Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

NOVEMBER 17, 2024

Daniel 12:1-3; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18;
Mark 13:24-32

Today is the last Sunday that we shall use green vestments until January; it is the end of the season of “Ordinary Time.” Next Sunday is the Solemnity of Christ the King, and the following Sunday is the First Sunday of Advent.

We meditate on the “Last Things.” None of us is going to get out of this alive! (There is, of course, an outside chance that Christ will come in glory today or tomorrow, but more than likely we shall be called to God in death.)

No one is going to be here a hundred years from now. Maybe it will be a lot sooner. You can’t take it with you. You will leave all the pleasures and material comforts of this world behind. The only thing you will take with you is your virtuous life.

You will immediately be called to God in judgment. You will be judged on how well you have tried to love and serve God in this life. Another way of saying it is: “How well did you try to use your time, your talent, and your treasure for the Lord?”

You will be responsible for every minute of every day of every year of your life. As you live, so shall you die, and so shall you be judged, and so shall you spend eternity. Some people might consider these thoughts to be “scare tactics.” But they are facts, and we must face them.

You may argue, and you may try to escape responsibility. But you truly will be judged by God. Live each day as if it may be your last, and you won’t need to worry. If this were your last day, how would you use your time, your talent, and your treasure? Death is no fear for the person who lives for the Lord.

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, November 17, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

Our celebration this weekend is of the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time. Next weekend is the Solemnity of Christ the King, thus the 34th and last Sunday in the liturgical year. In two weeks we begin to celebrate a new liturgical season as we begin the season of Advent. And as we anticipate the closure of one liturgical year and the beginning of a new one, the Church gives us readings to reflect that our time on earth is a gift, that it has an end, and the world as we know it will come to an end. As we anticipate this time, we also know that Jesus will come again in glory, thus bringing to a close this gift of time. In the gospel for this weekend, we find Jesus telling us about that second Coming, as He tells His disciples, “In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And they will see the ‘Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory, and then He will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.” This message is not given to scare us but a challenge to make sure that our lives with our God are right because our lives here on earth are so fragile and finite.

We are still in the midst of our annual stewardship renewal. If you haven’t returned your Commitment card or completed one online at the parish website, www.cospq.org, it is NOT too late. Returning your card is an important part of being an active member of St. Peter Church. Please take this opportunity to discern how God is calling you to grow closer to Him this year. One of the things for which I am most grateful with our parish family is how our families have embraced stewardship. A stewardship parish is a thankful parish for we recognize how God has blessed us in so many ways, especially in terms of time, talents, and treasures, that we feel compelled to give back to him in our prayer, in our ministries, and in our generosity. I ask you once again as you renew your commitment to embracing stewardship that you take your renewal forms to prayer, listening to what God says, and then as you do each year renew yourself as a thankful person and/or thankful family.

If you were unable to pick up your new 2025 parish calendars, you may do so this weekend. These calendars, courtesy of Duker & Haugh Funeral Home, can be found in our narthex either before or after Masses this weekend. Please make sure that our homebound parishioners also receive a calendar for this new year.

Also next weekend, we will be distributing a book on Prayer by Bishop Robert Barron. This book is a gift to our parishioners hopefully to be used during our season of Advent but also throughout the year. Hopefully it will assist you in developing a deeper relationship with our Lord and help make prayer an essential part of your daily life.

As we look ahead, we will have one Mass on Thanksgiving Day, and it will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. The reason for this late start is because of the annual Turkey Run which basically shuts down Maine Street for part of the morning. Please come and join us as we thank our God for blessings received.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

During the month of November, we are asked by the Church to remember those who have died. As a reminder, we have the Book of the Dead prominently placed before the Easter candle, recalling to mind the parishioners who have died. If you get a chance, you are asked to visit the cemetery and pray for those who have died. And for those who desire that our cemeteries remain a holy place for our deceased, I ask that you might think about donating a gift so that we not only preserve what we have but also make necessary improvements. In your packet of parish envelopes, you will find special envelopes for November for the care and upkeep of our cemeteries. Please consider a donation. Thank you!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A cantor, the man who leads the singing at Church, was bragging before his congregation in a booming, bellowing voice: "Two years ago, I insured my voice with Lloyds of London for $750,000."

There is a hushed and awed silence in the crowded room. Suddenly, from the back of the room, the quiet, nasal voice of an elderly woman is heard, "So what did you do with the money?"

One fellow was violently tearing through his Bible in a desperate search when a friend came up and asked, "is something wrong?"

"Yes," he said, "I can't remember if the thanksgiving story is in the Old Testament or the New Testament?"

Parish in Action

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

November 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With a population of over 1.1 million inhabitants, the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois has tens of thousands of people in our midst living in poverty. These men, women and children seldom make the headlines. However, their needs are real and deserve our prayer, action, and financial support.

Our annual Diocesan Collection for Justice and Hope (DCJH) will be taken the weekend of November 23-24, 2024. This collection gives Catholics an opportunity to reach out in solidarity to those who suffer and lack basic human necessities. All funds donated during the DCJH collection are granted to organizations that give realistic hope to the poor to break out of the cycle of poverty.

Like all Catholic ministries, the DCJH grant program reaches out to the broader community, without regard to race, ethnicity or religion. This campaign seeks to address the Gospel command to care for "the least of these" (Matthew 25), and also address the systemic injustices that contribute to poverty.

Please give generously to this DCJH collection and, when possible, reach out in service and solidarity to those organizations that help the poor among us.

May God bless you and reward you with peace, joy, and hope,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
