August 18, 2024 — 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

This week's Gospel reaches the climax of several weeks' readings from the Gospel of John. Reminding his listeners how God had provided his people in the desert with Manna from heaven, today Jesus explains that the Father sends his Son who is the true, Living Bread come down from heaven. Without him and without the bread he offers, there can be no life. The supporting readings this weekend explain that those who are 'wise', those who possess 'wisdom', are filled with the Spirit and are thus able to recognize the value of the gifts that are set before them. The gift that God intends to give is none other than the gift of everlasting life! This is meant to be a provocative statement, but it makes sense when we consider the Church as the "New Israel" and the "flock" of the Good Shepherd. Union with God implies union with our neighbor in the common life we draw from the Eucharist.

It is this understanding that lies beneath the practice of corporate worship within Christianity. We all are adopted children of God, always welcomed to come to the Father in our individual prayer. But when we are gathered as his family at Mass, the banquet of God's Holy People set free from sin in baptism, we live out a new identity as a 'Holy Nation, a Royal Priesthood, and God's very own possession'. The unity expressed in the Holy Eucharist gives glory to God and serves to invite others out of darkness and more deeply into the Father's own wonderful light.

Last week Quincy Catholic Schools published its Strategic Plan. Based on the groundwork of the last several years, including the public Listening Sessions from 2022, a team of more than 70 parishioners, parents, teachers, and community members met in April to discuss a strategic plan for our Catholic Schools in Quincy. In recent months an Advisory Board appointed by Bishop Paprocki has been meeting to polish this plan and prepare it for presentation. It is now time to present this plan to our community and to start implementing its 'road map' for the future of our schools. This plan is intended to guide the next 3-5 years as we make critical decisions about how to operate our schools under a new cooperative governance model among the Quincy Catholic parishes and pastors. You are invited to review this document, which can be found at:

Along with the strategic plan, there are updates published on a regular basis, updating not only our school communities, but all of our parishioners on the progress of these efforts.

Quincy Catholic Schools will be holding public meetings in coming weeks to reveal a "working plan" for operations and facilities. This plan has not been finalized and still needs some work. We are coming up to a point where we will need to make some important decisions however, and we cannot do this without the input and support of our community. Please watch the bulletin and for announcements about this important event.
