What we're watching on Formed: The Boy From Milan: Stories of Carlo Acutis. You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.

Youtube! Catholic Answers is an awesome channel on Youtube. Catholic Answers Live, hosted by Cy Kellett, is a daily, two-hour radio program dedicated to Catholic apologetics and evangelization. If you are wondering how to defend your faith in modern times and keep up in conversations, check this channel out! You'll hear discussions on just about everything relating to the Catholic Church: doctrinal controversies, family concerns, social issues, evangelization, ethics...you name it!

First Communion: An Affirmation of Faith for All of Us. We are so thankful for the simplicity and purity of faith shown to us in the lives of your boys and girls who received their First Communion over the past two weekends. Our prayers and hope that they will remain close to Jesus in the reception of the Holy Eucharist and the love and adoration offered to Our Lord present to us in the mystery of the Altar, the Monstrance, and the Tabernacle. Special thanks to our catechists, and to our coordinator, Mrs. Trisha Mitchell, for all the work involved in pointing our religious education efforts toward the goal of a fruitful reception of the sacraments, and growth in the knowledge and love of Jesus Christ.

Sts. Peter and Paul School Comes to the End of the 2024-25 School Year. With the picnic on Thursday, May 15, and then the graduation of our sixth graders at a 5:30 p.m. Mass on Thursday, May 15, our school year comes to an end. To our students and our families: gratitude and appreciation for your support and for the privilege of forming and educating your children to be leaders for Jesus Christ. To our Principal, Mr. Trevor Knipe; our Operations Coordinator, Mrs. Erin Cuthbert; our faculty and staff: thank you for your investment in the meaning and purpose of our school, which each of you has embodied. Another year of growth and development, with much more to look forward to, as we journey into the future! We have a treasure, a true cornerstone for our Catholic faith, for Christian faith in many denominations, and for those whose values are in keeping with the Gospel message of Jesus Christ! For all our parishioners and Hancock County citizens who have supported SPPS in so many different ways: our deepest thanks and appreciation!

Graduations Everywhere! Our congratulations and best wishes do not remain only with SPPS. Grade School...High School...College graduations abound; so many that there are families who will have to figure out how to contend with conflicting schedules! May the life lessons of faith, family, and community go with our graduates as they advance into their futures.

Time for Focus, Part II. I have been a major offender myself: hanging on to the way things have been the past twenty-two years here, while our Bishop - our ultimate authority as successor of the Apostles - has made clear that the entire diocese is moving in a new direction. My Holy Week sermons must have sounded strange to some; advising people to adjust their way of thinking, when I myself had not yet made the adjustment. But it's time: even if we can't do it quickly, let's dispose ourselves to making peace with the past, as well as the future. Here's an edited version of the message of Palm Sunday: "The new thing...means entering into a type of crucifixion...an unfair, unmerited loss transformed by becoming a willing sacrifice....Transform this time into a willing act of faith, that, even if it's at a cost to us, there's something new to come from it, for the good of our Parish....Imagine Jesus saying to us: 'There's a resurrected future for generations yet to be born, but it's going to take the intrigue of an unjust death to do it. I need you on this cross, with me. I need you to take something forced upon you and turn it into a willing sacrifice. That's what I did, beginning on Palm Sunday.'" Remember, everyone, please: what has happened to two of our churches, has happened to all of us. And how we conduct and carry ourselves into the future, will determine what happens...to all of us.
Fr. T.
