MARCH 2, 2025

Sirach 27:4-7; 1 Corinthians 15:54-58;
Luke 6:39-45

How often we open our mouths to insert our feet! The author of the first reading tells us that we reveal ourselves to others each time we speak. Sad to say, we don't reveal ourselves to ourselves!

In the Gospel, Jesus asks us why we see the speck in our neighbor's eye and fail to notice the plank in our own eye. The old Greek philosopher said, "Know thyself." That's the first step toward integrity or maturity or just being a virtuous person.

Cervantes remarked that to know oneself was the most difficult lesson in the world to learn! The old Scottish poet, Robert Burns, said: "Oh wad some power the giftie gie us To see ourself as others see us!" ("O would that God some grace would give us to see ourselves as others see us.")

The point is that not too many of us really want to face ourselves honestly. We might discover that we are boring windbags, when we thought we were brilliant conversationalists. We might find that we were idle gossipers, when we thought we were conscientiously interested in others.

We might find that we are attention seekers or victims or whiners or braggarts or hypocrites or that we have a lot of bad traits. But no one wants to tell us the real truth. No one wants to tell us that we have bad breath or that we have annoying habits.

Perhaps it's best that we don't always tell the truth, for most of us really don't want to know ourselves. But Christ dares us to know ourselves truly, to face ourselves honestly. If we find ourselves wanting, he still loves us. He forgives us. He empowers us to change. He can give us strength to overcome our rough spots if only we face ourselves honestly.

Our mothers probably told us, "When you are perfect, you can correct others." Good advice! Let's know ourselves and correct ourselves. That will be a full time job; we won't have time to search for specks in others' eyes.

Dear Parishioners,

We welcome with open arms and with a breath of fresh air this new month of March. According to the calendar, the season of Spring usually begins March 21 or 22. Let us hope Mother Nature is in tune with our calendar. I don't know about you, but I am ready for this change in nature. I'm ready for flowers to bloom, sitting out on my patio, and the grass and trees showing life. But I'm also realistic as I know that we also experienced a snowstorm in March. Let's hope that we have concluded that experience and Mother Nature doesn't want to remind us of who is in control.

This Sunday, we will be celebrating with our young people their second Holy Communion at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. They are invited to wear their communion clothes and receive special recognition as they celebrate their Second Eucharist with their parish family. Again, I congratulate our young people who completed their Initiation Sacraments at the Cathedral this past Saturday. We are very proud of them as they prepared for this day. On behalf of the parish family, I want to thank their parents who are models of our Catholic faith as well as their teachers, Pam Hagerbaumer, Evelyn Downey, and Sandy Gallaher along with our PSR director, Gina Bergman. It truly takes a parish to assist our young people in getting ready for the Sacraments.

This weekend is also our annual commitment weekend for the QND annual fund raiser. Each of you should have received a letter from me asking that you support our Catholic High School and their efforts to provide a secondary Catholic education for our young people. QND is a gift from past generations, and it is up to all of us to make sure that this school remains affordable and growing for our young people. We will be having some of our QND students who will be speaking at all of our Masses, encouraging your generous support.

It is hard to believe but Ash Wednesday and the beginning of Lent is this Wednesday, March 5. I remind you that this day is a day of FAST and ABSTINENCE. This basically means that there is no consumption of meat on that day and our food intake for that day is limited, namely, no in-between meals. Plus, all the Fridays of Lent are also days of ABSTINENCE. When I was growing up, many of my buddies in the neighborhood were not Catholic and would always call me a "fish-eater." I took much pride in that cynical comment as it identified who we are during this season of Lent. Our Masses on Ash Wednesday are as follows:

8:30 a.m., 12:10 p.m., and 6:30 p.m. (St. Peter) 10:00 am. (QND gym)

The Church during Lent invites us into a spiritual retreat, where we spend time in prayer, almsgiving (charity), and fasting. I invite you to look at some bad habits that you might have and concentrate on changing this vice into some type of virtue. I also invite you to make use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We will be having special times for this sacrament throughout the weekdays of Lent. Also, each Friday in Lent we will be celebrating the Stations of the Cross followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please join us in this Way of the Cross as we meditate upon God's love for all of us. Happy Lent!

Each year during Lent we always had a special Mass during the weekdays at 6:30 p.m. This year, we are changing things around a little. Instead of Mass on Fridays, we will have the Stations of the Cross. But we will also have a 6:30 p.m. Mass each Monday and Wednesday during Lent, with Confessions being heard from 5:45-6:15 on those days of our Masses and Stations. These times are available especially for our young people who will be receiving this Sacrament for the first time.

As many of you have noticed, I have been having trouble walking and standing for any length of time. This prevents me from distributing Holy Communion and I apologize for that. My right knee has been very burdensome to me, and I will eventually have to have something done to find relief. In the meantime, please put up with my shortcomings. Just wanted you to know why I used a cane and do not distribute Holy Communion anymore.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

March, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For more than 40 years, and in some countries more than 70 years, communism ruled Central and Eastern European countries and the Soviet Union's many republics. The Soviet Union stretched from Eastern Europe across central Asia and beyond to the Pacific Ocean. One of its former republics is Tajikistan, in central Asia. Bordering China to the east and Afghanistan to the south, Tajikistan is today the poorest of the former Soviet republics.

The country's economic challenges — along with a population that today is 98% Muslim — make Tajikistan a true mission country for the Church, because Catholics are few and needs are great. In fact, the Church's presence is so small that the Tajikistan Church is not part of a diocese with its own bishop but is an independent mission of the pope, administered by priests from the Institute of the Incarnate Word, a missionary order from Argentina. Along with the institute's order of sisters, the Servants of the Lord and the Virgin of Matará, these priests faithfully serve the pastoral needs of the people through education and accompaniment. Despite its small size and relative poverty, this community has fostered the first two priestly vocations and ordinations of two Tajik men, as well as the religious vocation of a Tajik woman who professed perpetual vows with the sisters.

With critical support from the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe, the sisters continue their mission by educating the children and providing them with instruction, school supplies, school uniforms, and the food they need to develop intellectually, spiritually, physically, and socially. Guided by their faith and this material support, the sisters witness to Christ's love while carrying out their works of mercy. You can participate in their success by donating to this special collection when it is taken up in our diocese, either by contributing at Mass or through your parish's e-giving platform. #iGiveCatholicTogether also accepts funds online for the collection.

For more information about the collection and who it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccee. Thank you for your help to restore the Church and build the future in Central and Eastern Europe.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
