Baptism of the Lord

JANUARY 12, 2025

Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7 or Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11;
Acts 10:34-38 or Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7;
Luke 3:15-16,21-22

The baptism of Jesus was his inaugural as the Suffering Servant of the Lord. Every prophet had an inaugural experience. Jesus' inaugural comes at his baptism. He identifies himself with sinful mankind by accepting a baptism leading to repentance and forgiveness. In so doing, he takes upon himself all the suffering and sins of the whole world.

The "Suffering Servant Songs" in Isaiah (of which our first reading is the first) tell of an "everyman" figure who humbles himself, who is gentle, and who takes all evil unto himself; by his own suffering, he vicariously heals all. This Suffering Servant Song begins with the words "Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one with whom I am well-pleased." In the original languages, these are almost identical with the words of the Father in the Gospel.

The Gospel according to Luke emphasizes the power of the Holy Spirit. In the baptism of Jesus, Luke emphasizes that the Spirit comes upon Jesus. Henceforth, everything he does is in the power of God. The dove was the symbol of Israel. The dove here may symbolize that Jesus becomes Israel personified – or the new Israel. In himself he will save all.

The second reading is the story of the conversion of Cornelius. God is no respecter of persons; Jesus came to save all peoples of all times and places.

In our baptism, we are freed from sin precisely because in his baptism Jesus took to himself the suffering and sinfulness of the world. Jesus' other "baptism" is when he gives his life for the sake of us all; he strips away all sin and nails it to the cross. Through this "baptism" he empowers the sacraments to be signs of his salvation among us.

The Baptism of the Lord Feast, January 12, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend the Church celebrates the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. With this celebration, the Church brings to a close our Christmas season. As of this Monday, January 13, we will celebrate once again “ordinary time.” This particular time of the year will continue until Tuesday, March 4, the day before Ash Wednesday and the season of Lent. Ordinary time will then resume on Monday, June 9, the day following Pentecost. So enjoy this “ordinary time,” which is called ordinary because there is no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ being celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ is honored in its fullness.

As we celebrate the end of our Christmas season, it is with much sadness that we will begin to take down all those beautiful decorations both inside and outside of our Church. The latter however, might have to wait because of the snow on the ground. But hopefully by Sunday afternoon, the remnants of Christmas in the Church will be packed away for another year as we begin our celebration of “ordinary time.”

In our gospel for our celebration, the people were filled with expectations as they encountered this man named John, and wondered to themselves whether he might be the Christ. But John was firm in his denial, saying to them, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire.” Now it happened as our gospel relates that as Jesus had been baptized, something remarkable happened. “Heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.’” What we have in this particular experience is another “epiphany.” God once again manifests the glory of His Son, the Word of God made flesh, to His people in the waters of baptism. In this baptism, Jesus takes upon Himself our suffering humanity, including the sins of all humans, and nails them upon His cross as He saves us from sin and death.

Because of the weather last Sunday, the annual QND Pancake and Sausage breakfast was cancelled. But this annual breakfast to defray the costs of the Catholic Heart Workcamp will now be this Sunday, January 12, at the QND cafeteria from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The cost is $10 for adults and $5.00 for children. I encourage you to come and enjoy breakfast as we assist our high school students in their annual endeavor to the Catholic Heart Workcamp each summer.

Speaking of breakfasts, I remind you that our own Pancake and Sausage breakfast will be Sunday, January 26, in our school gym after each of our Masses. Come and enjoy a great time together.

Once again as we bid our Christmas season a final farewell, I want to thank the many parishioners who brought us baked items, from cookies to bread, as well as the other items to eat as in popcorn and candies and whatever else I might have forgotten. All of us here at the parish office benefitted from your kindness and we can’t thank you enough for remembering us. May God bless you!

Week of January 12, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

GRANDPARENT/SPECIAL PERSONS DAY A DAY TO HONOR SPECIAL PEOPLE IN OUR LIVES

One of SPS traditions is to host Grandparent/Special Person's Day. We welcomed over 700 guests. We began this special day with Mass, then visited classrooms and ended with a special music program led by Mrs. Sara Reeder! It was a great day of celebration for all.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK is scheduled for January 25-January 31.

Our week of celebration includes kicking off the week with the weekend Masses and the Pancake Breakfast. It will continue by including activities such as participating in a virtual living rosary with the Catholic schools in Quincy, dressing in something special each day, playing Bingo, having a HOUSE game day, collecting food for the Souper Bowl of Caring all week, welcoming parents to attend the Wednesday Children's Mass, and the Talent Show. We end the week with the annual 8th grade volleyball competition. Who will win this year?

A detailed schedule will appear in next week's bulletin as well as sent to our school families.

SCHOOL MENU

Monday: Corn dog, emoji fries, baked beans, fruit.

Tuesday: Breaded chicken on bun, curly fries, corn, fruit.

Wednesday: Meatballs, bosco stick, romaine salad, fruit.

Thursday: Chicken fries, hash brown, mixed vegetables, fruit.

Friday: Toasted cheese ravioli, pudding, carrots, fruit.

Project Rachel

Help for women and men to heal from the pain of abortion. For assistance call 1-877-RACHEL-5.

Reporting Allegations of Child Sexual Abuse

To report allegations of sexual abuse of a minor by clergy or other church personnel – even if it is in the past – individuals are encouraged to call the Diocese's Child Abuse Reporting and Investigation number at (217) 321-1155. Individuals may also contact Illinois Department of Children and Family Services Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.25.ABUSE.

Save The Date

Save the date for June 1, 2025 for a celebration of Fr. Leo's 50th anniversary of his Ordination. More details to follow in the future.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I also ask your prayers for a meeting that I will be attending with the diocese concerning our building project. Our architects, engineers, and parish staff will be appearing before the Commission of Buildings and Property on Thursday, January 23, at 3:00 p.m. in the Catholic Pastoral Center. Please keep us in your prayer as we present our project to the diocesan officials.

Our month of January is busy with differing encounters whether TEC or Cursillo. In each case, I ask your support through your prayers for the candidates and team members. There will be a TEC from January 18 thru 20; and a Men's Cursillo from January 23 thru 26. Hopefully the gift of the Holy Spirit will fill these days, opening up the candidates to God's will and challenging them to live it as they return to us.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: One day an ape escaped from the Bronx Zoo. They searched for him everywhere in every borough. They announced his disappearance on the radio and television as well as in the newspapers, but no one reported seeing the ape.

At last, the ape was found in the New York Public Library. Officials at the Zoo and the animal handlers were summoned to the library. They found the ape sitting at a desk in the reading room with two books spread out in front of him. The ape was reading with great concentration. One book was the Bible; the other was a book written by Darwin.

The zookeepers asked the ape what he was doing. The ape replied, "I'm trying to figure out whether I am my brother's keeper or my keeper's brother."
