March 23, 2025 Third Sunday of Lent

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

We hear commentary from Jesus about the breaking news of his day: "eighteen killed when a tower fell," "devout Galileans were murdered by Pilate,"... these stories are little-different than the tragic stories we hear everyday on the news of crime, war, violence, political intrigue and sudden disasters. Jesus adds, "I tell you, if you do not repent, you will perish as they did!" (Luke 13:5). By this, I interpret that Jesus means their passing was "sudden" and perhaps "unprepared". These words have a fire-and-brimstone quality which is usually not associated with the "nice" Jesus who holds lambs in his arms, welcomes children in his midst, and whose words are rooted in mercy.

However a parable follows, contrasting the patience and hopefulness of the gardener with the practicality of the property owner. If a fig tree is not producing fruit, it simply consumes the minerals in the soil... it should be cut down! The gardener counsels patience, explaining that if properly fertilized and tended, the tree may yet bear fruit.

So it is in the ministry of Jesus where we find God's patience on display. God invests divine grace and mercy in his people that they might bear fruit. We are called to repent and that calling is indeed urgent, for failure to turn from our ways will result in our death! But God delays final punishment in the hope that we might have a different outcome!

We are still taking sign-ups for the new Parish Pictorial Directory! There are still times available for April 1-5, and at the time of printing this bulletin, I believe that there will be a few more days opened later on in April. Please sign up after Sunday Masses or use the QR code with the Church Code: il411 and Church Password: photos to see the latest availability. We ask that all parish and school families make an appointment for their photograph. All who are photographed will receive a complimentary 8x10 print, along with a copy of the directory when it is completed.

As we get deeper into the Lenten Season, the call to conversion of mind and heart continues to grow. As we recognize where we have failed in our everyday calling to be disciples and witnesses to the Risen Christ, and as we consider the resolutions pressed on our hearts by the Holy Spirit to do better in the future, the need for Sacramental Reconciliation becomes ever more urgent. During the remaining weeks of Lent, there will be opportunities to go to Confession, both at normal times as well as added times to accommodate the season. The priests of the Quincy area will gather on Sunday, April 13 at 3 p.m. at St. Anthony Church. Further opportunities for Sacramental Reconciliation will be made available on Saturday Afternoons before the 4 p.m. Mass (approximately 3:00 p.m. to about 3:45) starting the Fourth week of Lent (next week). This will join our regularly-scheduled time after the 4 p.m. Mass on Saturdays, running from about 5:15-6:15. For your convenience, worksheets on "How to go to Confession" with an Examination of Conscience have been printed up for the season, as they have in previous years, and are available in Church.

DON'T BE AFRAID
SACRAMENT OF CONFESSION,
WHERE YOU
WILL MEET
JESUS WHO FORGIVES YOU.
Pope Francis

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Holy Moments of Kindness - #BeLikeGrace Awards

During the Lent season, St. Dominic School awards five students each Tuesday with the Amazing Grace Award to recognize students who are living a message of kindness that God placed on their heart. The recognition includes an award, a certificate, and a tuition scholarship nomination, which are made possible by the #BeLikeGrace Foundation. When our St. Dominic School students share God's love and grace with others, we all experience Holy Moments of KINDNESS. When our students see ordinary moments of helping others, as an opportunity to collaborate with God, Holy Moments of LOVE and KINDNESS happen every day at St. Dominic School. Thanks be to God for sharing Grace with our school and the generosity of the amazing #BeLikeGrace Foundation! Holy Moments happen every day at St. Dominic School!
