April 27, 2025 Divine Mercy Sunday

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Since 2001, the Second Sunday, or 'octave' day, of Easter has been observed as "Divine Mercy Sunday". On this day, we reflect on the glory of God's mercy in the full light of the resurrection. God's mercy is not something we earn by way of our confessions or our Lenten disciplines or anything else taking place in us, but rather it comes when we are least deserving, least able to help ourselves, when we are otherwise lost to the darkness of our fallen nature. Divine Mercy is simply there for our asking, which demands a spiritual posture of extraordinary faith and trust in our Risen Lord— again, Mercy is neither earned nor owed to us for our works, but rather comes to us in complete humility, sincere contrition, and complete trust in the Risen Christ. From our experience of God's Mercy, we are called to share mercy with others.

The Divine Mercy visionary was St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938), who was a simple, uneducated, Polish nun, living at about the same time and not that far from the home of a young Karol Wojtya, who would later be St. Pope John Paul II. Sr. Faustina, at the command of her spiritual director, Fr. Michał Sopoćko (1988-1975, who himself is being examined as a potential candidate for sainthood) wrote over 600 pages in her spiritual diary, recounting her journey in prayer and the responses that she received, teaching her and the world about the glory of Divine Mercy. Embedded in these writings are the devotional tools that many recognize: the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the image of Christ with streams of light pouring out of his Sacred Heart, the call to devote the Second Sunday of Easter as a uniquely-privileged day for sacramental Confession and other devout works of faith and mercy. The diary itself, widely available in English translation, is a rewarding read in and of itself, and is presently under consideration in a petition to name Faustina a "doctor of the Church".

We observed this week the passing of Pope Francis, the 266th successor of St. Peter as the Bishop of Rome and the Vicar of Christ. Funeral rites took place all through the week in Rome, culminating in his funeral Mass in St. Peter's Square and interment at the Basilica of St. Mary Major on Saturday. What follows is nine days, officially, of mourning, followed by the election of a new pope sometime, probably during the 2nd week of May.

Our modern popes, each in their own way, would at first glance appear to be products of a carefully-honed and curated media image, not unlike our politicians. Indeed, a modern pope is not only a spiritual leader and witness to the gospel, but also has the added responsibility (and cross) of being a public figure appearing in news interviews, being the subject of commentary and public criticism, and being manipulated for the purposes of advancing media narratives. With the passing of Pope Francis, his earthly work and concerns are now surrendered to the long view of history, and we as a Church have the duty to pray for him and his successor... this is our debt of thanks that we owe to our pope and pastor.

If we are to understand Pope Francis on his own terms outside of the media bubble that surrounded him in life and now in death, I believe that the two concerns that most animated his ministry were those of "mercy" and "evangelization". Much can be said about these themes, but what is most important, in his memory, is that we practice mercy and that we live lives of invitation, proclamation, witness, and evangelization in the great truth that Christ has risen from the dead.

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Message from Mrs. Carol Frericks—Principal

Seventh Grade Performs Stations of the Cross

On Wednesday, April 16, our seventh-grade students prayed and performed the Stations with Mary, the Mother of Jesus. Since Mary was present during the first Way of the Cross with Jesus, this performance of the Stations attempted to present that viewpoint. The seventh-grade students presented for our entire school, Kindergarten through eighth-grade students and staff, so we could see and listen through Mary's eyes what Jesus was going through on the way to Calvary. During the performance we all repeated, "We adore you, O Christ, and we praise you, because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world."
