From the Pastor's desk....

One of the beautiful parts of our Catholic faith is the funeral liturgy. We pray for the deceased and we also pray for ourselves. People coming together, family and friends, to commend the soul of someone who has gone home to the Lord. There is no doubt, it is one of the most powerful things we “do” as Catholics.

When someone goes home to the Lord, it is a very emotional time for the loved ones left behind. Planning the Wake Service at the funeral home and planning the liturgy for the Mass is an opportunity to give these services a personal touch, and personal involvement.

Perhaps what we want to remember most is “how did God Bless this person in his/her life”. We think of the person; who they were, what they were like—but we also recognize that all that they were here on earth was a blessing. God blessed them with family, a job, certain talents, people in their life and different experiences.

When a family gives Remarks of Remembrance, this is what should be highlighted—the blessings God gave to them. Where was the God of love and mercy in their life?

May we reflect well on the blessings that God gives to each one of us.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

GIVING WITH GRATITUDE

September 22, 2024

Bolingbrook Golf Club

Save the Date for our Annual Friends of BBSF luncheon, September 22nd.

Dear Sisters in Council:

Proceeds from this event will be used towards Bishop Blanchette Scholarships in 2025. Last year we raised over $4,600 which is helping fund the $21,000 in scholarships awarded to ~~six~~ students this Spring 2024.

It is once again time to ask for your generosity and creativity by donating a Raffle Basket. When luncheon attendees see the baskets, they are excited to purchase tickets in hopes of winning the great prizes displayed. They also bring in the most revenue at the event. Deanery and Parish Presidents as well as Individuals—please consider putting together a basket valued at $50 or more. Councils making decisions, for end of the year donations, please note that the scholarships that will be awarded in 2025 will benefit from your donation.

We have space for 25 to 30 baskets (not more).

Contact Joan Dillon or Venessa Lopatka by July 15th if you or your group are donating a basket. Our committee will be mailing out the invitations for the luncheon later in July and we plan to include a listing of the baskets, so that raffle tickets can be pre-ordered before 9/13.

We will set up a date for when the baskets can be dropped off in early September before our Luncheon.

Thank you!
