January 19, 2025 Second Sunday of Ordinary Time— C

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In the old calendar, the “Time after Epiphany” was considered its own season, much like Advent, Lent, and Easter would be considered seasons during the Church year. The “Time after Epiphany” and the “Time after Pentecost” were joined together with the reforms of the Second Vatican Council to become “tempus per annum” or “time throughout the year”.

Unfortunately the English translation of this Latin phrase became “ordinary time”, as if to call the green season “uneventful” or “undistinguished” from the times of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter. What was intended by the English translation was ‘ordinary’ in the sense of ‘ordinal’ numbers, that is, ‘counted’ time... first, second, third, fourth, etc. Even with this change, there is a distinctive flavor for the readings of the Time after Epiphany compared to those in the Time after Pentecost.

One of the most notable carryovers from the “Time after Epiphany” is the connection with this week’s gospel reading. The mystery of Epiphany has always been reckoned, not simply the coming of the Three Kings to the stable in Bethlehem, but encompassed the ongoing mystery of the revelation of Christ, starting with the Three Kings event, including his Baptism in the River Jordan, and flowing through the revelation of his first miracle at the Wedding Feast at Cana, and then flowing into the proclamation of the Kingdom of God to those who would listen and believe. The connection between these events is made clear in a number of traditional hymns for the season, most notably the metrical hymn “Songs of Thankfulness and Praise”.

As we read from the Gospel of John this week (before returning to the Gospel of Luke for the rest of the year), we see Jesus at the Wedding Feast at Cana, where he performed his first miracle at the request of his mother, Mary. The six stone jars in the narrative represented the old law of Moses. While this special water was set aside for ceremonial cleansing representing the forgiveness of sins, it was not like wine, which could bring “joy to men’s hearts” (Ps 104). Nobody would have probably minded the exhaustion of water... the servants could go out anywhere and find more... but when the wine ran out, the celebration would be over! Jesus came forward as the ultimate host, the ultimate bridegroom, in the spirit of our first reading from Isaiah: to take Jerusalem as his ‘espoused’ and to celebrate a new union of God with his people.

The covenant of marriage would thus foreshadow the covenant poured out as his very blood in the sacrifice of the Eucharist. Today’s wine however, ushered in a new celebration, building on the forgiveness of sins represented by washing water, now revealing the surprise and festivity of God’s Kingdom being made manifest by Christ.

Fr. Raniero Canalamessa, preacher for the papal household, frequently comments on this story from the Gospel of John, observing that water and wine, used as a metaphor, is a powerful sign of transformation and divine grace. To the ancients, the process of fermentation was not well understood, but was appreciated as a sign of divine favor. Using this symbolism, Canalamessa encourages married couples to persevere in their relationships, recognizing that the routine and pressures of day-to-day living can be an exhausting experience. He encourages couples to turn to Jesus and ask him to transform the ‘water’ of daily living into a fresh, exciting new ‘wine’ of God’s presence and favor. Trusting in God to take what we offer and transform it into something new and exciting, we invite couples of our parish to participate in our inaugural “Couples Night Out” event coming up on Friday, February 7. We ask for signups, either through the QR code here, or by calling the parish office (222-5996). Keep an eye out for more information and announcements!

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Natural and Supernatural Meanings of the Virtue of Prudence

This week, our sixth-grade leaders and their teacher, Mrs. Laurie Stegeman, taught the K-8 students about the natural and supernatural meanings of prudence. They taught us to use a T-Chart to make decisions in the natural sense when prudence is the ability to judge correctly what is right and wrong in a given situation and act accordingly. Prudence involves using reason to make good decisions about how to achieve moral and practical goals. Then, they taught us to use a TRI-Chart to make decisions in a supernatural sense when prudence is elevated by grace and enables a person to discern God's will and act in ways that lead to union with Him. Supernatural prudence is a gift from God helping us align to His plan.

Begins February 6

GriefShare returns with a new round of sessions starting February 6, 2025 at 6:00 p.m. in St. Anthony's Parish Hall. For persons experiencing grief following the loss of a loved one... this thirteen-week program features biblical, Christ-centered information focusing on grief topics. Each session offers a video presentation featuring nationally-respected grief experts and persons sharing their stories of life after the loss of a loved one. We then have small group discussion about what was viewed and share experiences. Past participants have related the information and follow-up discussions were very helpful. The third part of GriefShare is the participants' guidebook providing opportunities for support between meetings. A GriefShare grief support group is confidential. Please join us. Questions: Call Jim Liesen 217-577-6664 or Cindy or Deacon Harry Cramer 217-224-1160.
