Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

JULY 20, 2025

Genesis 18:1-10a;
 Colossians 1:24-28;
 Luke 10:38-42

In the nomadic culture of the ancient Middle East, hospitality was the principal virtue. Even an enemy had to be treated as a brother as long as he was under your tent. In the first reading, Abraham shows this kind of hospitality to three “strangers.” He was rewarded by the promise that his free wife, Sarah, would have a son.

But, as important as hospitality was, Jesus says that there is something even more important: Listening to and reflecting on his word are more important than the details of hospitality.

Someone must do the cooking and cleaning up. We must never permit others to work while we play. But when a friend visits, we should pay attention to the friend, and not to minute details of hospitality. How much more should we pay attention to our friend, Jesus, who is always with us? Martha is the ideal church worker; Mary is the ideal disciple.

The second reading teaches the value of our crosses when offered in union with Christ. We are one with him in the Mystical Body, the Church. Our words, works, and prayers, take on a new and infinite dimension when offered through and with Christ.

We participate in the very redemptive act of his cross. In this reading, Paul also marvels at the great “mystery” of God’s mercy. Jews hated non-Jews (Gentiles), and non-Jews (Gentiles) hated Jews. The “mystery” is that God has brought the two together in Jesus Christ.

Dear Parishioners,

As I reflect upon our gospel reading for today, I just think that this particular gospel humanizes Jesus. What it tells me is that Jesus needed fellow human beings in whom he could trust, find support, and draw strength. He wasn't so independent that he didn't need other humans to keep him in touch with human feelings like compassion, love, and even humor. And these human feelings I imagine were found in his friendship with Martha, Mary, and their brother, Lazarus. And so we find Jesus entering the village in which His friends lived, for an occasional visit. I can also imagine that Jesus smiled many times as He heard the sisters complain about each other as they talked with him on the shortcomings of their siblings. In this particular instance, we hear Martha, complaining to Jesus, "Lord do you not care that my sister has left me by myself, to do the serving? Tell her to help me." Apparently Mary was sitting beside Jesus at His feet listening to Him speak. Jesus in His wisdom and understanding of sibling rivalry responds, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." Martha has legitimate complaints against her sister. There might have been others that accompanied Jesus so there was a little stress trying to show hospitality to all the guests. But Martha missed a major point. Hospitality means that we show proper attention to those who are apart of our lives. We see them as individuals needing attention rather than just fulfilling physical needs. This is what Martha seemed to have been missing with making sure that Jesus' physical needs were being filled rather than focusing on listening to what He was sharing.

Speaking of hospitality, I want to welcome on behalf of our parish, Fr. Varghese Aratukulam, a priest of the diocese of Alleppey, India. He is in our parish this weekend to make an appeal for our assistance in the ministry of his diocese. Once again we are being asked to be stewards and to share our prayer and our treasures with others who are less fortunate. We are being asked to be the Martha's who listen to this appeal and then respond with generous hearts to what will be asked. Envelopes will be in the pews. After all, we are a missionary Church and we do have a mission to come to the assistance of brothers and sisters throughout the world who are in need. I ask that you welcome him as we normally do and respond generously to his appeal. May God bless him, his efforts, and each of you.

Also to let you know, we will be switching the time of Mass on Wednesdays from 8:30 a.m. to 8:20 a.m. to accommodate our grade school schedule. This will take effect on Wednesday, August 27. Please adjust. Thank you!

Also, I know that picnic tickets have been sent out to our parishioners. It is hard to believe that our annual parish picnic is just a month away, as it will be held on Saturday, August 23. Please make sure that you have sent in your raffle tickets with the money for the raffle. The picnic will be a little different with all the construction taking place but we will adapt to the circumstances. Please plan on joining us and enjoying our parish community. We are always looking for workers so if you haven't been assigned, let our chairpersons know.

In the past several months, we have been doing our best to update our school gym. This update included a new gym floor, which was necessary as we discovered some potential hazards in the flooring. Of recent date, we also updated our sound system which has been great and will be quite an addition to any type of gatherings. Finally, this summer we painted the walls, giving our gym a new and fresh look. Come by any time and see the finishing touch. All of this has been possible because of the stewardship of this parish family.

ON THE BEACHES OF
This guy was walking along the beach one day and ran across a lamp. He picked it up and a genie popped out. The genie told him he would grant the man three wishes.

Poof! A million dollars was suddenly piled around his feet.

Poof! A Mercedes appeared in front of him, engine idling. The man threw the money in the car ready to drive off to the bank.

The guy smirked, “I’d like to be irresistible to women.”

Poof! He turned into a box of chocolates.

Mission Appeal for the Diocese of Alleppey (India)

The Diocese of Alleppey, situated in southwest India, nurtures a Catholic population of 166,870 within a total of 1,260,970 residents. In this densely populated region, 75% of the people are poor fishermen, who continue to practice traditional fishing, making a humble living off their daily catch. Challenges such as sea erosion and seasonal storms frequently disrupt their lives, yet the diocese remains steadfast in its mission to uplift the poor. Through numerous welfare projects led by parishes and social service ministries, the Light of Christ reaches all, transcending caste and religion.

The lack of government health programs has left families facing terminal illnesses in increasingly dire situations, with cancer cases on the rise. Assisi Hospice and Palliative Care Center of the Diocese remains the only facility providing free support to terminal patients—but it is struggling to keep up with growing demand. Your generous donations through the Mission Coop Program will help expand our hospice center and extend critical services to those who need them most. Fr. Varghese Aratukulam from the Diocese of Alleppey will be present on July 19-20 to share more about these urgent needs. Thank you for your kindness and generosity.
