Thanksgiving week, the bulletin info needs to be submitted by noon, Monday, November 25 instead of the normal Tuesday deadline.

Post Election Reminder. The Bible tells us to teach and preach, in and out of season. Please remember the Church's constant concern over the decay of civilization and the morality of nations taking place through the following: abortion and euthanasia/physician assisted suicide/hastening death; the sins against the truth of the human body through violation of the sexual moral law; and the national debt, which ultimately a crime against the poor. It is hoped that all Catholics took these points of attention into account when they voted a few weeks ago.

Prayers and Support for Land of Peace. Their representatives were very pleased with our interest, our participation, and our support for their efforts to assist Christians in the Holy Land. Point of Information: it isn't just the Holy Land which has lost its Christian population to the point of 1% currently living there; Christianity in Europe is dramatically affected by the rise of the Muslim religion there. Prayers for the purification and renewal of our Catholic faith, everywhere!

Growing Disciples Takes a Break. Our Committee members will resume discussions in January; for now, we thank them for their participation in presenting names for our newly aligned parish, and in the Mass schedule, which you will have received at this weekend's Masses. Open House Buildings and Grounds Inspections will be re-scheduled through early December.

Courageous Hearts Youth Group: How About Another Point of Contact? Members and parents alike, and all those who would like to be kept updated on our Youth Group gatherings: We have been discussing the best way to contact you and have decided to use the app, "Remind". We will continue posting on our Facebook group (Hancock County Catholic Youth Group) and on Instagram (hancockcounty.courageoushearts), but if you want to be personally contacted, text the following: text "@g8kefhk" (this is the class code) to the number "81010" on your phone. If you have any questions, let a youth group officer know. Thanks!
