Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

AUGUST 10, 2025

Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2,8-19;
 Luke 12:32-48

None of us is going to get out of this alive! To prove the point, do you know of anyone who is 150 years old? They have all gone. Some time in the future, each one of us will be called to give an account of our lives before God, the just Judge who cannot be deceived. Today's readings tell us to live in faith and expectation, to be ready for God's summons, for we don't know when it will come.

The first reading is from Wisdom. The reading describes the expectation of the Israelites in Egypt for their deliverance. They kept hoping and waiting. But Wisdom was actually written a thousand years after the Exodus. It was written to encourage many Jews who were again living in Egypt.

Unfortunately, these Jews in Egypt were prospering greatly; they were attracted to the pagan culture of Hellenism. The author of Wisdom urges them to look back to the faith of their forefathers.

The second reading tells us that faith is the realization of what we hope for, the evidence of what we believe. The reading gives us examples of people who lived by their convictions.

The Gospel is an unlikely story to teach a truth. It is very unlikely that any master would ever wait on his servants! But the parable says this! If we are loyal to Christ, and if we keep wide awake in our faith, he will surely be our Savior, our Paraclete, our Mediator. He will share his heavenly banquet with us.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, August 10, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Our celebration is that of the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Our gospel presents to us a challenge to look into the priorities of our lives. First Jesus tells us not to be afraid as “the Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.” In other words, the Father wants us to join Him in that eternal reward that we call heaven. And as we make Jesus our priority, then we need to fear nothing, not even death. So often as we age, we begin to think about life after death. And so often we live in fear, thinking that we are not worthy of that kingdom. Jesus reassures us that as He is the priority in our lives, we have nothing to fear. Then Jesus says something we all need to remember, namely, that “where our treasure is, there also will be our hearts.” Hopefully our treasure is Jesus, and the love that we have for Him is reflected in our very lives and that is where we find our hearts. So, for those who have Jesus as their treasure, need not to be ever afraid as our hearts are ever close to Him.

So, for any fears that we have, Jesus tells us “Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when He comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on His arrival.” Vigilance is a part of our lives in keeping our eyes focused on what is important. May each of us remain ever vigilant because it keeps us prepared for at “any hours we do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

One of those in our human history who was ever vigilant, and whose priority was Jesus, is the Blessed Mother. It is because of her vigilance that she was well prepared for when her son came for her to usher her home. And it is because she treasured Jesus so much that she was, upon her death, assumed Body and Soul into heaven. This is what is called the Assumption of Mary into heaven, a solemnity that we celebrate this Friday. It is also one of the Holydays of Obligation in our Catholic Church. Our Mass schedule is as follows: Vigil Mass on Thursday, August 14, will be at 6:00 p.m.; then the Mass schedule on the Solemnity itself, August 15, will be: 8:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m. at QND, 12:10 p.m. and 6:00 p.m.

Just to keep you informed, I had my first chemotherapy last Monday and will continue this procedure on the next two consecutive Mondays in my first session. As the newcomer in the infusion area, I was amazed at the number of people experiencing the same thing that I was. It helped me realize that cancer knows no age, nor financial background, but it affects many people. Thank you for your prayers as I am just beginning my treatments. I find myself fatigued and very tired, both symptoms of the chemo and the cancer.

The first day of school at St. Peter School is Tuesday, August 19. There will be only a half day of school with an 11:30 a.m. dismissal. I would like to invite our students and parents to celebrate a Mass with us on Sunday, August 17, at 11:00 a.m. After Mass then our students will be able to go over to the grade school and meet their teachers and drop off anything they need for the school year. As far as our pre-school and kindergarten programs, I ask you to consult the letters received from the school.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

I'm sure that you have noticed that we have rearranged our bulletin sections. This is not to confuse you but to be more consistent in our bulletin news. Please adjust accordingly. Thank you!

Our St. Peter Annual parish picnic is just around the corner, being celebrated on Saturday, August 23, after the 5:00 p.m. Mass until Midnight. But we are doing something new this year, expanding our picnic to include the night before, Friday, August 22. The Silver Bullets will play from 7:00-10:00 p.m. Friday, a type of pre-picnic to start our weekend off. We will be serving ribeye sandwiches, chips and drinks. Come out and enjoy listening to music, great food, and friends. Then on Saturday, our picnic will begin with plenty of food, drinks, several raffles, and a good time. If you haven't signed up to work, our chairpersons are always looking for helpers. Please contact them soon.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Rita Rudner Quotes:

1. I read recipes the same way I read science fiction. I get to the end and say to myself, "well, that's not going to happen."
2. I never panic when I get lost. I just change where it is I want to go.
3. I love being married. It's so great to find that one special person you want to annoy for the rest of your life.
4. I was a vegetarian until I started leaning to the sunlight.
5. After you dated someone, it should be legal to stamp them with what's wrong with them so the next person doesn't have to start from scratch.
