Council Business Meeting
2nd Tuesday of the month

From The Grand Knight...

Hello Brother Knights,

I hope this letter finds you well! We have a few things going on around the sports bar. The new floors will be started this week! Thank you to everyone who came out and helped move everything! We will need the same assistance one the floors are complete.

Seems like chicken dinners are off to a great start and we just had our first breakfast. Thank you to everyone who has helped! Our next breakfast is November 3rd.

Just a reminder the Annual Memorial Mass will be November 4th at St Anthony Church, 6:00 p.m. There are 21 brother Knights for whom we will be praying.

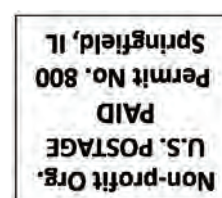

May I encourage the heads of all KC activities to please send information on their programs to the editor of the Knightly News at knightlynews583@gmail.com (as well as to the website through Bill Anderson at billanders44@gmail.com?) Not everyone is an internet person so it is important for the success of your KC program that your information gets to every Knight through the Knightly News.

Once again I want to thank everyone who helps out around the club! As for some of you who we haven't seen in awhile please come and see what's going on around your club!

I hope everyone has a great month!

Chad Altgilbers, Grand Knight

- CALENDAR RAFFLE

The 2025 Calendar Raffle is in full swing but the sales are a little slow. We need the generous support of all our members to help raise money for the club and it's charities. Remember, the calendars make great Christmas gifts!

The "Early Bird" drawing for three lucky winners will be held during Christmas Cheer. Also remember that anyone selling 20 calendars will be entitled to a free calendar! And anyone selling 50 calendars will be entitled to 4 free calendars. Thank you for your support and keep selling those calendars.

For more info please contact Mike Schlipmann at 217-653-9318.

To find a list of the current winners, please check on the website, www.quincykofc.org.

When people are empty of Christ, a thousand and one other things come and fill them up: jealousies, hatreds, boredom, melancholy, resentment, worldly outlook, worldly pleasures. Try to fill your soul with Christ so that it is not empty.

- St. Porphyrios

+ Remember the old tradition of tipping your hat or making the sign of the cross whenever you passed a church in recognition of the Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament? Why not restore that practice in your life?

- CHAPLAIN'S REFLECTION...

Dear Knights And Family Members,

As we look toward November and the approach of our Thanksgiving holiday, it is good for us to reflect. St. Augustine helps to put it all in perspective:

From the time of that first Adam to the time of his descendants today, man's lot has been labor and sweat, thorns and thistles. Have we forgotten the flood and the calamitous times of the famine and war whose history has been recorded precisely in order to keep us from complaining to God on account of our own times?

Just think what those past ages were like! Is there one of us who does not shudder to hear or read of them? Far from justifying complaints about our own time, they teach us how much we have to be thankful for. - St. Augustine

Some people are never satisfied because they define happiness for themselves in terms of having more. Some one once asked J. D. Rockefeller "How much is enough." He replied, "Always a little more than you've got!" Such persons are doomed to be frustrated and unhappy because they will always find others who have more than they.

Others are unhappy because they are fixed on themselves. They rarely give, and always are wanting the time and attention of others. Such persons are also locked in unhappiness.

On the other hand, a person who practices gratitude, who daily gives thanks for his blessings, is doubly blessed. For that person not only has his blessings, but is also grateful. Gratitude strengthens ties with the Lord and with others. It multiplies blessings!

As St. Paul advises, "Be joyful always; pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thess. 5: 16-18)

In November we will celebrate what must be our best holiday. It is not so much about us as it is about giving the Lord thanks for His blessings.

When we thank Him we acknowledge his lordship over us and our ties with Him. We help to restore the broken natural order of things.

For this one day we see His hand in our lives and are at peace.

Happy Thanksgiving!

- Fr. Don Blickhan
