A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Mark, ever-sparing with his words and language presents a vivid scene in this week's gospel where Jesus encounters a rich young man on an urgent, exciting mission. "What must I do to gain eternal life?" (Mk 10:17) The man had heard about Jesus and was convinced that he had the answer that stirred his heart. This young man had made the effort to learn the scriptures and he was leading a good life. Would he who had everything he could ever want in this life now have assurance that his afterlife would also be provided for richly?

We can feel his spirit crash as Jesus radically re-arranges the young man's priorities. First, he brushes off the flattery—Jesus admonishes the man to keep his praise for God alone. Why would Jesus do this? Hadn't Jesus accepted the divine title of "Son of God" and identified himself as worthy of this praise? Of course he had. But who was the man praising? In his excitement, the man had a 'personal fascination' with Jesus in what Jesus could provide him in affirmation and assurance of his salvation. Fair enough. It does not seem that Jesus was angry or overly critical of the man, but that Jesus did want to capture his attention and focus his enthusiasm in another direction: The God the young man was seeking and thought he found was not the true God. Yes, he found Jesus, but to recognize his true divinity and all that flows from that truth requires his priorities to change (not unlike Peter in Mk 8). I can imagine what Jesus might have said to this man that is not included in the Gospel of Mark:

You must think calmly and rationally, about what you are doing and what you are proposing. You see a prophet and teacher, and that I am. But this teacher does not revel in the power or the majesty or excellence of himself or of this world. Whoever knows me must come to know the Father. You approach in fine dress and moral respectability. Even these you must surrender. You present yourself as a respectable man. I am going up to Jerusalem where I will be rejected and dishonored. Can you bear this suffering too? Can you let go of even this self-image as a respectable, moral man? If you want to follow me, you must surrender all of this, take up this cross, and follow me.

I don't think Jesus was refusing the importance of a moral, orderly life. I don't even think that Jesus was criticizing the man's wealth, but these goods are not ends to themselves. The moral life, the riches of this world, the high regard of peers and neighbors must all be surrendered... even spent... in sacrificial generosity. God will be the recipient of your sacrifice and praise, but God is to be honored by spending all of these goods of yours on those who are in need. "Young man, can you handle this invitation which is what real Christianity is all about?" The man turned away in grief, unable to love as the teacher commanded. He was unable to assume the risk to love so deeply, as to surrender all the goods of this world. The question of 'what price we would pay' stands before all of us who hear this Gospel with the hope of inheriting eternal life.

Pray for the repose of the soul of Rev. Msgr. James D. O'Shea, a priest of our diocese who died this week after 60 years of priestly service. He served fourteen parishes across our diocese but never in Quincy. I knew him as my pastor while I was in high school and college at my home parish of St. Patrick's in Decatur. Thus, he had a very profound influence on my own priestly vocation. Known for his perseverance, gentleness, and unwavering witness to the Gospel, I pray that he heard those words, "Well done, good and faithful servant... Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." (Mt 25) Please pray for vocations to priestly ministry, that God may continue to raise up faithful stewards of the sacred mysteries.

Seventh-Grade Attends Mission Mass at Cathedral

On Wednesday, October 2, 2024, our seventh-grade class traveled to our Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield to celebrate Mission Mass with Bishop Paprocki and many other schools in the Diocese of Springfield. St. Dominic School of St. Anthony of Padua Parish was recognized for our active participation in the Missionary Childhood Association (MCA). Bishop Paprocki encouraged our school to continue our efforts as Catholic disciples of Christ by sharing our time, talents, and treasure with other children in our community and in our world. This special celebration of Mission Mass united our children to Jesus, strengthened them for life, and connected them to the mission of our world-wide Catholic Church. The Missionary Childhood Association is a world-wide organization made up of Catholic youth.

Holy Moment of the Week

During Mission Mass at the Cathedral, one of our St. Dominic School students was recognized for her exceptional Christmas art work. Our school entered many of our students' beautiful artwork into the contest for the annual National Missionary Childhood Association (MCA) Christmas Contest. Bishop Thomas Paprocki thanked our students for sharing their artistic talents with the world. At morning assembly last week, we presented the MCA award and special gifts to Kolbie, a third-grade student, to celebrate. When our students see an ordinary moment as an opportunity to share their talents with the world to give glory to God, Holy Moments happen every day at St. Dominic School.

Upcoming Events

Relationship Health Survey

The Tracy Family is helping us partner with an organization called Communio – a nonprofit ministry that equips parishes with outreach tools and ministry strategies to grow and draw more souls to Christ through evangelization and discipleship of marriages and relationships. Communio is helping us set some ambitious multi-year Mission Outcomes and create a strategic plan to achieve them. So, you can expect to see some exciting new things here at the parish over the coming weeks, including:

- Enhancing existing ministry and developing a new series of events and experiences that build up community and friendships within our church and with those in our community.
- Using new forms of digital and mail outreach to invite people not already connected to our parish to our new ministry experiences.
- Implementing new skills-based ministries that help people in all stages of romantic life – whether you're single, dating, engaged or married – to strengthen their relationships.

But, before we launch this new initiative, our first big step as parish staff is to understand the unique relationship needs of our parishioners. This will help us select the right events, experiences, and ministries for the coming months and years. We're calling on everyone to help us! On October 4 through October 13, we will distribute an anonymous, mobile-based relationship health survey to everyone 18 or older. You will have an opportunity to complete the quick 3-minute survey on your smartphone (paper surveys will be available). The questions in the survey were developed by academic experts in the field of relationship education and health studies. The greater survey participation, the better insights our team will have to craft an evangelization strategy to address the needs of ALL our single, engaged, and married parishioners. Thank you!

Olive Wood Handcrafted Religious Items

October 19/20, 2024

Due to declining tourism in the Holy Land, many Catholic artisans face economic hardship. Our mission is to support these skilled craftspeople by providing a marketplace for their beautiful, hand-carved works in the United States. When you purchase one of these unique art pieces, you directly support Catholic families in Bethlehem and the surrounding region. This helps preserve a vital Christian presence in the birthplace of Jesus Christ, ensuring the future of holy sites like the Nativity Church. Secular Carmelite Holy Hour

October 20, 2024, 3 p.m.

The Secular Carmelites of Quincy are hosting a Holy Hour at 3 p.m. at St. Anthony Church on Sunday, October 20 at 3 p.m. All are invited to join them for an hour of worship, joining their intentions for parish priests of the Quincy area. Secular Carmelites meet on the First Saturday of each month at St. Rose Church to encourage one another in their call to deepen their spiritual lives through daily prayer and Mass attendance, participation in the Liturgy of the Hours, and regular practices of fasting and penance. For more information about the Secular Order of the Carmelites, contact Philip Kemner at 217-242-5911.
