Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SEPTEMBER 28, 2025

Amos 6:1a,4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16;
Luke 16:19-31

Remember the old humorous statement: “The biggest problem in the Church today is apathy and indifference ... But who cares?” That may describe many of us. We are discouraged by the way things go in life, but we do nothing to change them.

Amos says, today, “Woe to the complacent in Zion!” That is a pretty weak translation. A better one would be: “The complacent are going to be damned to hell!” Not very nice words, but true! If we fail to notice needs and if we fail to try to fill those needs, we are complacent. We deserve eternal punishment.

The second reading tells us that if we are devoted to God, we must seek integrity; we must fight for faith; we must witness for Christ. This may be another way of saying that we can’t save our own soul without saving others. We please God by showing our concern for the people and for the things God has made.

The big sin of the rich man in the Gospel parable is that he didn’t notice poor Lazarus at his gate. He wasn’t an evil person; he was just caught up in his own little world so much that he didn’t notice the needs of others.

God offers us opportunities to serve him with our time, our talent, and our treasure. He doesn’t overpower us, and he doesn’t send us an angel or a vision. He expects us to notice. He expects us to see needs and to serve him by serving the needs of others.

Remember what the Lord says, “What you do ... or neglect to do ... to others, you do ... or neglect to do ... to me.”

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, September 28, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

The Church continues to celebrate “ordinary time” as it celebrates the 26th Sunday in this liturgical year. In our gospel Jesus shares with us an interesting parable, the parable of Lazarus and the rich man. In this parable, Jesus draws a stark contrast between a man who enjoyed his riches but had no concern for others and a poor man, Lazarus, whose life was filled with poverty, suffering, and humiliation. And as the parable goes, when the rich man died, he was condemned to the “torment” of the flames in the underworld. Lazarus, however, rested in the bosom of Abraham after he passed away. When the rich man begged Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers about what awaited them Abraham dismissed his request. “They have Moses and the prophets,” he said. “Let them listen to them.” The interpretations of this parable are many as people try to rationalize the behavior of the rich man. Some maintain that the sin of the rich man was that he did not even notice Lazarus in his poverty and humiliation. Others challenge that thought because the rich man knew of the situation for he knew the name of the poor man. Whatever the case, I think the parable challenges us to open our eyes and look around. There are people among us who are hurting in many differing ways. And somehow, we need to respond with open hearts and compassionate understanding. Just to dismiss people as if we don’t notice or that we are unaware doesn’t say much for our human nature. My challenge to you is to open your eyes and see, see the vulnerable, the weak among us and somehow respond with the heart of a brother and sister.

This Saturday, October 4 is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. It is usually around this date that we give our traditional blessings of pets. Since our students will not be around on Saturday, and there is no school on Friday, October 3, we will have the traditional blessing of pets on Thursday, October 2, at 2:00 p.m. in the field next to Seton Hall. Any parishioner and/or student who would like their pets blessed, make sure they are present in this field on that particular date and time.

Unfortunately, I will not be able to be present for that blessing as I will be receiving my chemotherapy that day. This will be my third series of three therapies and I am hoping my last. Please continue your prayers for me as I pray for you.

This Monday, September 29, is the feast day of our three archangels, Sts. Michael, Raphael, and Gabriel. Michael, the “prince of the heavenly host”, is presented as the protector of God’s people who battles Satan and his minions. Gabriel brought God’s message of salvation to Zechariah and Mary. And Raphael accompanied Tobias on his journey and brought healing to his father, Tobit. But above all, Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael’s highest purpose is to join the other angels in worshiping and glorifying God. At every Mass, we join the angels as they worship before the throne of God. When we gather to worship and praise God in the Eucharist, we are singing God’s praises in the presence of the angels.

St. Michael, St. Raphael, and St. Gabriel, pray for us now and at the hour of our death.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Saturday: 7:30-7:50 a.m.
3:30-4:30 p.m.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

As we think about angels, next Thursday, October 2, is the feast day of the Holy Guardian Angels. Many of us learned the traditional prayer to the Guardian Angel which goes like this:

Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen."

According to tradition and Scripture, there are Nine choirs of Angels found in Paul's letter to the Colossians and Romans. The Nine choirs are: Angels, Archangels, Principalities, Powers, Virtues, Dominations, Thrones, Cherubim and Seraphim.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Noah and the Ark

1. Which animals were the last to leave the Ark?
The elephants. It took some time for them to pack their trunks.
2. Did all the animals on the ark come in pairs?
The worms probably came in the apples.
3. Did Noah carry money into the ark?
Sure,bucks and does.....
4. Where is the first meat mentioned in the Bible?
When Noah took Ham into the ark.
5. Why did Noah have to discipline the chickens on the ark?
Because they were using fowl language.
6. Which animal had the highest level of intelligence on Noah's ark?
The giraffe.

October, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, Catholics across the United States join in supporting the Black and Indian Mission Collection—the oldest national collection of our Church. Since 1874, this collection has helped bring the Gospel to African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities by sustaining parishes, schools, catechesis, and the formation of future leaders. This collection strengthens vibrant faith communities that often face poverty and limited resources, reminding them that the wider Church walks with them.

As St. John Paul II reminded us: "Faith is strengthened when it is given to others. " When we contribute to this collection, we not only bring Christ's love to those in need, but we also deepen our own faith by sharing it.

With gratitude for your faith and support, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki

St. Peter School

Week of September 28, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

HOUSE ASSEMBLY

We kicked off our school year by welcoming Kindergarten students, new students in other grades and staff members. The kids were excited during the assembly as they welcomed our new members to each HOUSE. We are so grateful that all students have a HOUSE shirt to represent their saint.

Pictured above: the House of St Francis of Assisi. We will celebrate the feast day on October 1. Members of St. Francis of Assisi practice the virtue of humility. St. Francis was born the son of a wealthy cloth maker. When he grew up he became a Catholic friar and gave up his wealth to live a life of poverty. He showed great humility by focusing on caring for others rather than focusing on himself.

SCHOLASTIC BOWL

We are on the look out!

Do you have a passion for trivia as well as working with students? If so, we have a great opportunity for you. We are on the lookout for one to two coaches for the 6th-8th grade St. Peter School Scholastic Bowl team.

Mrs. Laura Dighe and Mrs. Jodi McDonald have graciously coached our students for the last 10 years. They are ready to pass on the torch! Both will be helpful to the new coach or coaches that agree to organize the St. Peter School students. If you are interested in leading our students please be sure to contact Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh at c.venvertloh@cospq.org or 217-223-1120. Practices for Scholastic Bowl begin in January 2026.
