Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 11, 2024

1 Kings 19:4-8; Ephesians 4:30-5:2;
John 6:41-51

Our Gospel selection continues to be taken from the sixth chapter of the Gospel according to John. Read it carefully! At the time of Jesus, the rabbis had a list of more than 400 “signs” which would point to the Messiah. One of these was manna. They thought that the Messiah would give them manna again, and that this manna would not only be for body but also for soul. Manna became a synonym for the wisdom of the Torah.

Recall that John’s Gospel shows how Jesus replaces all the forms, feasts, and institutions of Judaism. The first part of John’s Gospel is called “the Book of Signs.” John gives seven “signs” by which Jesus replaces the old, and shows that he is Messiah. He replaces the expected sign of manna with the multiplication of loaves and fishes. But he also replaces the “manna” of the Torah with himself, his way of life.

He, not the Torah, is the ultimate revelation of God which has come down from heaven. He, not the Torah, will give eternal life. The Pharisees expected the resurrection of the dead when the Messiah came, but they did not expect that the Messiah would do this.

Jesus says that he himself will bring about the resurrection of the dead – if only they believe in him. If a person commits his entire life to Jesus Christ, he will not suffer eternal death. Next Sunday, Jesus will carry the “sign” of the replacement of manna even further: He will give a new sign or sacrament which is his Body and Blood, the Eucharist.

The first reading tells of the discouragement of Elijah. He had performed a great sign and destroyed the prophets and priests of the pagan god Baal, but the people did not believe. Elijah just wants to die. God provides him with food and tells him to get up and go to the mountain of God (Horeb or Sinai). There, where Moses received the Torah, he will be renewed in spirit. Our first reading is good advice: Don’t sadden the Holy Spirit by harsh words, bitterness, or anger. We must be kind and forgiving if we are children of God.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today they are in disbelief of the Eucharist. The question is then posed to us...what is your belief in the real presence? Jesus makes it abundantly clear He doesn't mean a representative of His flesh and blood, but that it truly is His flesh and blood. He calls us to trust in Him and be fed by Himself. Now apply this to the first reading. The first reading Elijah feels like he can't go on and is urged to miraculously eat and drink to prepare him for the 40 day journey ahead. God desires to feed you on your journey but not just with miraculous food. God desired to feed you on your journey through life to life ever lasting with the food that lasts forever, Jesus' real presence.

As we prepare for the new school year this week please keep our teachers, staff, students and parents in your prayers. So many are very excited!! Pray for a successful year. It's been so wonderful having so many of our school families returning to mass. Keep up the good work and all of us do our best to welcome them even more! What a blessing for us all!!
