A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

It is an interesting Gospel we are presented with today, as the Disciples are traveling to Capernaum. Once inside the house, Jesus calls them out, "What were you arguing about along the way?" At once the Twelve fell silent. I would take it as a sign of shame before the Lord, not wanting to embarrass themselves. They were arguing about who was the greatest among them. In other words, they were discussing the 'seating arrangements in heaven'... how high each one of them would be as they sit along with the Lord in glory.

Jesus would use this moment to teach his disciples that greatness is not achieved by power or influence, but rather by the ability of one to lower oneself and become 'the last' and 'servant of all'. After all, Jesus came down from heaven, placing his divinity and his humanity at service to all who would call upon him. His condescension... his lowering himself to become a servant of all... would not be unlike a grown man or woman taking to heart the confidences and needs of little children who are vulnerable, innocent, and powerless in society.

But then Jesus turns around the saying and makes it even more intense. It is not about putting aside even divine power to serve the helpless, but it is finding that in serving the helpless and the child-like, ("whoever receives one child such as this in my name...") we actually have something to receive from them ("... receives me.") Humility becomes a virtue that not only clears our eyes from the fog of our own 'power', but it also helps us to receive more readily the secrets hidden in small packages. Humility is a virtue with dual practice, of not only giving away our illusions of our sophistication and power, but of being patient and receptive to see the glory of the "little ways" among us.

A Message from Father Don Blickhan:

We are about a month from our national elections, seeking to fill public offices from the local to the national level. To vote is our great privilege— and our sacred duty.

And our vote matters.

A friend, Mecki Kosin, a native of Germany, once shared with me that there was a national election in her homeland in 1934. Only 17 percent of those eligible to vote went to the polls. Adolph Hitler won by a narrow margin—and world history was forever changed! Scary!

Your vote matters!

For your vote to matter however, we would be wise to remember that

1. This election is not about personalities. Whether or not you like a candidate is irrelevant. The question is whether the individual can do the job. Some of the best leaders that I have observed were not "nice" guys. But they got the job done. A wise voter is not looking for a friend or for a nice person, but for a leader.
2. This election is about issues, many of which are moral. When you elect a person, you select his platform. It is wise therefore to study the candidate's positions and past record. Some politicians can be chameleons. Listen not so much to what they say, but what they have done.
3. As Catholics we are wise to ask ourselves: "Does the candidate's platform conform to Catholic truth?" Catholic Doctrine echoes the very heart of our Faith, the teachings of Jesus Christ. It is about integrity. If you do not stand with the Lord, how can you call yourself a Catholic?
4. Have you studied the issues? That requires research, which is a lot of work. And be aware that much of what you hear from the news media is propaganda—and not fact. If you do not understand the issues, are you then not failing in your moral duty as a citizen? And does that not mean that you have failed yourself, your family, and your country?

Elections have consequences.

You are responsible for the future of our country. - Fr. Don Blickhan

Fully Alive Sixth Grade Vocations Rally

On Friday, September 13, the Fully Alive Sixth Grade Vocations Day started with a lively welcome on the front lawn at St. Anthony Church. Then, the day began with a beautiful Mass celebrated by Bishop Paprocki. Sr. Karolyn, from the Franciscan Sisters of the Martyr St. George, and Fr. Dominic Rankin, Promoter of Vocations for the Diocese, were the two main presenters for the short talks after Mass on the themes of Relationship with God: Who is God? Who am I? What does it mean to have a relationship with Him? Identity: God knows us in our fullness. He's proud of us, delights in us, and we don't need to earn His love. Mission: If we are sons and daughters of God, what does that mean? How might He be asking me to live a life of love and joy? What mission does He have especially for me? The sixth-grade students enjoyed their time together during the vocations rally opportunities provided by our Diocese.

Quincy Catholic Schools Wants Your Feedback

The Quincy Catholic Schools Provisional Advisory Board recently held sharing sessions and presented a working facility plan. The goal of these sessions was to begin a community-wide dialogue to address the challenges our schools are facing. The presentation and follow up communication can be found at quincycatholicshools.org/provisional-advisory-board.

Additional feedback and ideas from the community are crucial to our future success. There are multiple avenues for you to share it with the Provisional Advisory Board and the pastors.

Prayer for Our Country

Dear God, bless our country, the United States of America. Keep our country in the Christian faith. Keep our country and all the peoples living in justice. Keep the young people of this great land, noble, brave, loyal and true. Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother of God, under your very special title of the Immaculate Conception you are the patroness of the United States of America. Pray to your Divine Son, Jesus Christ, and with that special power you have, O Mary, by being always perfectly sinless, bring everyone in our country to Jesus Christ. Amen

Eucharistic Adoration-October 6 There's always plenty to pray for that's for sure. Spending time in prayer face-to-face with our Eucharistic Lord is a powerful way to pray.

These words are a quote from St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"What will save the world? My answer if prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the blessed Sacrament in the holy hours of prayer. The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament....Will help bring about an everlasting peace on earth"

The Ladies' Society of St. Anthony Parish and St. Dominic School invite you to spend some in Eucharistic Adoration between the masses on Sunday, October 6, to pray for the special intentions of : Gods special blessings over the decisions and the work to repair the walls and steeple of our church and the decisions and planning for the best way forward to ensure a beautiful future for our Parish school and all the catholic schools in our community.

Please consider staying half an hour after 8:00 a.m. Mass or coming about a half an hour early before the 10:30 a.m. Mass to pray in a special way. Thank you for your prayers.

A Bible Study on the Annunciation

In this video, Dr. Ben Akers leads us through a brief study of Luke 1:26-38, highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's Yes in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.
