February 23, 2025 Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

In our readings today, we have the curious story of the young upstart, David, finding his way into Saul's camp where the king was vulnerable to attack and assassination. Saul had proven himself an ineffective leader and David might be one of the rivals to be supported by the military if Saul were to be no more.

But even if the Lord himself had put the soldiers into their deep sleep and guided David to this opportunity to dispatch the failed king, David recognized that it was not his place to be the Saul's executioner, much less his judge. God had appointed Saul and consecrated him as King and David was the King's rightful subject. To respect the King, even in this vulnerable moment, was an act of respect for Saul's office, and by extension, God who enthroned him.

God himself could have removed Saul by his own divine will and action. By respecting Saul's office, David set the stage for others to respect the kingly office when he (David) was anointed. How would it look if a royal usurper were to himself fall into sin or scandal? David's own behavior might have presented a welcome excuse for others who thought they could be a better leader to assassinate him a few years later.

Couple this reading with the gospel where Jesus says, "stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned." (Luke 6: 37) There has been all kinds of mischief committed under the misunderstanding of this saying. I don't think Jesus is saying that there are no standards to follow or expectations we should have of each other, much less our leaders, but the work of vengeance and the work of producing equity belongs to God and God alone. Those who would presume to hold the moral standard and high ground are not practicing mercy, for they lack the spirit of humility. Their righteousness shields them from receiving God's mercy and God's favor, not unlike the self-righteous, hypocritical Pharisees. Those who judge in this way are not fit for the Kingdom of God.

Judgement is not the problem. We make judgements about the people and situations every day. Is the car going to stop before I walk across the street? Does this politician or that politician best represent my values when I vote? Does this doctor have the skill to successfully diagnose my illness or complete my surgery? Should I really be watching this show on TV? Right Judgement is a precious gift of the Holy Spirit. The problem, it turns out, is not the judgement part of this necessary virtue, but it is the absence of mercy and consideration for those we put under our microscopes while comparing them to our own sense of justice and righteousness. It is the measure with which we measure that God will measure us (cf Luke 6: 38).

On Saturday, March 1, students from St. Anthony PSR and St. Dominic School will travel to the Cathedral in Springfield for First Communion and Confirmation at the hands of Bishop Paprocki. Congratulations to our young people and families as they welcome these sacraments into their lives! I ask our families celebrating the sacraments this coming week, to continue to help their Confirmandi grow in the faith, first and foremost through faithful Sunday Mass attendance. It is from the Sunday Mass experience that families gain strength to live the faith and talk about it in their everyday lives. Young faith is further enriched by the religious education programs offered in their school or PSR as they continue to grow in wisdom and knowledge of the things of God. These sacraments are a most precious gift, especially at this young and impressionable age. Please give them room to grow and flower in the lives of our young people. As a parish we will have a special observance on Sunday, March 2 at the 10:30 a.m. Mass to acknowledge and celebrate our First Communicants and Confirmandi.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Seventh-Grade Leaders Help Prepare Third-Grade Buddies

Our seventh-grade students are helping prepare their third-grade buddies for their sacraments through a youth leadership project called Dragon Slayers - 2024-2025 Leaders On An Extraordinary Mission. The project provides an opportunity for the seventh-grade class at St. Dominic School to engage in learning about the Dragon Slaying methods of how Catholic virtues will slay the Seven Deadly Sins. The seventh-grade students have been engaged in a book club experience reading the new Seven Deadly Dragon book series and then "leading" their third-grade buddies to prepare for the sacraments by reviewing Confession and preparing to receive Confirmation and First Holy Communion this spring at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield. This opportunity has encouraged our seventh-grade youth to develop reading-aloud communication and discussion skills while reading a fictional series to their third-grade buddy in pairs, which is also preparing them in a creative "kid-friendly adventure" for the sacraments by developing confidence in their virtues. Since the Dragon Slayers book series is about their Catholic faith, both buddies develop meaningful relationships with their peers and the school faith community.
