Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 26, 2025

Nehemiah 8:2-4a,5-6,8-10;
1 Corinthians 12:12-30 or 12: 12-14, 27;
Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21

Except for Lent and Easter, all of our Sunday Gospels will be taken from the Gospel of Luke this year. Luke is the only non-Jewish writer of any book of the Bible. He was well-educated; he was a doctor; he accompanied Paul on some of his missionary journeys. Luke has a sense of delicacy, and he often smoothes the “rough” language of Mark. He omits anything which would be offensive to good taste. His Gospel emphasizes the Lord’s mercy and forgiveness. Luke takes note of secular history, and places Jesus in historical perspective. Women play a very important part in Luke’s Gospel. Remember these characteristics as you read Luke this year.

Today’s Gospel contains the first four verses of the Gospel; then it skips to the time immediately after Jesus’ baptism by John the Baptist. Jesus goes to his hometown synagogue, opens the scroll of Isaiah to give the reading. He then sits down and proclaims that the reading has been fulfilled in their presence! The Spirit of the Lord is upon him. He is anointed to proclaim Good News to all.

The first reading today describes the renewal of the covenant under Ezra about 450 B.C. Moses had received the Torah from the Lord on Mt. Sinai about the year 1290 B.C. Then the Israelites had promised to be loyal to the covenant, but they were not. Because of their constant infidelity, the nation was destroyed, and they were captives at Babylon from 587 to 538 B.C. God delivered them; they returned home; and under Ezra they renewed their pledge of loyalty to the covenant. “Amen” means “with all my heart and soul, I agree to this!”

The second reading continues Paul’s discussion on the use of all our gifts and talents for the building up of the Church. The Church is the Body of Christ. Although we shall use the short form of the reading at Mass today, read and reflect on the longer form. Each of us receives the one Body of Christ in Holy Communion. We are united with him. Through our union with the Person or Body of Christ, we become one Body in him! Therefore we must show our unity with each other by our bonds of love and caring. Each person must seek to contribute to the upbuilding of the Body of Christ, and not to tearing it apart.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 26, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather this weekend, the Church continues to celebrate “ordinary time” as we celebrate the Third Sunday. This weekend also happens to be the last weekend in our month of January as well as the weekend that begins what we call “Catholic Schools Week.” Each of these weekends give us cause to rejoice and celebrate our Eucharist together.

In our gospel for this weekend, we find a very dramatic scene taking place in Luke’s presentation. In this gospel, Jesus returns to His hometown of Nazareth and “went according to custom into the synagogue on the sabbath.” News of Him had spread throughout the area so people were open to whatever message this hometown rabbi had for them. In a dramatic scene, “He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah.” He unrolled it and read the passage about the Spirit of the Lord being upon Him, because He was the anointed one to bring glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, recovery of sight to the blind, and the oppressed going free. He rolled it back up and in a most profound statement proclaimed, “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” The mission of Jesus is fulfilled in this passage that He read. Jesus has entered our world to set us free, free from all those things that have held us bondage here on earth. He has entered our world to set us free and to give us His abundant life. Perhaps the summary of Jesus’ message to us is found in the simplicity of our responsorial psalm as we prayed “Your words Lord are spirit and life.”

As we celebrate this last weekend in our month of January, the Church as stated celebrates what we call “Catholic School’s Week.” This is the week in our calendar year that we reflect on the reason and purpose that we have a Catholic school. Our Catholic schools were founded in the beginning of our country to protect and promote the Catholic faith. Many of the “public schools” at the founding of our country were religious schools which promoted their particular denominations. There was very little separation of Church from state in the early days. In order to protect and promote the Catholic faith among many of the early immigrants, a Catholic school was established in most parishes. Dependent upon the parish, these Catholic schools often taught in the language of the immigrants but always with the idea that the products would assimilate into the new culture of America. And they did. These schools became quite prosperous from grade, to high, and even to college levels of education. These parochial schools thrived and became the tool of evangelization for Catholic Churches through the centuries. And these same schools remain these same tools, supported by our parishioners who want to protect and promote our Catholic faith. And so today, we honor these schools and take pride in what we are and what we have produced over the years. I just wish those who were a part of our school system would remain products of what they learned and continue that same learning curve with their children, especially with the Eucharist being the center of their lives. Our students this weekend will be actively participating in our celebrations as we begin National Catholic School’s Week. And I thank our parishioners for making sure that our Catholic school of St. Peter remains alive and viable and growing as we meet the future for our young people.

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

CHRIS CAKES RETURNS to KICK OFF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

Please join us for our 12th annual pancake breakfast Sunday, January 26 from 8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. This event will be held in the St. Peter gym. Chris Cakes will again be cooking, serving and tossing pancakes! Breakfast cost is $7.00 per plate for every person over 2 years old. Children 2 years and younger eat free. Be sure to keep your plate if you would like to catch more pancakes to eat. As long as you keep your plate your breakfast will be all you can eat!!

FR. PAUL BLESSES THE CLASSROOMS

Fr. Paul visits the classrooms each month. He has been busy writing a chalk blessing over the door of each classroom that he has blessed for the Feast of the Epiphany.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR THIRD GRADE TEACHERS

Ms. Evelyn Downey and Mrs. Pam Hagerbaumer received a $200 grant from the Optimist Club of Quincy to help financially support their innovative math project with the third grade students.

The third grade are in the process of learning and mastering their multiplication facts. In order to keep the students motivated they have planned special incentives for the students. One incentive is to earn a Math t-shirt. The students will tie dye the shirts and wear them as a celebration or a recognition for their successful accomplishment to master multiplication facts.

SCHOOL MENU

Monday: Sausage pizza, yogurt, carrots, fruit.

Tuesday: Tenderloin on bun, curly fries, corn, fruit.

Wednesday: Chicken chunks, mashed potatoes, peas, fruit.

Thursday: Hamburger on bun, emoji fries, mixed vegetables, fruit.

As part of our Catholic School's Week, I want to invite you over to the school gym right after our Masses this weekend to enjoy our annual pancake and sausage breakfast. You can't beat all you can eat for $7 as you help support our Catholic school with your generosity and appetite. Chris Cakes of St. Louis will be doing the cooking as well as challenging you, if you so wish, to catch your own pancakes. Whatever the case, I invite you to come over and have fun this day.

I ask your prayers this weekend for Men's Cursillo 373 which is taking place this weekend at the Franciscan Retreat Center from January 23-26. May the Holy Spirit fill the lives of the team and candidates with the fire of His Love.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:
Actual Elementary School Excuses Notes:

1. Jerry was at his grandmother's yesterday, and she did not bring him to school because Jerry couldn't remember where the school was.
2. It was my fault Mike did not do his math homework last night. His pencil broke and we do not have a pencil sharpener at home.
3. Scott didn't practice last night because he lost his tooth in the mouthpiece of his trumpet.
4. Ronnie would not finish his work last night. He said his brain was too tired of spelling.
5. Henry stayed home because he had a stomach ache from eating too much frosting.
6. Diane was late on Wednesday. She fell asleep on the bus and was taken back to the bus yard.
