A Recent Find: Any YouTube entries featuring Dr. John Bergsma would be more than worth-while to check in on. From his personal journey toward the faith of the Catholic Church, to his teaching about misunderstandings and misrepresentations of Catholic teaching, and even to the inaccuracies in translations of the Bible causing those misunderstandings and misrepresentations, there's a lot to be gained from giving Dr. Bergsma a chance to explain things. Fr. T.

Know Your Vehicle: Part III. I don't know what I did. I pressed the ignition button, and suddenly, the fan was blowing full blast. The heat was on. My steering wheel was burning up. And so was I, because my seat was warming up to daytime desert temperatures. The radio was playing music from...where? Antarctica? Thailand? Chili? (Not the one on the way to Quincy.) Buzzers, bells, and vibrations: my steering wheel was actually letting me know I'd better keep both my hands on it. I turned on the windshield wipers, just in case they felt left out; everything else was going nuts. Then I realized what was happening: my vehicle has a temper, and "let it all out" instead of "leaving it all in". It took a while, but I came to appreciate the wisdom. Eventually I turned off the engine, and the "Rear Passenger Alert" bell went off. What a way to make up to me: reminding me, when I get out of the car, not to leave myself in the back seat. I'm getting better at this automotive knowledge, week after week. Relationships: hard work. Fr. T.

Grape Festival and Labor Day Weekend. To the Church, labor is a gift of self-discovery and contribution to the common good. To Catholics here, grape vineyards began with Fr. Alleman. In one single holiday weekend, we can celebrate the privilege and responsibility of work, as well as the history of our communities and our county. Don't forget: SPPS Pancake and Sausage Breakfast Sunday morning; K of C Alleman Council Hall Food and Drink Saturday and Sunday; Pet Parade Saturday afternoon; and Grape Festival Parade, SPPS in the parade, 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Please join us at Alleman Council 1853 KC Hall over Grape Festival weekend for cold drinks, tenderloins, maid-rites, hot dogs and more from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Look for us in the parade on Sunday as we conduct our annual Tootsie Roll Drive. Hope to see you there!

Perpetual Novena Wednesday Evenings, IC Church Site, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m. Two more Wednesdays to come before the Blessed Sacrament in silence, to pray in solidarity with our Latino brothers and sisters with concern about being caught in between submission of visa/permit extensions and their approval. And beyond that, for English and Spanish speaking people to "test the waters" of each other's language through prayer. All are welcome!
