Sixth Sunday of Easter

MAY 25, 2025

Acts 15:1-2,22-29; Revelation 21:10-14,22-23;
 John 14:23-29

Jesus Christ did not leave us orphans when he ascended into heaven. He promised the Holy Spirit who would guide the Church and confirm her in the truth. Our Gospel tells of his promise of the Spirit: The Spirit would call to mind everything that Jesus had taught; he would instruct the Church in everything. He also told us that anyone who loved him would be true to his word.

We know the word of Jesus through the Church, which is protected from teaching error by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus did not solve all problems or give his instructions in minute detail. Nevertheless, everything that is taught by the Church throughout the centuries comes integrally from the “deposit of faith” which Jesus imparted to the Spirit.

Jesus did not solve the question of the relationship of Jews and Gentiles in the Church. Did a person need to become a Jew before being a Christian? Were the non-Jews even invited to share salvation? Did Jewish Christians still need to follow the Law of Moses? These and many other questions were solved by the Church some years after Jesus had ascended to heaven. They were solved by the Church guided by the Holy Spirit.

Today’s first reading tells us of the council of apostles at Jerusalem who determined that Gentile converts do not need to practice the Law of Moses. The Church is still developing and growing and understanding the teaching of Jesus more perfectly.

The Spirit gives the Church the charism of infallibility. The Church cannot teach error on matters of faith and morals. The chief agencies of this infallibility are the pope when he speaks “ex cathedra” at an Ecumenical or General Council.

Even though we do not see Jesus with eyes of body, we are confident that he guides the Church through the power of the Holy Spirit. He is with us. Let us be faithful to him and to his teaching.

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Paul and Barnabas proclaim the reality of the fulfillment of the law and the prophets in Jesus Christ. They continue to travel around instructing the faithful and writing letters instructing the faithful. Remember the teachings always came before the writings. The teachings and the writings never contradict.

In the Gospel today we are called to love the Lord, which means to follow and keep His word. We can't just know the Lord, we must obey and follow Him as well. Jesus promises us the spirit, the Advocate, to guide us and protect us. Open your heart to the Holy Spirit and you will receive that Peace that only Christ can give.

This weekend, I celebrate 11 years a priest! Continue to pray for me.

Lastly, we congratulate our two new priests for the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. Now Fr. Ryan Kehoe and Fr. Charlie Delano! They are young!!! Keep them in your prayers as they begin their new life as priests. Continue also to pray for more priests! Encourage young men in our parish and in your families to consider priesthood. They are in our very midst.

Fr. Arisman

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety, or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.
