Welcome to the Season of Lent.

First of all, I thank all of you who heard of my illness, which turned out to be a bit more than the virus that's been going around. We found out what was going on, and with the proper med, I'm back on my feet. Enough to say that I've never been that sick before - ever. I hope I never see anything like the last three weeks again. We're ok, now.

Second, I completed the prayer pilgrimage for our churches and school, along with all the intentions many of you sent my way.

Third, we're behind on preparing Sts. Peter and Paul Church as a designated Church of Pilgrimage for the Diocese of Peoria's 150th Anniversary; we're addressing that right away.

Fourth, this weekend's bulletin insert describes a Lenten opportunity for various forms of prayer, in conjunction with our Mass and Confession schedule, for the sake of the plenary indulgence as well as the strengthening and deepening relationship with Jesus and His Body, the Church. Let's make this, for each and all of us, a time of purification, renewal, and flourishing of our faith. Fr. T.

The Celebration of the Season of Lent, March 5 - April 16, 2025

"Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you."

"As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace, so in tribulation is the test of the just."

"Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? Hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye."

The season of Lent is a spiritual retreat of preparation for the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ. This preparation concerns the purification, renewal, and flourishing of the soul, one with Jesus through the Sacrament of Baptism. We hope that the celebration of Lent moves us toward a more faithful following of Jesus in holiness, vocation, and insight into His guidance for each of us.
