Solemnity of The Ascension

JUNE 1, 2025

Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23;

or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23;

Luke 24:46-53

Heaven is not “up;” hell is not “down;” earth is not in the middle. Often, however, we visualize a “three-storeyed” universe. In many ways this is a problem: If we imagine Jesus going “up,” we may think of him as far from us, as billions of light years away. It’s hard to imagine him as close to us with such an idea.

The ascension of Jesus is not his being “taken away” from us. Rather, the ascension means that he enters the dimension of the Father’s glory. His sacrifice is accepted by the Father, who takes him to “his right hand.” At the “right hand” of the Father, Jesus is our Mediator, our Intercessor with the Father. We can have perfect confidence in the love of the Father, for Jesus is “at his right hand.”

At the same time, Jesus has not departed from us. He has entered the Father’s glory in order to be closer to us than he was in his visible, physical body. He is right here with us. We can, therefore, have confidence in our prayers which are heard by the Father “through Jesus Christ our Lord.” We can have confidence that Jesus, who is with us, knows us, cares for us, loves us, and will see us through every crisis.

Our first reading describes the ascension. Jesus is taken into the cloud of the Father’s glory. It is the same cloud we saw in the Exodus, in the dedication of the temple at Jerusalem, and in the Transfiguration. While the apostles gaze at the scene, angels tell them and us to get busy. We must not rest until we proclaim the “Good News” to every creature.

Our second reading, from Hebrews, compares the ascension of Jesus to the entrance of the high priest into the Holy of Holies on the Day of Atonement. On that day, all sins were thought to be forgiven as the high priest sprinkled the Ark of the Covenant with blood.

But the blood of Jesus infinitely satisfies for all sins of all times. Jesus enters the glory of the Father, and his sacrifice assures us that the Father loves us and forgives us.

In Luke’s description of the ascension, Jesus promises that the Holy Spirit will come upon the apostles. They are empowered to teach truth in his name, and to sanctify all peoples.

The power of the Holy Spirit resides in the Church. We share in that mission; we are empowered and commanded to proclaim the message of Jesus Christ to all peoples.

The Ascension of the Lord Solemnity, June 1, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate the Eucharist this weekend, my memories of my past seem to be front and center. Fifty years ago on May 31, 1975, two young men from the diocese were ordained to the priesthood by Bishop William A. O'Connor. I still remember that day, as the grace of God filled my life and would direct that life in service to the Church. The ordination Mass was at 10:00 a.m. and the weekend would be filled with family and friends gathering to celebrate the grace of God active and alive in the lives of these two young men. Then the following day, June 1, 1975, I would celebrate with my family my first Mass at Blessed Sacrament Church, in Springfield. The weekend was filled with much joy and happiness although I was a little naïve as I had no idea what would lay ahead. In spite of my human failings, God called me to serve His Church. Even though my seminary days would do their best to prepare me for my new role in the life of the Church, I would have to say that the priesthood was a learning experience for me, encountering struggles, trials that were far from my learning curve in the seminary. God never seemed to give up on me and for that I will always be thankful to Him. After my first Mass, I enjoyed time with family before I would start my first assignment as the parochial vicar of Our Saviour Church, Jacksonville. I served in that capacity for 8 years where I also learned more about priesthood through my work with the deaf. After 8 years, I was appointed administrator in two small parishes, St. Sebastian in Waverly, Illinois and Holy Rosary in Palmyra, Illinois while continuing my role as chaplain at the deaf school for another six years. After an enjoyable time in these two small parishes, the wisdom of the Church soon was questionable in my life as I was then moved from a pastoral ministry that I enjoyed with the deaf to a new assignment as the pastor of St. Anthony Church, Effingham, Illinois. From my experiences in the differing parishes, I have learned that when one door closes that God always seems to open another one. And even though I might disagree with the wisdom of the Church, the Lord would always provide me with means of grace in whatever ministry I would enjoy. After over 21 years of pastoral service in a very challenging parish, the wisdom of the Church was in question again as I was moved from this parish to St. Peter Church, Quincy, Illinois. I still remember coming to the parish after 21 inches of snow hit Quincy. What I didn't realize was the fact that mourning and grieving was also an experience of the priests, especially in pastoral reassignments. People thought I disliked coming to Quincy which was not the case but rather a time of grief in my life as I adjusted to a new change. And after 13 years of being the pastor of this parish, I found my home here in Quincy where the people have been fabulous and the parish life most rewarding. My apologies for any time that I might have shown my humanity with change in my life. As I said, St. Peter Church has become my home and I have appreciated the people. And so I thank you for being a part of my life and priesthood.

This weekend the Church celebrates the Ascension of Jesus into heaven. What used to be a holyday of obligation (40 days after Easter) has now been transferred to Sunday, challenging us all to celebrate the Eucharist together. This Solemnity recalls that God has never abandoned us but is with us always.

Parish in Action

May, 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

Each year on the feast of Pentecost we rejoice that the gifts of the Holy Spirit are given to the Church in every age. As we celebrate this feast, I ask you to consider a generous response in the Retired Diocesan Priests Collection to meet the immediate retirement and health care needs of our priests.

Please pray for our priests who serve so generously in various apostolates throughout our diocese. Please thank God for all that we have received from our priests who are now retired, many of whom continue to offer generous service in every way that they are able throughout our diocese.

If you are unable to make an in-church contribution, please make your donation online at parishgiving.dio.org/secondcollections. You can also mail your donation to your parish office.

Thank you in advance for your support this year. May the Holy Spirit give us every gift we need to build up the Body of Christ in our time and place.

With every best wish and prayers, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki
