Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 1, 2024

Deuteronomy 4:1-2,6-8;
James 1:17-18; 21b-22,27;
Mark 7:1-8,14-15,21-23

After five Sundays with our Gospel from John 6, we return to the Gospel according to Mark. Recall that the first Gospel to be written was the Gospel according to Mark. Mark is very blunt. In the original Greek, his language is often coarse and rough; his grammar is not good, and his style is wooden. But what a story he tells! His is the most vivid of the Gospel in details. Today's Gospel contains Jesus' condemnation of the Pharisees for their hypocrisy.

The Pharisees don't get a very good shake in the Gospels; the very word has become a synonym for "hypocrite." Actually, the Pharisees were (for the most part) very fine people. They were deeply concerned about avoiding sin and keeping God's commandments. They believed that the Torah was the ultimate Word of God, and they distinguished 613 precepts in the Torah.

But Pharisees not only believed in the written Torah; they also believed that the interpretations of the Scribes and Elders were the oral Torah – equally binding as the written Torah! Thus their religion often became a meticulous observance of innumerable precepts and interpretations. Jesus says that some of these interpretations often void the real meaning of God's word.

Our first reading (Deuteronomy 4) was chosen today because it expresses the same theme: Moses tells the people not to add to nor subtract from the commandments. If people keep the commandments with the right spirit, all the world will see how wise and intelligent they are.

The second reading begins the Epistle of James. James is one of the most practical books of the Bible. By chance, this "continuous reading" fits in with today's Gospel and first reading: A person of true faith must be a doer of the Word: true religion is caring for others and keeping oneself uncontaminated by this world. Read James at home in your daily Bible reading!

Let us pray that our religion may always be sincere; that we shall never void God's will by our own blind spots; and that we shall always show our faith in action – in our care for those in need.

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

This weekend the readings call us to observe the statutes and decrees of the Lord. James calls us to live out true religion, which is the care for the forgotten and “to keep oneself unstained by the world.” Jesus in the gospel tells us to purify the inside and not just the outside. So often we are worried about appearances. Jesus calls us to true purification of not only what is seen but unseen. Jesus is the new Moses that calls us to follow the statutes and decrees of the Lord, interiorly as well as what the world sees. Jesus calls us to a true religion that is relational. The commandments teach us right religion and right relationship. Right relationship with God and with one another. Let us live this relationship in love.

Great news!!! It’s official. Fr. Kenneth Ahanonu has received all his proper permissions to travel here to us! Pray for him as he prepares and travels here for the first time, arriving in Quincy September 13! How exciting! Praise the Lord for this wonderful gift.

Lastly don’t forget next Wednesday begins adoration on Wednesdays from the end of the school mass around 9:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. Please help us fill the adoration time slots so we have the ability to offer this for our students and for all in the parish! Even if the slots are filled, please know all are welcome to join us even if just briefly. Come adore the Lord. He is waiting.

Pax et bonum,

Rev. Steven Aismann

A Unique Stewardship Opportunity with St. Francis Community Assistance Ministry (SFCA)

As the Fall Stewardship Renewal nears I want to make parishioners aware of a need that the SFCA Ministry has for a leadership position. For the past ten years, I have led this ministry, and watched it grow in the many ways we serve parishioners and people in the community. Currently, St Francis Community Assistance has many good men and women who volunteer to serve those in need. I do believe, though, the time has come for this ministry to have a fresh perspective and also someone with better internet and computer skills than I possess. If you are interested in working with me for the next year to learn what is needed to lead the SFCA ministry and to bring some insight into how it can run more efficiently, please email me at ambmcgee1416@gmail.com or call me at 217-430-1533. God has blessed this ministry with great volunteers and parishioners who support SFCA. I pray that we have someone in our parish who would give this rewarding and enjoyable experience a try.

Sincerely, Mary Beth Mcgee
