From the Pastor's desk....

Our next Restructuring Meeting will be held Saturday morning, November 2. Our Group Facilitator will begin promptly at 9:00. Please plan on attending, as it is good for everyone to hear what is presented at the same time; it helps for all to be on the same page as we go through this. We must remember that God is always with us. He will help us in all situations, including any changes that may come about from the Diocesan Restructuring Process.

A reminder that our Religious Education classes have started for grades 1-8. Please be prompt in paying your tuition, as this has been prepared as part of our balanced budget with the diocese. All that you do for our RE program here is appreciated—the paying of tuition, bringing your child to and from the sessions, and helping your child to understand the Catholic faith.

People are appreciative of being concerned about health as we move more into the cold/flu/covid season. Be aware of your own health issues, and also with those who desire social distancing and mask-wearing. Often time the little things we do can help keep everyone healthy.

When you or your group is leaving the building at the end of the day, please check doors so that they “latch” and please turn off any lights.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

You are Invited to Our Parish Listening Sessions

As part of Phase 3 of the targeted restructuring process for the Diocese of Joliet, each parish will be hosting two Parish Listening Sessions during which important information will be shared, including the presentation of potential future scenarios, and feedback from parishioners will be solicited as well. Please attend both of our parish sessions in order to hear first-hand how the targeted restructuring process will impact our parish and grow the presence of the Church throughout the Diocese of Joliet and to provide your feedback to the Diocesan Targeted Restructuring Committee.

Our parish sessions will be held in the church on the following date:

Session 2 Saturday, November 2 from 9 to 11 a.m.

These are two separate sessions and you should attend both, as different information is provided at each. If you have any questions, please contact our Parish Point of Contact for the targeted restructuring process: Joe Maderak.

St. Teresa of Ávila Feast Day October 15

St. Teresa of Ávila (1515-1582) was a Spanish Carmelite nun who lived in the 16th century. She was a mystic and author of spiritual writings and poems. The originator of the Carmelite Reform, she founded numerous convents throughout Spain and restored a contemplative life to the order. She became well known for the mystical experiences, many of which she described in her autobiography.

The first of only four women to be named a Doctor of the Church, St. Teresa's ascetic doctrine and Carmelite reforms shaped Roman Catholic contemplative life, and her writings on the Christian soul's journey to God are considered works of art. Her writings, especially the "Way of Perfection" and "The Interior Castle," have helped generations of believers.

St. Teresa of Avila died on October 15, 1582. She was canonized on March 22, 1622, along with three of her greatest contemporaries: St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, and St. Philip Neri.

Deacon Sunday

October 13, 2024

Deacons are:

- ◆ An embodiment of Christ the Servant.
- ◆ A living example of Christ in the workplace, at the home and in public places.

Deacons deserve much affirmation for their tireless work, proclaiming the word of God, giving homilies, performing Baptisms. These selfless servants are fully ordained clergy, reporting directly to the bishop.

What else do they do?

- ◆ Proclaim the Gospel
- ◆ Teach our Faith
- ◆ Witness marriages
- ◆ Do prayer services at wakes and elsewhere
- ◆ Distribute Holy Eucharist at Mass, and when visiting the homebound sick and retirement/nursing homes
- ◆ Provide counsel for couples and individuals
- ◆ Work on parish committees
- ◆ Advise and assist pastors

The purpose of Deacon Sunday is to affirm these men who have said YES to serving their parish.

Please join our parish members by praying for our deacons and praising God for their gift of service.
