From the Pastor's desk....

Evangelization! That is the theme for the convocation that all the priests will be attending this week. Every 2 years the priests gather and learn about something; topics have been varied. Bishop Hicks is very excited about this year's topic on evangelization. The church has always promoted evangelization, or spreading the gospel of Christ; but we sense that it is needed now more than ever in our secular world.

When we are baptized, we think of what Jesus told his disciples—"go out into the world and baptize all the nations". This is a command not only for the disciples long ago, but also a command for us. This coming week we will be given opportunity to listen to different keynote speakers and discussions. It is the bishop's hope that each priest will be able to take something with him at the end of the convocation, that will help with spreading the gospel of Christ, and the teachings of our Catholic Church.

How each of us lives our life is important. Hopefully we are evangelizing when we are going about our everyday duties. Our attitude, our demeanor, what we do and how we do things, should all point to Jesus. I hope you will keep the priests of the diocese in your prayer this week as we spend time together in prayer, in learning and in fellowship.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

CCW Celebrates a Living Rosary October 5

October is a sacred time in our Church calendar – a month lovingly dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This devotion, deeply rooted in our Catholic tradition, invites us to reflect on the life of Christ through the eyes of His Blessed Mother. As Pope Leo XIII once wrote, the Rosary is “the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life.” In this spirit, CCW encourages all parishioners to renew their devotion to the Rosary in October – whether through personal prayer, family gatherings, or joining us for communal recitation.

The Rosary is prayed daily, Monday through Friday, following the 8:30 Mass in church. All are welcome to attend and lift their hearts in prayer for peace, healing, and unity.

Please plan to attend CCW's Living Rosary on October 5, in the church after 11 a.m. Mass.
