FROM THE DESK OF FATHER SAIKI

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last weekend, after the news of the assassination attempt on the former president at a campaign rally, the Archbishop issued a statement, calling on us to pray for the person who died, for those who were wounded, and denouncing political violence. The Archdiocese sent out a prayer for civil discourse in our country. I prayed that prayer at the 10:00 a.m. Mass last Sunday, and several people asked where they could find that prayer. I am sharing it with the whole parish so that we can all pray for our nation, and call on God's mercy for us, especially in this election year. I ask all the parish to pray, to seek the will of God, to foster His peace in our hearts and to exemplify Christian charity for all our neighbors. While we have a civic duty to engage in our electoral processes, we must always do so with the help of God's grace, and resist any temptation to deify one party or candidate or demonize others. Christ is King, and only His peace can bring us true peace in our society and nation. So please join me in praying for our nation.

Yours in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
Father Saiki

A Prayer for Our Nation in its Civic Discourse

O God, maker and ruler of all, you have inspired and sustained our nation in her dedication to the pursuit of liberty and justice for all. By your grace, renew in us, we pray, our commitment to prudence and charity in all our civic deliberations and discussions. In your mercy, heal those tragic divisions which plague our political and cultural conversation and threaten the fabric of our democratic Republic. Restore among us the resolve of our founding Fathers to those principles for which they pledged their very lives. May our national dialogue during these challenging times reflect both mutual respect and good will, so that all our fellow-citizens might take their rightful role in that government which President Lincoln, during another time of bitter civil discord, described as being "of the people, by the people, and for the people." Through your generous providence, and by our willing obedience and cooperation, may the United States of America fulfill her ordained role as an expression of hope, and a beacon of light, for all the world. Amen.

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas,

El fin de semana pasado, tras la noticia del intento de asesinato del expresidente en un evento de campaña, el Arzobispo emitió un comunicado llamando a nosotros a rezar por la persona que murió, por los heridos y denunciando la violencia política. La Arquidiócesis envió una oración por el discurso civil en nuestro país. Hice esa oración en la Misa de las 10:00AM el domingo pasado y varias personas me preguntaron dónde podían encontrar esa oración. La comparto con toda la parroquia para que todos podamos rezar por nuestra nación y pedir la misericordia de Dios para nosotros, especialmente en este año electoral. Pido a toda la parroquia que oremos, busquemos la voluntad de Dios, fomentemos Su paz en nuestros corazones y ejemplifiquemos la caridad cristiana para todos nuestros prójimos. Si bien tenemos el deber cívico de participar en nuestros procesos electorales, siempre debemos hacerlo con la ayuda de la gracia de Dios y resistir cualquier tentación de deificar a un partido o candidato o demonizar a otros. Cristo es Rey, y sólo Su paz puede traernos paz verdadera en nuestra sociedad y nación. Así que únense a mí en oración por nuestra nación.

Suyo en el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
Padre Saiki

Una oración por nuestra nación en su discurso cívico
O Dios, creador y gobernante de todo, has inspirado y sostenido a nuestra nación en su dedicación al purismo de la libertad y la justicia para todos. Por tu gracia, renueva en nosotros, te pedimos, nuestro compromiso con la prudencia y la caridad en todas nuestras deliberaciones y discusiones cívicas. En tu misericordia, sana esas trágicas divisiones que plagan nuestra conversación política y cultural y amenazan el tejido de nuestra República Democrática. Restaura entre nosotros la determinación de nuestros Padres Fundadores de aquellos principios por los cuales prometieron sus vidas. Que nuestro diálogo nacional durante estos tiempos difíciles refleje tanto respeto mutuo como buena voluntad, para que todos nuestros conciudadanos puedan asumir el papel que les corresponde en ese gobierno que el presidente Lincoln, durante otra época de amarga discordia civil, describió como "del pueblo, por el pueblo, y para el pueblo". Que a través de su generosa providencia y de nuestra voluntaria obediencia y cooperación, los Estados Unidos de América cumplan el papel que les ha sido asignado como expresión de esperanza y faro de luz para todo el mundo. Amén.
