Hospitality—Prayer—Formation—Service

Pastor's Letter

July 20, 2025—16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Church Family

In our readings for today, we have two stories about hospitality. In our first reading from Genesis we have the story of Abraham who welcomes three mysterious strangers (the Lord? Angels? It's unclear) to his home. He lavishly provides for their comfort and is rewarded with a revelation of God's plan for him and his family. His wife, Sarah will have a son. By extending hospitality to strangers, Abraham receives a visit from God.

In our Gospel reading Martha and Mary also welcome a divine visitor in their home. Jesus comes to their house. Martha prepares a meal while Mary sits at Jesus' feet listening to him. While Jesus says that Mary has chosen the better part, both are doing what is necessary to extend hospitality.

These stories of welcoming others give us a clue as to what Paul means when he says in our second reading, "Brothers and sisters: Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ on behalf of his body, which is the church, of which I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." What could possibly be missing from the work that Christ accomplished on the cross? Wasn't Jesus' sacrifice enough? Yes, it was, but, there still remains one thing to be done: that sacrifice needs to be lived out in the world today by the body of Christ, the church.

By our welcoming of strangers, by our giving of ourselves in service to others, we make the sacrifice of Christ on the cross present in our own time and place. When we reach out in love and service, we are the hands of Christ. When we go out to help those in need, we are the feet of Christ. When we speak words of comfort to the suffering, we are the voice of Christ. The love of God is not just an abstract idea. It is concrete. It is person to person. It is Jesus using us to wrap his arms around the people he loves who need him.

Brothers and sisters, we live in a society that seems to be forgetting how to show hospitality. We are turning our backs on the strangers who need our help. By doing so, we are turning our backs on Jesus. Mother Teresa once said that the poor are Jesus coming to us in a distressing disguise. Every time we help someone, whether we know them personally or not, we are helping Christ. Every time we turn away we miss an opportunity to serve our Lord. May Christ's sacrifice be fulfilled in us as we open our hearts and our hands to others.

Blessings,

Fr. Scott

Funeral Meal Changes—St. Brigid

Starting July 1, 2025— We will be requiring the families to order and pay for the meat only for the funeral meal. The church will continue to provide all sides, desserts, drinks, tableware and condiments. Our volunteers enjoy providing this service to our families during their time of bereavement.

Stewardship Reflection

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." Colossians 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Please contact us if we need to remove your name from our prayer list.

Sts. Joachim and Anne | Catholic Saints

Though they never appear in canonical Scripture, Sts. Joachim and Anne—the grandparents of Jesus—hold a place of great importance in the Church's tradition. Discover more about the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary in this episode of Catholic Saints with Mary McGeehan and Augustine Institute professor Dr. Carl Vennerstrom.

St. Brigid Parish New Ministry

Neighbor Helping Neighbor

We all have our own talents...things that we are good at...and what better way to be the person that God wants us to be than to share those talents with each other.

A few of us were brainstorming to see what talents people would be willing to share and what others might need. Here's what we came up with – please feel free to add to it with a talent(s) you would be willing to use or know that someone needs.

Need a ride to ...
a doctor's appointment
church
get groceries

Yard work.. mowing
raking leaves

Sewing to fix a garment...
button
zipper alter

Washing windows
Cleaning gutters

All of us, at some time or other, need help. Whether we're giving or receiving help, each one of us has something valuable to bring to this world. That's one of the things that connects us as neighbors – in our own way, each one of us is a giver and a receiver. – Fred Rogers

Talents and Needs

Can you think of any talents you could share, or needs that you have – or see a need for in our area?

Talents to Share

Needs in our Area

.....

This is a pilot program. We are trying to see if there is a need for this kind of ministry in our area. Please fill out and put in the collection at church.

How many are your works, LORD!
 In wisdom you made them _ _ _ _ ;
 the earth is full of your creatures.
 There is the _ _ _ _ , vast and spacious,
 teeming with _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ beyond number — living things both large and small.

Connie Bealor, 4th Grade,
St. Edward

"I teach 4th grade PSR to share my love of God and faith with our youth."

Cathy Zanger, 3rd Grade,
St. Brigid

"The kids, I enjoy teaching them about Jesus and how to pray and how to have respect in church. I love to encourage them to be a part of Mass and to always know God is with them wherever they are."

Is God calling you to fill this spot next year? We need a teacher for 4th Grade at St. Joseph.

Jolin Tripp, 3rd Grade,
St. Joseph

I enjoyed sharing with and teaching our youth about the Eucharist.
