Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FEBRUARY 16, 2025

Jeremiah 17:5-8; 1 Corinthians 15:12,16-20;
Luke 6:17,20-26

Don't blame anyone but yourself. You have free will. You can choose which way your life will go. If you choose the way of God, you will find happiness, even though you may be required to sacrifice. If you choose the way of this world, you will find misery, even though you may experience some pleasures.

You are not a machine; you are a person. You are not a slave of your DNA or of your environment. You can't blame your misery on chemical imbalance or parents or dysfunction in your primary society.

You can't blame it on the devil or on others. All kinds of factors influence your life, but YOU are in charge! You can say yes, or you can say no.

Today's Mass challenges us to choose the way of life. We may have been dealt a raw deal in life, but we can choose to follow the way of the Lord. You will be happy if you realize your need of God, if you are sorry for your sins, if you hunger for virtue, and if you are willing to sacrifice to obtain goodness.

You will find misery if you put your trust in the wealth and pleasures of this world, if you are content with creature comforts and are unwilling to sacrifice for virtue, if you are so flippant now that you overlook your eternal goal of life.

What is the direction of your life? If you are on the wrong track, turn around! You can change; you can choose the right!

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, February 16, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

We gather this weekend to celebrate the 6th Sunday in Ordinary time. Our first reading today for our Mass challenges us to choose, to choose how we live our lives. For many of us, we like to be in control, trusting in ourselves and ourselves alone. The only difficulty with that choice is that this choice often leads to a sense of hopelessness. We might even call it a living death. It may seem rich and rewarding at the outset but when push comes to shove we find ourselves in a type of existence that is meaningless. So today we hear Jeremiah the prophet providing us with a beautiful imagery of differing choices that are before us each and every day. If we choose to trust in human beings, namely ourselves, we find ourselves often cursed as we turn ourselves away from our God. In beautiful imagery, we are like “a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season, but stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth.” Not very inviting but that choice in ourselves and away from the Lord leads us to a type of living death. But the person who centers his/her choice in the Lord, whose hope is in the Lord, “is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out its roots to the stream; it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.” The imagery of Jeremiah presents a stark reality considering the daily choices that we make, trusting in God, or trusting in ourselves. Who do we want to control our lives? It is the Lord who will offer growth and happiness.

In two weeks, namely March 1-2, we will be invited to take part in the Commitment Weekend for Quincy Notre Dame High School. Each of you should be receiving a letter from me asking you to consider supporting the QND annual fund drive. We have been gifted by Catholics from the past with a Catholic high school, and as the present Catholics of today, we are invited to continue to support this gift passed down to us through the many years. We are privileged to have one of seven Catholic high schools in our diocese and we are responsible to make sure that these schools remain viable and operational for future young people. I challenge you to respond with generous hearts as we support Quincy Notre Dame High School.

Also, I ask your prayers for our young people who will be traveling to the Cathedral in Springfield to celebrate their First Communion and their Confirmation with Bishop Paprocki on Saturday, March 1. After this celebration, these same young people will return to us on Sunday, March 2 to celebrate with our parish their 2nd Holy Communion at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Please keep our young people in your prayers as they complete their rites of Initiation. May God bless them and keep them safe from all harm as they make their travels to Springfield and back. And as they experience the closeness of God in their Eucharist and the power of the Holy Spirit in their Confirmation, may they return to us strengthened by these sacraments to grow ever closer to our Lord and His Church.

As we send our young people to Springfield, I want to thank first our parents, who are the first teachers of their children in the ways of faith. Continue to be the best of teachers. Second, I want to thank our current teachers in our Grade

The School of St. Peter

Week of February 16, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

HELPING FEED OUR COMMUNITY

During Catholic Schools Week our students were presented with a challenge. Students were asked to bring in canned food items for the Souper Bowl of Caring Campaign. I am so proud of our students. They brought in a total of 5332 items. These items will help feed our community. We are so fortunate to have food in our pantries while others do not have this luxury on a daily basis. We congratulate our sixth grade students for bringing in the most items per student. We also congratulate Mrs. Downey's third grade classroom. They alone brought in 932 items.

DID YOU KNOW?

At the end of January we were fortunate to install a new sound system in our gym. This only happened because of generous donations as well as grants that were written to support this initiative. We were able to showcase this new sound at the Catholic Schools Week talent show. We are so very happy with the new improvements. Thank you to everyone who supports St. Peter School. We are incredibly grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and our community.

School and PSR program for their ministry assisting our young people. These teachers are Pam Hagerbaumer, Evelyn Downey, and Sandy Gallaher. You have given much and we will always appreciate your ministry—thank you. Finally, to Gina Bergman, our DRE, who continues to prepare our students to receive their sacraments. She truly gives of her time and talents for our young people.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

From Erma Bombeck on Parenting: Erma was a well-known comedienne who years ago wrote extensively on differing subjects.

- Grand-parenthood is one of life's rewards for surviving your own children.
- Cleaning the house while the children are home is like shoveling while it's still snowing.
- Onion rings in the car cushions do not improve with time.
- Have you any idea how many children it takes to turn off one light in the kitchen. It takes one to say, "What light?" and two more to say, "I didn't turn it on."
- Youngsters of the age of two and three are endowed with extraordinary strength. They can lift a dog twice their own weight and dump him into the bathtub.
- My sister and I never engaged in sibling rivalry. Our parents weren't crazy about either one of us.
- I became hysterical and frightened and begged for sedation. And that was just the first prenatal visit.
