Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 3, 2024

Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28;
Mark 12:28B-34

Love of God is the basis of the Hebrew or Jewish faith, just as it is the basis of our Christian faith. Our first reading today quotes the oldest known prayer; this prayer is in every synagogue service; it is a part of Jewish daily prayer. It is called the "Shema" (pronounced "Shmah").

The prayer reads: "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is Lord alone. Therefore you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength." (Our third graders know that this comes from Deuteronomy 6:5 – do you???)

When Jesus is asked about the greatest commandment of the Torah, he quotes this. But he adds that the second greatest commandment is Leviticus 19:18: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." He teaches that all of the Torah is summed up in these two commands. We can't love God unless we care for our neighbor's needs; we can't truly love our neighbor unless we first love God.

Conservatives think that they can have great religious faith while letting the needy take care of themselves. Liberals think that the essence of real faith is social justice and doing good to others, while they often forget to honor God himself. True faith must be found in works; works must be grounded in faith.

"Love" is not an emotion. It means to cherish above others; to put another's needs above one's own; to care for others even when it costs us. Love of God means keeping his commandments.

Love of neighbor means kindness, humility, respect, care, patience, forgiveness, reconciliation. Love of neighbor means that we seek what is best for him – even when it may seem to cause pain at the time. To do what is right and best is the only true love. Let us seek to grow daily in true love of God and of neighbor.

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Hear oh Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today.”

These words from Deuteronomy the Jewish people called the Shema. The Shema is memorized, placed in what's called a Mezuzah (which is a little metal object at the door of the house that has a little piece of paper wrapped up inside with the Shema written on it, which they touch every time they come and go from the house), and in the tefillin, which are small black boxes they wrap around themselves on their arms and heads that contain the Shema. The Shema is not only memorized, but touched anytime they come and go, and they wrap themselves in it because it helps them make it even more real and physical in their lives to never forget.

Jesus quotes this passage to show us how important this is. The Shema and the love your neighbor as yourself are the summation of the 10 commandments. The Lord is to be our Lord above all other things in our lives. Before sports, before sleep, before vacation, before work, etc. etc. Love the Lord your God with your whole heart, not just part of it.

One place where we need to put the Lord first above everything else, is in our politics and voting. We as Catholics in a free country with elections have a moral duty to vote. If we are eligible to vote, we should. See the United States Catholic Conference of Bishop's letter on “Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship (Updated version).”

Our Faith must guide our political views and voting, not the other way around. So often people put their political party before their faith and the Lord. Look to the party platforms, as they are the foundation for what each party must stand for and what you sign onto when you vote. Look for intrinsic evils. The platform should tell us if we can morally vote for someone from that party. Look to the fact that there are more than two parties. Look to the fact that voting and leaving a specific area of the ballot blank is an option in voting, but not voting at all really is not morally justifiable.

Local and state elections are so much more important and they effect everyday lives of people. Sadly, they are often overlooked and not taken seriously. Make sure we are putting God above the party of my parents or the party that I always have voted for or the party that I like, and instead choose the right candidates based on the morals and values of our faith; making sure we are not choosing a candidate based on what we like or don't, but instead morally for what they stand for or not.

The document states: “The threat of abortion remains our preeminent priority because it directly attacks our most vulnerable and voiceless brothers and sisters and destroys more than a million lives per year in our country alone.” None of this is to tell you which person to vote for in any specific races, but to start to make us consider, “What is God asking of us in each race of every election?”, instead of “What do I want?” Ponder God's will and make Him first above all aspects of our life, and do your moral duty and vote.

May we elect people who will enact just laws that make God's will more and more the will of our country. May God bless Quincy, May God bless the State of Illinois, May God bless the United States of America. Besides voting, pray for all involved in politics, even the ones you personally may not be able to stand. Pray for our country. No matter who wins, love one another, but stand for truth with Love.

Attention All Ministry Volunteers!

With the diocesan implementation of our new software, Parish Staq, St. Francis Solanus is ready to make a change in how our ministry schedules are produced.

All of our current volunteers have been added to Parish Staq. An email will be sent to all volunteers with a link to assist you in navigating the website. Just click on the “manage my serving” link to set your serving preferences.

Are you a parishioner and a business owner?

The picnic committee would like to compile a list of these parishioners so they can consider using your business services for the parish picnic. If you would like the committee to know about your business you may contact them at sfspicnic@gmail.com or csdeters12@hotmail.com.
