Saint Peter and Saint Paul

JUNE 29, 2025

Acts 12:1-11; 2 Timothy 4:6-8,17-18;
Matthew 16:13-19

We can scarcely imagine two men more different than Peter and Paul. Peter was uneducated; Paul was a highly educated rabbi. Peter was a Galilean fisherman; Paul was a well-born Roman citizen. Peter was crass and impetuous; Paul was sensitive. Yet both men were called to be pillars of the primitive Church. Paul probably had more native talent than Peter, but Peter was called to be “the rock.”

Our first reading tells of the escape of Peter from Herod’s prison. Peter would make his way first to Antioch and then to Rome. The second reading tells of Paul’s last days in a Roman prison. He has fought the good fight; he has finished the course.

Now he awaits the crown of glory. It had been a long journey and struggle. He had persecuted the Church for which he finally became its greatest champion. He had suffered betrayal, beatings, imprisonments, shipwrecks — all for the sake of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel is the Gospel of the primacy of Peter. He is called to be the “rock,” the center of unity in the Church. He is given the power of the keys of the kingdom of heaven, which means authority over the Church. He is given the power of binding and loosing — of imposing and releasing from obligations in the name of the Lord.

Peter was crucified upside down in Nero’s arena on Vatican Hill; the mighty St. Peter’s Basilica is built over his tomb. Paul, as a Roman citizen, could not be crucified. He was beheaded outside the walls of Rome on the road to Ostia. Let us honor these two apostles, patrons of the Roman Church. Let us pledge that we shall use our distinct and diverse talents always for the glory of God.

Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles Solemnity, June 29, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Every June 29, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Because this Solemnity falls on a Sunday this year, the celebration of a solemnity takes precedence over “Sundays in Ordinary Time.” That is why we have three solemnities in a row, Trinity, Corpus Christi, and now Saints Peter and Paul. So today we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, the foundation stones of our Catholic Church.

As we look at these two great saints, these two men had very little in common with each other, other than their faith in Jesus Christ. Peter, as you know, was a fisherman by trade and had very little sophistication. In fact, Peter always seemed to say things that caused Jesus just to shake his head in disbelief. Peter had a brother named Andrew who would introduce his brother Peter to Jesus. Paul, on the other hand, was a Pharisee, who was quite well versed in the religion of the Jews. In fact, he became a staunch defender and made it his aim to bring those who did not follow the teachings before the proper authority. In fact, he was present at the stoning to death of the deacon Stephen. But for both of these eventual followers of Jesus, there was the grace of transformation that entered into their lives that would change their hearts and their lives into becoming staunch followers of Jesus Christ. And in spite of their transformation, their old selves often re-entered the picture. We know that Peter followed Jesus as one of the twelve but faltered in his belief as Peter denied knowing Jesus. Nevertheless, we find Peter renewed by God’s grace as he would become a witness to the Resurrection. We also understand that his apostolic exploits led him to Rome where he exercised his leadership as the first “pope” of Rome. We also understand that he was put to death by crucifixion and is buried under the altar in St. Peter Church, Rome. Paul, on the other hand, had a transformative experience when he was on his way to further persecute followers of Jesus but was literally knocked off his horse and became blind. Recovering from his blindness, he began to understand the words spoken to him during his loss of sight, “Paul, Paul, why are you persecuting me?” God works in strange ways as Paul, recovering from his blindness, was able to see that Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Paul also gave his life for Christ, as tradition has it, he was beheaded. Paul was buried in Rome, and the Basilica of St. Paul, outside the walls of Rome, was erected over his burial spot. So today we celebrate the life and the deaths of these two foundation stones of our Church. In spite of their weaknesses, faults, and sins, God called each of them to serve Him and His Church. May each of us experience this same calling in our lives.

Just a reminder about the Tolton Pilgrimage Procession to be held on Wednesday, July 9. The procession will begin at 5:30 outside St. Peter’s Church. It will make its way down Maine Street to St. Peter Cemetery where everyone will gather at Fr. Tolton’s grave for evening prayer. Some chairs and water will be provided but you are encouraged to bring your own. Those who cannot participate in the procession may meet the pilgrimage at the grave. Because of a lack of space, there will be no parking in the cemetery itself. Thank you and please join us for this annual pilgrimage.

The School of St. Peter

Week of June 29, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

QCES Teacher Grants CONGRATULATIONS

The new first-ever QCES Teacher Grant program was recently designed to support QCES teachers by funding innovative projects, materials, technology, and professional development opportunities that enhance student learning. Out of sixteen grants awarded, four of our St. Peter teachers were selected to fund the project they submitted for the QCES Teacher Grants.

Mrs. Sandy Gallaher (Kindergarten) will be able to purchase decodable readers for her students. Mrs. Cheryl Sowell (4th grade) will be able to attend an ADHD conference. Mrs. Lori Bertram (1st grade) will be able to implement a bible story re-enactment play and Mr. Ryan Shinn (PE) will be able to implement his basketball program for all.

QCES received 30 applications requesting nearly $26,000. This demonstrates a powerful reflection of the creativity and dedication of our Catholic school educators. Sixteen of the projects were either fully or partially funded this cycle for a total of $10,000.

We sincerely express our thankfulness to the QCES Foundation.

St. Peter Back to School Help Fair Ministry

Please help out our ministry this summer with donations.

1. When you are cleaning out closets this summer consider donating gently used school aged (Pre-K through high school) clothing and shoes. Bring the items to Iles Elementary located at 3111 North 12th Street. There is a tote at the front of the building for donations. This tote will be available for drop off items from June 1 - August 1. Questions about donations can be directed to Mary at 217-257-1403.

2. In July we will be placing tags on the tables in the Narthex. Parishioners will select tags and purchase socks and underwear which will be distributed to local schools. Nurses and other school personnel will use the donations to assist students throughout the year.

Theology on Tap

Join Father Kenneth Ahanonu as he speaks about the Sacred Heart of Jesus as the manifestation of divine love at The Fuzzy Bubbler, 111 Jail Alley in Quincy; Tuesday, July 1, doors open at 5:30 p.m.; the talk begins at 6:35 p.m.

Dear PSR Parents

We need to prepare for the PSR 2025-2026 school year. Please let us know if your students will attend so we can order supplies. Applications are available on the table in the Narthex. You can place them in the collection basket or take them to the Rectory. If you have any questions, please contact Gina Wolf, PSR Coordinator at 217-257-9966 or email g.wolf@cospq.org.

Please inform me if your children will be attending by July 15, 2025.

We look forward to seeing you and your children at PSR in the fall. Your prompt response will help in planning a successful start to the school year. Thank you for your cooperation regarding your child's religious education. Blessings, Gina Wolf
