Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

JANUARY 5, 2025

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a,5-6;
Matthew 2:1-12

“Epiphany” means “Manifestation” or “Showing Forth.” Originally, it referred to the official visit of a king or emperor to his provinces. There were parades (during which courtiers threw coins to the onlookers.) There was a banquet for citizens, and a general amnesty.

The word “epiphany” was taken over by the Church for the “showing forth” of the Son of God in-the-flesh. Originally, the feast commemorated three events: the coming of the Magi, the baptism of Jesus, and the wedding feast of Cana. In each case, Jesus manifested his glory.

As time went on, the focus in many (perhaps most) countries was the Magi. These were pagan wise men who probably came from Arabia or Persia. The great irony is that the Chosen people (king and priests and sages at Jerusalem) were indifferent to the birth of Jesus, whereas these pagans traveled long and far!

In our times, the focus of Epiphany is the conversion of the world. Each of the Scripture readings tell of the longing of the Gentiles and nations for light. The first reading speaks of the non-Jewish nations who wish to walk by the light of the Lord.

The Responsorial Psalm proclaims that every nation on earth should adore the Lord. The second reading says that Gentiles (non-Jews) are called to be co-heirs with the Jews in salvation. The Gospel tells of the pagan Magi who come from afar to worship the Lord.

The challenge to us is to spread the message of the truth of Jesus Christ and his Church to the world. It must begin in our neighborhood. Who have you invited to faith last year? Who will you invite this year?

The Epiphany of the Lord Solemnity, January 5, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

“Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the Lord shines, and over you appears His glory. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you, your sons come from afar.” On this Solemnity of the Epiphany, the day seems to fulfill these words. This Solemnity celebrates the glorious appearance of the Lord to all humanity and to all of creation. As the glory of the Lord appeared to the Jewish people on Christmas, this day celebrates the glorious appearance to the non-Jewish world represented by the Magi. Between Christmas and Easter, Jesus has entered our world to reconcile Jews and Gentiles, and shows Himself as the Lord of all. The Magi, often called the wise men or three kings, were Gentiles or unbelievers. Something about their observation of the stars led them to the place where they found this newborn Savior. With an act of adoration, they placed before Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Each of these gifts had a special meaning, gold for a king, frankincense for a God, and myrrh, indicating His death and burial. In many of the European countries, this particular Solemnity had greater significance than Christmas itself. And so in the spirit of this Solemnity, I wish each of you a very Merry Christmas.

This coming Sunday, January 5, I want to invite you to the QND Pancake and Sausage Breakfast being served at QND cafeteria from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The cost is $10 for adults and $5.00 children. The benefits of this breakfast help defray the costs of the Catholic Heart Workcamp this summer.

We have a new contribution envelope company recommended by our diocese. If you currently receive contribution envelopes, you will hopefully be receiving the new January, February envelope in the next week or so. If observant, you will notice that the new envelopes look different. If you do not receive them by this week, please call the parish office. Also, for some of you there was a mix-up at the envelope company itself. Some of you received packets of envelopes for a cathedral in South Dakota. I bet that surprised you! Please throw these away as you will be getting a new packet of the correct envelopes soon. Thank you for having a sense of humor with this mistake.

This past Advent, one of the activities that impressed me the most was the giving wreath project sponsored by our social concerns committee. As usual, our parishioner responded so well to the invitation to make this Christmas special for people who were in need in our community. Our faith goes beyond our Church walls and puts smiles on faces through our generous gift giving. I couldn't believe the number of gifts given. The community organizations that distributed them were also impressed with our generous spirit. So I thank each of you for making this Christmas special for people in need in our community.

Finally I can't say enough about our Christmas decorations. Our Church was beautifully decorated, with careful thought for each decoration, and these decorations reflected the worship of our community. To the committee, to the helpers, to Frericks Garden Center, I say thank you on behalf of all of us.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

On the page entitled Parish in Action, we are asking you to save the dates for special events taking place during the next several months. Please cut these out and save them on your calendar. Each of these days will add a lot of fun to your lives.

I want to announce that we have hired a new parish nurse. Her name is Sarah Wietholder and she will be working closely with Rebecca Knuffman as she becomes familiar with her new part-time job. I ask you to welcome her and help her in her new ministry within our parish family.

We are still looking for a part-time cafeteria manager for our school cafeteria. Please consult the bulletin for further details if interested.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A kindergarten child is in Sunday School and they have finished their lesson and so their teacher has asked them to draw a picture of the manger scene. The children worked on their pictures and as they finished they wanted to show them to their teacher. She surveyed all the pictures of the manger, with baby Jesus, Joseph, and Mary. Some had the wisemen or angels, most had animals.

But in one young man's picture the teacher noticed a single, chubby man standing at the corner of the stable. The teacher asked, "Who is this, standing back in the corner?"

The child said, "Well, that is 'round John Virgin,' of course."

On the Solemnity of the Epiphany, I wish you a Merry Christmas.

Magi. Leo J. Embor

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2024

My dear Friends in Christ,

Catholic Times, the magazine of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, has always been a key communication tool for our diocese. Whether it is important announcements, teaching the faith, or inspirational stories, the magazine provides tremendous value to readers. For example, that was apparent this past year with special coverage of the historic National Eucharistic Pilgrimage procession that stopped in seven cities in our diocese.

Catholic Times continues to hear from readers across the diocese that they read it from "cover to cover." In fact, two people specifically told us they "finally understand purgatory" and why we must pray for the dead after Catholic Times offered several pages in a November edition educating people about this aspect of our faith.

For another consecutive year, Catholic Times received national awards from the Catholic Media Association's national awards program. Catholic Times' new website offers a much better user experience that features podcasts, videos, articles, my column, and an easy search tool.

Catholic Times is committed to deepening readers' understanding of the Catholic faith through its Hey, Father! series, tackling complex topics in bioethics, and illuminating the meaning of sacraments, the Mass, and Church teachings. At the heart of the magazine is its feature reporting, which highlights inspiring stories of individuals, parishes, and schools working to advance the Kingdom of God within the diocese. With a strong focus on local coverage, each issue delivers stories that resonate with readers, featuring contributions from both laity and clergy who are integral to the community.

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is one of the best ways I can speak about the issues we face as Catholics and update readers on important decisions I make that impact the faithful.

It is all these reasons why I believe Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either digitally or by mail.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
