Fourth Sunday of Easter

MAY 11, 2025

Acts 13:14,43-52; Revelation 7:9,14b-17;
 John 10:27-30

The Fourth Sunday of the Easter season is usually called "Good Shepherd Sunday." Read the entire tenth chapter of John for a fuller explanation of the Good Shepherd.

In the ancient Middle East, the king was often called the shepherd of his people. But for the Hebrews, only God could be the true shepherd, as Psalm 23 says. We are not sheep of an earthly monarch, but of the Lord himself. We must always follow God rather than people.

In John 10, Jesus calls himself the Good Shepherd; thus he identifies himself as the Lord. He feeds us and protects us and leads us. But he does more: He lays down his life for his sheep.

The second reading alludes to the fact that the Good Shepherd has laid down his life for his sheep. In the Middle East, sheep were usually kept for wool and for milk, and not for meat.

Shepherds became very attached to their sheep; they gave them names (as we name our pets). The sheep would follow only the voice of their own shepherd (just as our pets usually respond only to our voice).

The word "pastor" means "shepherd." Let us pray that many young men of this parish may respond to the call of the Good Shepherd to share in the ministry of shepherding the flock of Christ.

Fourth Sunday of Easter, May 11, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

On this second weekend in the month of May, the Church celebrates the 4th Sunday of Easter. This Sunday always provides us with the imagery of the Son of God as the Good Shepherd. In our particular reading, there is an emphasis on the “voice” of the Shepherd. In this gospel, Jesus says, “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. It’s rather interesting how we are called to be attentive to the voice of the Good Shepherd. This attentiveness illustrates that we belong to Him and He is the source of everything good in our lives. May each of us always recognize the one voice that leads to happiness and life eternal. So often you and I are bombarded with differing voices, telling us how to lose weight, or how to be successful, how to find happiness. Except the one true voice that leads us to life eternal, we all seem to ignore, which is that of the voice of the Good Shepherd. In this age of social media, let’s never forget that the one voice in which we need to be intimate is the voice of the Good Shepherd who tells us over and over, “I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.” May each of us be open to that voice which provides everything that we need in life and in life eternal.

Many things are happening next week, and I draw your attention to these celebrations. First, our 8th graders will be celebrating their graduation from St. Peter School on Tuesday, May 13, at 6:00 p.m. Then on Thursday, May 15, St. Peter Church will be the designated Church that Quincy Notre Dame will celebrate their Baccalaureate at 7:00 p.m. I ask your prayers for our graduates that God will watch over them, keep them safe this summer, and help them discern what God wants from them in the future endeavors. Then Quincy Notre Dame will celebrate their graduation ceremonies at 1:00 p.m. in the QND gym (the pit) next Sunday, May 18. We are very proud of the efforts of all of our students and pray that they continue their pursuit of another level of education be it in the business world, or college, or even the pursuit of a skill or craft.

It’s been almost 2 weeks since my knee surgery. Little by little I am making progress and hope to be released from the doctor soon. I am sure physical therapy will continue but now I am at least feeling like living once again. It’s amazing how many parishioners I have seen and met during physical therapy as we all are trying our best to live without pain and discomfort. I also want to thank all those who have sent me notes, brought by food, and offered prayers. All have been appreciated and became the source of healing for me. Thank you! Thank you!

I hope that many of you have reserved June 8 because it is the day that I will be celebrating my 50th anniversary of my ordination. The Mass will be at 10:30 p.m. which means that there will only be 8:00 a.m. and the Saturday evening Mass for this weekend. After the Mass at 10:30 I want to invite you to join my family and myself in the backyard for a large picnic. There is no cost but since we are ordering food, we need to ask you to make reservations, so we know a number to order from the caterers. Please call the rectory with your reservations. We hope to enjoy the afternoon with food, games, and music. Come join me!

Fr. Leo's column continued..

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: When the Good Lord was creating mothers He was into His 6th day of "overtime" when the angel appeared and said, "You're doing a lot of fiddling around on this one." And the Lord said, "Have you read the specification on this order?" "She has to be completely washable but not plastic; have 180 movable parts...all replaceable; run on black coffee and leftovers; have a lap that disappears when she stands up; 'a kiss that can cure anything from a broken leg to a disappointed love affair' and six pairs of hands." The angel shook her head slowly and said, "6 pairs of hands...no way. "It's not the hands that are causing me the problems," said the Lord, it's the three pairs of eyes that Mothers have to have." "That's in the standard model? Asked the angel. The Lord nodded. "One pair that sees through closed doors when she asks 'what are you kids doing in there?' when she already knows. Another here in the back of her head that sees what she shouldn't but what she has to know, and of course, the ones here in front so that she can look at a child when he goofs and says, 'I understand and I love you' without so much as uttering a word.." "Lord," says the angel touching His sleeve, "come to bed. Tomorrow" "I can't," said the Lord. "I'm so close to creating something so close to myself. Already I have one that heals herself when she is sick, can feed a family of six on one pound of hamburger, and can get a 9 year old to stand under a shower. As the angel looked at His creation, she ran a finger across the cheek. "There's a leak," said the angel. "It's not a leak," said the Lord. It's a tear. The tear is for joy, sadness, pain and pride. Happy Mother's Day to all our Mothers.

May, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This May, our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Please prayerfully consider supporting the collection this year. Fifty percent of collected funds stay in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois and the other 50 percent support communications projects in the United States and around the world.

Through Catholic Times, social media, videos, podcasting, and other digital methods, our diocese is taking advantage of several communication outlets to spread the news of our diocese, teach the faith, and provide hope and encouragement to people no matter where they are in their faith life.

Followers on the diocesan social media channels have exploded over the years. Our channels have far more followers than most dioceses our size, and several that are two to three times as big as our diocese and several archdioceses. For example, our Facebook page has nearly 12,000 followers (we had about 3,000 followers six years ago). In 2020, our YouTube channel had under 500 subscribers. Today, it is approaching 18,000 subscribers! This shows that the content our curia team is producing is engaging, inspirational, and educational, and people want to consume it because it is helping them.

For example, a search on YouTube for "How to go to Confession," has a video from our diocese in the top five for answering that question, with more than 165,000 views. Dive Deep, the official podcast of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois, has listeners all over the world, and was endorsed by EWTN which placed Dive Deep on their podcast central webpage. God is Alive, Part 2, a documentary produced by our communications team that features incredible stories in the Midwest, premiered this spring to wide praise. The documentary comes on the heels of the popular God is Alive (part 1) documentary, which came out two years ago.

With your generosity, we can continue creating engaging content and bring people closer to our faith or even back to our faith.

Parishioners can donate online at parishgiving.dio.org/secondcollections or use their second collection envelope. You can also mail your donation to your parish office. For more information about the collection and the projects it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccs. Thank you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
