Passion Sunday (Palm Sunday)

APRIL 13, 2025

Gospel of Palms: Luke 19:28-40.
Mass: Isaiah 50:4-7; Philippians 2:6-11;
Luke 22:14—23:56 or Luke 23:1-49

Holy Week is the great week of spiritual renewal. Today we begin our celebration of the “Paschal Mystery.” “Paschal” means “Passover;” it also means “Easter.” The “Paschal Mystery” is the mystery of sorrow and joy, of defeat and of victory. It is the strange paradox that we must deny ourselves if we are to find ourselves – that we must die in order to really live, that we must suffer in order to share in ultimate victory.

Jesus said, “Unless a seed falls into the ground and dies, it shall not live.” He said, “He who would save his life will lose it.” He said, “He who humbles himself will be exalted.” These and other paradoxical statements are expressions of the “Paschal Mystery.”

Jesus dedicates himself totally to the will of the Father. In doing this, he encounters suffering and death. Through his obedience and humility in his suffering and death, he gains the victory of the resurrection.

It is the same with us: We must deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow him in every aspect of our lives if we are to find real life. This week’s liturgies will be filled with the paradox of the Paschal Mystery: Defeat and Victory will be intertwined, often in the same celebration.

Today, we wave palm branches of acclamation and victory; the liturgical color is festive red instead of Lenten violet. Yet the Scripture readings are of the Suffering Servant, the Son who emptied himself and became obedient unto death, and the Gospel of the Passion according to St. Luke.

Don’t let anything interfere with your spiritual renewal this week. All shopping and activity should be completed before Good Friday. The time from Holy Thursday evening until the Easter Vigil should be a time of quiet and reflection with no games or parties or entertainments. Be sure to share in the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday; do this even if you have done nothing else during Lent.

Palm Sunday, April 13, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Today is Palm Sunday and the beginning of Holy Week. Jesus enters into the city of Jerusalem. “As He rode along, people were spreading their cloaks on the road; and now as He was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of His disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. They proclaimed: ‘Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest.’” As we celebrate this holiest of weeks, I invite you to our differing celebrations, especially what is called the Triduum.

This Tuesday, the priests of the diocese are expected to attend the Chrism Mass at the Cathedral. It is within this Mass that the priests renews his vows and the bishop will bless the three holy oils, namely, chrism, the oil of the sick, and the oil of catechumen. After this Mass, each parish represented will bring to the parish these oils to be used throughout the year. I ask your prayers for your priests of your parish and the priests of our diocese.

As our Lenten season comes to an end, there will be differing opportunities this week to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession). This Sunday, April 13, there will be an all city wide Reconciliation Service celebrated at St. Anthony Church at 3:00 p.m. There will be a number of differing priests available for confession so I encourage you to celebrate confession at this time.

The following is the Triduum schedule for this week. Please join us at these very moving liturgies and celebrate the Lord’s passion, suffering, and death.

Holy Thursday: April 17, Mass of the Lord’s Last Supper, 7:00 p.m.

Confessional times: 11:00-Noon, and 3:00-5:00 p.m.

As is our custom, we will be having adoration times after the evening service. In order that each time slot be covered, we are asking if able that last names of families beginning with the letters indicated cover the times: 8:00 A-I, and Saints Alive; 9:00 J-Q and Found; 10:00 R-Z, and any high school or college students. In the Passion Jesus enters the Mount of Olives and says to the apostles with Him, “Pray that you might not undergo the test.” Jesus is asking the same to us. Let’s stand watch and pray with Jesus.

Good Friday: April 18, Celebration of the Lord’s Passion, 7:00 p.m.

Confessional times: 11:00-Noon, and 4:00-6:00 p.m.

We will also be celebrating Stations of the Cross at 3:00 p.m.

Holy Saturday: April 19, the Easter Vigil, 8:00 p.m.

Confessional times: 11:00-Noon, and 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Easter Sunday: April 20, Celebration of the Lord’s Resurrection

Mass times are 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00 a.m.

A very happy Easter to all!

The School of St. Peter

Week of April 13, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

FIFTH GRADE STUDENTS SCIENCE ACTIVITY

It's that time of year. The Anoles have arrived in fifth grade. Students in fifth grade will be doing various activities in science class as they observe these lizard like creatures. Pictured above - students observe their behaviors and draw their features.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Please be sure to join us on Thursday, April 17 for Stations of the Cross. Our wonderful seventh grade students will be acting out each station. This is a 7th grade tradition that is awe inspiring and a great way to kick off Easter Break.

4th Grade Teacher Opening—We are hiring!

St. Peter School is accepting applications for full-time teaching positions in grade 4 for the 2025-2026 school year. Applicants must hold an active Illinois teaching license and demonstrate enthusiasm and dedication to student success. As a Catholic school, we seek educators who are committed to fostering both academic excellence and spiritual growth in a faith-filled environment that supports the values of our Catholic tradition. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and three letters of reference via email to c.venvertloh@cospq.org or by mail to Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh, Principal, St. Peter School, 2500 Maine Street, Quincy, IL 62301. For inquiries, please contact the school office at 217-223-1120. St. Peter School wages are based on years of experience and education ranging from $33,000 to $70,000 depending upon education and experience. More specific information will be provided upon request." A summary of benefits can be found at <https://dio.org/wp-content/uploads/2025/01/Benefits-Flyer-1.pdf>

Teacher Aide Openings— St. Peter School

St. Peter School is accepting applications for a teacher aide position for the 2025-2026 school year. Applicants should have experience working with young children, complete a background check and fingerprinting. Interested applicants send a resume and references to Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh 2500 Maine St, Quincy, IL 62301 or c.venvertloh@cospq.org

Just to inform you that I will be incapacitated for a while as I'm getting something done this week to help me stand and walk. Keep me in your prayers as I will offer any pain and inconvenience for each of you.

Just to point out a special night for the Ladies of the parish. By popular demand, we are bringing back Kristina Radley from St. Louis who will be here on Wednesday, April 30 at 7:00 p.m. to share her faith, humor and love for Jesus. Dessert and Fellowship will follow her talk.

The next Sunday, April 27, is Divine Mercy Sunday. St. Anthony Church will celebrate this Sunday with a 2:00 p.m. Holy Hour, 3:00 p.m. Chaplet of Divine Mercy, followed by Benediction. All are welcome.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Once upon a time, there was a woman married to an annoying man named Steve. He could complain about everything. One day he went up to plow the field with his mule. He complained so much that the mule got annoyed and kicked him to death.

At the funeral, when the men walked by the wife, she nodded her head up and down in a "Yes" motion. Every time the women walked by, she shook her head side to side to indicate "No."

The minister asked her, "why are you shaking your head yes for men and no for women?"

Her response was, "The men would say how sorry they felt for me and I was saying, 'yes, I'll be all right.' When the women walked by, they were asking, 'is the mule for sale?'"

Uplift Your Priest Week

Uplift Your Priest Week begins on Sunday, April 27. We would like to lift our priests up in prayer during this week and we need your help. The table in the narthex has prayer commitment cards that you can fill out and place in the provided container. These cards will then be delivered to our priests on Monday, the 28 so they can see all of those who are praying for them during the week. Please stop at the table anytime between now and April 27 to fill out a card. They do so much for us, let us lift them up to our Lord in a big way that week!

March, 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

As we look forward to this year's liturgical celebrations of Holy Week, through which the Lord draws us more fully into the mystery of His death and resurrection, I am writing to ask your financial support for two special collection opportunities to be taken in all our parishes during these coming days - the Holy Land Collection and the Seminarian Collection. These collections will be taken up correspondingly during the Good Friday service, and then the Easter Vigil Liturgy and Easter Sunday Masses.

Each year, the Holy Father asks every Catholic parish around the world to take up a collection on Good Friday to keep a Christian presence in the Holy Land. This year, help is needed more than ever. The Holy Land Collection supports the work of the Franciscans in the sacred shrines, ministers to the parishes, provides information and education in communities and schools, and cares for the basic needs of people in the Holy Land. During such a difficult time, where we must rebuild not only buildings but so many broken lives, your promotion of this important collection is essential.

The Seminarian Collection will help our diocese to educate and form future priests. Our diocese has been blessed with an increasing number of young men who have generously said yes to God's call. We now have 11 seminarians. You can take a personal role in their formation with a generous gift in the special Easter collection.

With best wishes and prayers for a blessed Holy Week and Easter, I remain Sincerely Yours in Christ,
 Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki, Bishop of Springfield
