Second Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 8, 2024

Baruch 5:1-9; Philippians 1:4-6,8-11;
Luke 3:1-6

Although the book of Baruch speaks of the return of the Exiles from Babylonian Captivity (c. 539 B.C.), the book was probably written about 100 years before Jesus Christ.

It was written at Alexandria, Egypt, where many Jews were indifferent, and even embarrassed, by their faith. They enjoyed the high living of Hellenist culture. Baruch urges them to “look to the east” (i.e. toward Jerusalem) to be delivered from corruption.

The Gospel begins with a solemn pronouncement of the time: “In the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar ... Pontius Pilate, procurator of Judea ... Herod ... Philip ... Lysanias ... during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas...” We can hardly imagine a greater collection of corrupt scoundrels than these! Yet this is the setting for the preparation for the Messiah, John the Baptist’s preaching.

We think that our own times are rotten, that violence and corruption are everywhere, that institutions no longer work, that the Church is retrenching, and that there seems to be no solution to our problems. In just such circumstances, God sent his Son to save us!

John the Baptist calls on us to prepare for his Coming: Straighten out the path of your life. Fill up the valleys of your depression. Bring down the mountains of your pride. Look for the salvation of God.

In the second reading, St. Paul urges us to learn what things have real value, and what is really worthless. Learn to choose what is of value so that we may be ready for the Coming of Christ.

Second Sunday of Advent, December 8, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

On this Second Sunday of our season of Advent, the Church introduces us to a man named John the Baptist. As the introduction takes place in our gospel, Luke places John in the context of a historical time, “in the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor, Herod the tetrarch of Galilee, and during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas.” It was in this historical context that we find John proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. He was fulfilling the words of the prophet Isaiah: “A voice of one crying out in the desert: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths.” John became that prophet who ushered in a new era, an era of a Savior who would change the world and our relationship with our God. This Savior was born in history, suffered and died and rose, and will come again to bring His kingdom to fulfillment. Advent then is that time to prepare our lives and hearts for whenever Christ comes to us both in mystery and in history. Come Lord Jesus, Come!

It times past, whenever a Holyday of Obligation fell on a Monday or Saturday, the obligation was abrogated. This was always warmly received by the priests who would find himself doubling his Masses over a two day period. Recently, however, upon raising the question about obligations being abrogated, the Vatican answered by saying that this was no longer the case. If a Holyday fell on a Monday or Saturday, the obligation to attend Mass was still present. Because the Immaculate Conception, December 8, a Holyday of Obligation falls on a Sunday, and because the season of Advent takes precedence over the Holyday, this Holyday is then moved to Monday, December 9. And so Monday, December 9 becomes the Holyday of Obligation. This Solemnity celebrates the feast day of our country and diocese, under the title of Mary, the Immaculate Conception. In fact our Basilica in Washington D.C., along with our Cathedral in Springfield are named after Mary, under the title of the Immaculate Conception. This Solemnity proclaims that “from the first moment of her conception, Mary, by the singular grace of God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, was preserved immune from original sin. Our Mass schedule for this Solemnity is as follows:

Sunday, December 8, 6:00 p.m. Vigil Mass for the Holyday

Monday, December 9, 8:30 Children’s Mass, (10:00 a.m. Mass at QND)

12:10 Mass, and 6:00 p.m. Mass.

I do want to thank our parish family for remembering my nephew, Fr. Steve Arisman in your prayers. Through the efforts of doctors and nurses, as well as his family, but especially the grace of God, Fr. Steve is doing much better. He has a long road of recovery and will be doing so at his home in Springfield. Please continue to remember him in your prayers. +

If you haven’t picked up your tag for the “giving wreath” project, you still have time to do so this weekend. There are still some tags available in the narthex. With our participation, it will bring many smiles on peoples faces as they experience the joy of receiving from our generosity. Let’s help make Christmas this year a day of memory.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I always think our Church is so beautiful during our Christmas season. This beauty is the result of so many of you who donate each year toward our Christmas decorations. I challenge you once again to be as generous as always and we will maintain this tradition of a beautiful Christmas celebration.

Finally, as we bring our stewardship renewal to a close, there is still an opportunity for any parishioner to send in their stewardship renewal forms to the parish. Once again since we are striving to be that "stewardship parish" we need our parishioners to participate in this renewal each year. Please take your forms to prayer. Then fill them out and return to the parish office. It truly is our goal to have most of our parish family embrace and celebrate stewardship as a family and a parish community. Please do so before the start of a new year.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Toward the end of a church service, the minister asked the congregation, "How many of you have forgiven your enemies?" All held up their hands except one small elderly lady. "Mrs. Jones? Are you not willing to forgive your enemies?" "I don't have an enemy in the world," she replied smiling sweetly. "Mrs. Jones, that is very unusual. How old are you?" "I happen to be 98 years young," she replied. "Oh, Mrs. Jones, would you please come down in front and tell us all how a person can live 98 years and not have a single enemy." The little sweetheart of a lady tottered down the aisle, faced the congregation, and said, "I outlived them all."

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2024

Dear Friends in Christ,

In the coming weeks, our parishes will take up the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This campaign is crucial, benefiting more than 24,000 elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests who have been faithful servants within the Church, devoting their lives to service.

As I reflect on their ministry, I am grateful for the impact these women and men religious have had on our faith journeys. Their devoted service has impacted our diocese, inspiring and guiding us as we grow in faith.

Most senior religious worked many years for little pay, leaving their religious communities with a shortage of retirement savings. Rising healthcare costs and decreased income compound the challenge to meet day-to-day needs for medications, nursing assistance, and other necessities.

Your contributions to the Retirement Fund for Religious play a vital role in providing necessary financial support. This support enables religious communities to care for their aging members while ensuring that the younger generation can carry forward the invaluable work of their elders.

Please consider contributing when asked and giving what you are able. Above all, I ask for your prayers for God's continued blessings on all our women and men religious, who keep you in their prayers as well.

Together, let us support the many religious women and men who have made enormous contributions to our Church and to the world.

May God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

2024 Giving Wreaths

Can you believe we are fast approaching Christmas. Where does the time go? Again this year, St. Peters will sponsor the Giving Wreath. This is a program that allows us at St. Peters a way to help those in our community who are less fortunate. Several local organizations send the needs of their people. Each need is put on a tag and we put those tags out on tables in the Narthex.

This is happening November 28 through December 8. You can choose a tag(s) before or after church. The gifts are to be wrapped and returned to Church with the gift tag securely taped during the weekend of December 14 and 15. The local organizations will pick up their gifts on December 16, so NO gifts delivered after December 15. This will replace the Social Concerns 1st Sunday collection for December. Thank you in advance for your generosity!
