Welcome to the 2024 St. Anthony Picnic!

This is one of our premiere events through the year, going back with a history of more than 100 years, which unites us as a parish family. Thanks to all who have come out, all who worked throughout the week to setup and tear-down. Thank you to our sponsors, donors, and benefactors. Thanks to all who are working the stands and concessions and activities. A special thanks goes out to our chair-people who have been organizing this event throughout the year, and who will be thinking about the 2025 Junefest and St. Anthony Picnic not long after this year's festivals are in the history books.

“Setting the Table”... Our reading of the sixth chapter of the Gospel of Mark ends this weekend, preparing for the next six weeks’ readings from the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John, where Jesus proclaims, “I am the Bread of Life.” (John 6:35) In the next verses of Mark 6, we were to hear the story of the feeding of the 5,000, but the Gospel of John tells the story and then pauses to meditate on the meaning of that miraculous day at some length. The Church invites into that meditation by presenting the sixth chapter of John over six weeks, allowing us to see ourselves as the hungry, lost sheep from today’s Gospel. “Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest with me for a while.” (Mark 6: 31) Everyone reading this bulletin should have a bible at home; I invite you to re-read the sixth chapter of John during the coming week. The Lord has an important message for us all, if we slow down and come away with him for a little while.

This weekend, nearly 50,000 have gathered for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. This is the culmination of years of planning, which ultimately is targeted at inviting the entire Church to renew its devotion to the Holy Eucharist. While this event is taking place hours from here, we are all united in spirit through the Eucharist we share. Heaven and earth are joined each time we call upon the presence of our Lord at Mass. He wishes to feed us with his own flesh as we recognize him as Lord. God is not a far-away reality, but one who speaks to the hunger of our souls inviting us to eat, drink, and live!

The XXVIII International Eucharistic Congress gathers at Soldier Field in Chicago, with nearly 400,000 in attendance. (June 1926)

Our Catholic Faith Discussions

Are you interested in growing in your knowledge of our Faith? If so, please join an informal group who will gather once a month this summer to share a meal, learn, and discuss topics of interest that you may not have learned or have forgotten in your Catholic upbringing. A simple meal will be provided, and possibly child care on site, if requested ahead of time. Any faiths and all ages are welcomed, but be aware that these videos are geared to pre-teens and older.

Our second get-together will be July 31, beginning with the Wednesday 6 p.m. Mass at St. Anthony Church. We will then go the Quilt Room for dinner, videos, and discussion.

The second discussion will be the remainder of "The Parts of the Mass"...have you ever wondered why we do what we do?? The answer is, "It's in the Bible!" Time permitting, we will watch the Eucharistic Stations. We will conclude by 8 p.m.

Feel free to call Trisha at 217-653-8733 or Paula at 217-779-7995 if you have any questions. An RSVP would be helpful, but is in no way necessary.
