FROM THE DESK OF FATHER SAIKI

Brothers and Sisters,

As we continue to focus on the Walk with One initiative, we come to the third step which is to connect in Eucharistic friendship. The first step was to discern with the Lord who we are to walk with, reach out to, engage. The second step was to pray for the person the Lord put on our hearts, to intercede for him or her so that this person would be open to engaging us. This third step of connecting with the person in Eucharistic friendship is putting our prayers and the gifts of the Holy Spirit into practice in concrete ways. With the Lord's help, we look for ways to accompany the person we have prayed for, to build a deeper relationship, and to practice the art of empathetic listening.

From the Eucharistic Revival website: "Eucharistic friendship builds upon the dynamic that Jesus revealed in his relationships with the disciples and, above all, at the Last Supper—He takes bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it. It is important to take or receive what the other person has to share, to bless or lift it up in prayer, to let the Holy Spirit help break open an area for potential growth, and then to give of yourself in response. It is also important to recognize that this may not be a "one and done" conversation but is more likely to be a series of conversations and invitations, developing a real friendship with that person. Find an appropriate time to begin growing in your friendship, perhaps over coffee or lunch. Listen deeply for promptings from the Holy Spirit as you get to know your friend's joys and struggles. Share with them some of your own. Listen respectfully when the conversation turns to spiritual matters, including their relationship with God and questions or concerns about the Church, and reserve judgment about their opinions. Some people might be ready to discuss the spiritual life after only a conversation or two, while for others it might take more time."

This kind of engagement is so important because it forms relationships, shows care, and lays a foundation for an encounter with the Lord. I think of many instances of saints investing in a relationship and bringing the Lord into the dynamic so that the person they were engaging might find Him. St. Paul and the other. It also shows that we are not interested in numbers, but in people. We are not just recruiting, but striving to share with people we care about the great gift that is the Lord, and the Church. It fosters a greater sincerity on our part, and makes us more invested in the mission the Lord has given to us.

As we pray for inspiration from the Lord about who we are to engage, as we pray for that person, let us pray for the wisdom, prudence, and fortitude to take the next step to walk intentionally with the person the Lord is calling us to walk with, and to truly invest in that person so that he or she may encounter the Lord through our accompaniment and our own relationship with God.

Yours in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus,
Father Saiki

Hermanos y hermanas,

Al continuar centrándonos en la iniciativa Caminar con Alguien, llegamos al tercer paso, que es conectarnos en la amistad Eucarística. El primer paso fue discernir con el Señor con quién debemos caminar, acercarnos y relacionarnos. El segundo paso fue orar por la persona que el Señor puso en nuestros corazones, interceder por ella para que esta persona esté abierta a interactuar con nosotros. Este tercer paso de conectarnos con la persona en la amistad Eucarística es poner en práctica nuestras oraciones y los dones del Espíritu Santo de maneras concretas. Con la ayuda del Señor, buscamos formas de acompañar a la persona por la que hemos orado, para construir una relación más profunda y practicar el arte de escuchar con empatía.

Del sitio web de Avivamiento Eucarístico: "La amistad Eucarística se basa en la dinámica que Jesús reveló en sus relaciones con los discípulos y, sobre todo, en la Última Cena: toma el pan, lo bendice, lo parte y lo da. Es importante tomar o recibir lo que la otra persona tiene para compartir, bendecirlo o elevarlo en oración, dejar que el Espíritu Santo ayude a abrir un área de crecimiento potencial y luego dar de uno mismo en respuesta. También es importante reconocer que esta no va a ser una conversación de "una sola vez", sino que es más probable que sea una serie de conversaciones e invitaciones, desarrollando una verdadera amistad con esa persona. Busque un momento apropiado para comenzar a crecer en su amistad, tal vez tomando un café o almorzando. Escuche atentamente las indicaciones del Espíritu Santo a medida que conoce las alegrías y las luchas de su amigo. Comparta con él algunas de las suyas. Escuche respetuosamente cuando la conversación se centre en asuntos espirituales, incluida su relación con Dios y preguntas o inquietudes sobre la Iglesia, y reserve su juicio sobre sus opiniones. Algunas personas pueden estar listas para hablar sobre la vida espiritual después de solo una conversación o dos, mientras que para otras puede llevar más tiempo".

Este tipo de compromiso es muy importante porque forma una relación, muestra interés y establece una base para un encuentro con el Señor. Pienso en muchos ejemplos de santos que invierten en una relación y llevan al Señor a la dinámica para que la persona con la que se relacionan pueda encontrarlo. San Pablo y los otros también muestran que no nos interesan los números, sino las personas. No solo estamos reclutando, sino que nos esforzamos por compartir con las personas que nos importan el gran regalo que es el Señor y la Iglesia. Fomenta una mayor sinceridad de nuestra parte y nos hace estar más comprometidos con la misión que el Señor nos ha encomendado. Mientras oramos para que el Señor nos inspire sobre quién debemos relacionarnos, mientras oramos por esa persona, oremos por la sabiduría, la prudencia y la fortaleza para dar el siguiente paso y caminar intencionalmente con la persona con la que el Señor nos está llamando a caminar, e invertir verdaderamente en esa persona para que pueda encontrar al Señor a través de nuestro acompañamiento y nuestra propia relación con Dios.

Suyo en el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús,
Padre Saiki

Please join Archbishop Naumann in prayer for these two special intentions:

- Pray for all students that during this school year, they may develop the gifts and talents God has given to them in order to praise God and serve others.
- Pray that every Catholic may deepen their friendship with Jesus through encountering Him by bringing His love to refugees, migrants, the poor, the sick and the suffering.

- Oremos por todos los estudiantes para que durante este año escolar puedan desarrollar los dones y talentos que Dios les ha dado para alabar a Dios y servir a los demás.
- Oremos para que cada católico pueda profundizar su amistad con Jesús a través del encuentro con Él, llevando su amor a los refugiados, los migrantes, los pobres, los enfermos y los que sufren.

DO YOU NEED MARRIAGE HELP?
RETROUVAILLE IS DIFFERENT.

Retrouvaille Is Very Different Than Other Marriage Programs. Some spouses resist the idea of attending the program, out of concern that they will be required to expose their personal lives. None of this is true. In fact, the program is entirely unique, and most couples find that this is the very thing that worked when all else failed. We are told constantly that this is one of the best kept secrets in the world, and couples regularly comment that they wish they had done the program long before they did; That it would have saved them so much pain and anguish.
