The first reading tells us that God did not – and does not – make evil or death. The first principle of every Christian is to realize that God is good and merciful. We must look for other explanations of the problems of suffering and death; God doesn't ever cause them.

From today's readings, then, we should examine our philosophy or outlook about our lives. Who do we think we are? How does this world function? How do we ourselves fit in?

Some people think that all their thoughts and actions are at the mercy of angelic or diabolical forces; they are simply pawns on a cosmic chessboard who are at the mercy of others. And some others think that their unconscious actions are merely an overflow of unconscious and buried manias and phobias and drives.

Other people think that they are little more than complex machines: Their thoughts and actions are a result of genes and environmental factors beyond their control; therefore they are not responsible. Other people cannot believe in God because they see so much evil in the world; they cannot imagine that an all-good God would permit bad things to happen to good people.

Christians believe in the "natural order." There are laws of physics and biology. But the human being even in this "natural order" has intelligence and free will. We can alter our environment; we can change our behavior consciously; we can cope maturely even when things go wrong. But over and above the "natural order," we believe that God is good and that he is with us.

He does not often intervene in the "natural order;" he doesn't stop a truck; he doesn't interfere with gravity or with other forces. But somehow he gives us spiritual power (call it "grace") to put things together in our lives.

He can bring good out of evil. He makes all things – even suffering and death – work together for good for those who love him. The clincher is that he offers us everlasting joy. He asks us to be faithful to him, even if we don't get the miracle we want.

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 30, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

Greetings to you! From the bottom of my heart, thank you for the wonderful Going Away Party this past Sunday. From the ice cream station to the balloon wall and table decor to the picture PowerPoint to the card writing station and everything in between, the event was perfect. A special thanks to Sharon Mays for coordinating, and for the amazing crew that put it on. Thank you as well for the many cards and generous gifts. The generosity of this parish never ceases to amaze me. I gave myself a blister writing out all those thank you notes.

I don't really know what to say in parting except two simple words, "thank you." Thank you for the countless ways each of you have shown me your love, support, and prayer during my time here with you. I have so enjoyed visiting you in your homes, getting to know your children in the school and PSR, joining you for family celebrations, being with you when the chips of life were down, and everything else in between. Please be as welcoming to Fr. Paul as you were to me. I know that you will love him. Thank you for the opportunity to celebrate the Sacraments with you. While I still have much to learn, I know that I am a better Celebrant, Preacher, and Confessor because of the time I have spent here with you. It is so clear to me that God's grace, mercy, and love flow through everything that we do here at St. Peter's. I am confident that we all have the opportunity to come to know Christ and His Church here in a personal way.

I would also like to take a moment to personally thank Fr. Leo, Dcn. Bob, Dcn. Jeff, Kristi, Carolyn, Gina, Monica, Rebecca, Andrew, Lyn, Mary Ann, Darrell, Cindy, Chris, Roberta, Natalie, Eric, Scot, all of our Teachers, Aides, Support Staff, and volunteers/ministry leaders. I learned so much from them. They supported, challenged, loved, and taught me so much. I will miss working with them.

I am excited for my next chapter at St. Agnes and SHG. I spent a summer there when I was in Seminary and found the people to be wonderful. Fr. Dan Bergbower is the Pastor there and I learned quite a bit from him that summer. I am much looking forward to working with him and with the parish and school staff. Fr. Dan Baptized me 32 years ago, so I can't wait to remind him how old he is. ;-)

Please do keep in touch. My contact information is below. If you find yourself in Springfield, reach out and we can see about finding time to get together. Please pray for me as I make this transition and know of my prayers for you. If I can leave you with one thing, it would be the same message I always share with our kids in the school: Go to Mass every single weekend without exception. At Mass, we find a place to give thanks for the good, to make sense of the not so good, and to find the peace, mercy, and love that only life with Him, His Church, and His Sacraments can give us. I will see you in the Eucharist! In thanksgiving for His many gifts, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The School of St. Peter

Week of June 30, 2024

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

FAMILY SCHOOL AGREEMENT

What are those green cards that families are putting in the collection basket?

July 6/7 marks the first weekend for families to submit their green Family School Agreement Mass cards.

In April of this year we held three meetings to share the updated guidelines for the Family School Agreement.

The agreement calls for our parents to be present at Sunday Mass (or Saturday evening) at least 51% of the time in the parishes of our deanery (St. Peter, St. Francis, St. Anthony & Blessed Sacrament). At the close of the 2023-2024 school year color coded cards were sent home with school families. They will sign and place the cards in the collection baskets at any of the parishes. The same is true at Liberty, St. Joseph, Quincy University Chapel, or Mendon. The cards will be collected and brought to St. Peter Parish. The cards are color coded and if forgotten, each of the four parishes who have schools will have the appropriate color coded cards as extras available in the narthex or entrance of the Church.

Families who have fulfilled the family school agreement during the course of the coming year will receive the parish subsidy towards the 2025-2026 tuition. Families who have not fulfilled the family school agreement will be assessed the rate of a non-participating family.

MISSING THESE FACES

Summer is such a glorious time to finally feel like you are able to get something accomplished as you end one year and prepare for a new one. I find myself missing the wonderful school children and seeing their smiling faces. God has blessed us with such beautiful children and I am grateful to be their principal. Throughout the summer I will share a few snapshots taken over the school year!

Fr. Leo's Column

This Thursday, July 4, is Independence Day and a national holiday for our country. We will be celebrating Mass that day and I invite you to join us at 9:00 a.m. as we thank God for the freedoms that we enjoy and the independence that we have. As we gather, we ask God to watch over our country and our leaders and pray that we will never take for granted the blessings that we have as a country.

Bishop Paprocki invites us to a "once in a lifetime experience that is being called 'our national Emmaus moment,'" after the biblical passage in which Jesus walked with two of his disciples along the road to Emmaus. The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage is an unprecedented pilgrimage in which Catholics are praying and publicly following Jesus in their cities through Eucharistic processions. Our diocese is excited to have seven cities included in one of the national routes happening July 8-12. The procession for our parish will be on July 9-10. Please consult the bulletin item for more details.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A gushy reporter told Phil Mickelson, "You are spectacular; your name is synonymous with the game of golf. You really know your way around the course. What's your secret?"

Mickelson replied, "the holes are numbered."

A prayer for all of us: "Lord, Grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked, the good fortune to run into the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

Walk With Jesus On Our City Streets In Unprecedented Experience

You are invited to join the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage, coming to seven cities in our diocese July 8-12! This is a once-in-a-lifetime experience in which Catholics will pray and publicly follow Jesus through Eucharistic processions. Cities include Collinsville, Alton, Quincy, Girard, Springfield, Effingham, and Teutopolis. Mass, adoration, potluck dinners, and powerful witness talks are also part of the experience. Be There When God Moves In Your Community! Go to dio.org to learn more and register!
