Pastor's Letter

September 7, 2025—23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Church Family,

Our second reading for today is taken from the shortest book in the Bible, St. Paul's Letter to Philemon. As short as it is there is an amazing story behind it. A Christian man from the city of Colossae named Philemon had a slave named Onesimus who escaped and found his way to Rome. While there he came in contact with Paul who was being held there as a prisoner under house arrest. Onesimus himself became a Christian and helped Paul in his work of preaching the gospel. Here's where it gets interesting.

Apparently, Paul knows Philemon, the master of Onesimus. It seems that it was Paul who converted Philemon to Christianity. Paul sends Onesimus back to Philemon with this letter asking Philemon to forgive Onesimus and welcome him as a brother in Christ. Paul even has the nerve to ask Philemon to set Onesimus free so that he can return to Rome and continue to help Paul.

Paul is asking a lot of both Philemon and Onesimus. He is asking Onesimus to put his life on the line for reconciliation with his master. A runaway slave could be punished by death. Even if Philemon didn't have him executed, he very well might end up back in slavery. And Philemon is being asked to give up his claim on Onesimus. According to the practice of the time, that made no sense. Slaves were valuable property. And Paul says he should welcome Onesimus like a brother. Slaves were at the bottom of the social ladder and Paul wants him to treat him as an equal. Where does Paul get the nerve to ask so much of these two?

Paul is only asking of them what Jesus asks of all his disciples; don't live according to the values of the world, but according to the values of heaven. Surrender your own will to the will of the Father. And what is the will of the Father? That we should be one and that we should love and forgive each other as he loves and forgives us.

This doesn't come easily to us. We are used to living in a world that encourages us to put ourselves before others. We're not used to putting others first or allowing God to call the shots in our lives. That goes against the grain of the way this world works. We need help to swim against the stream of selfishness. God give us that help. He reveals himself and his will in Jesus Christ and he strengthens us by his grace to be better than we thought we could be.

We don't know how the story of Philemon and Onesimus turned out. I hope Philemon forgave Onesimus. I hope I would forgive if it was me. May God give us the grace to follow him beyond the limited love of this world into the limitless love of heaven.

Blessings,

Fr. Scott

Stewardship Reflection

“Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Saint Teresa of Calcutta September 5

AGNES GONXHA BOJAXHIU WAS BORN IN YUGOSLAVIA IN 1910. HER FATHER DIED WHEN SHE WAS 8. AT AGE 12 SHE KNEW GOD WANTED HER TO BE A MISSIONARY.

Lord, You want me to work for You, don't you?

WHEN SHE WAS 18 AGNES BECAME A NUN AND TOOK THE NAME TERESA. SHE TAUGHT AT A SCHOOL FOR RICH GIRLS IN INDIA.

ON A TRAIN WHEN SHE WAS 36, SR. TERESA FELT GOD CALL HER TO SERVE THE VERY POOR.

I want you to serve Me in the poorest of the poor.

Today we will start learning how to read!

SHE GOT PERMISSION TO TAKE A NEW HABIT AND START A SCHOOL FOR POOR CHILDREN.

SOON OTHER WOMEN JOINED MOTHER TERESA TO HELP THE POOR AND DYING.

MOTHER TERESA KNEW THAT THEY COULD NOT CONTINUE WITHOUT TAKING TIME EVERY DAY TO TALK WITH JESUS.

Governments should also work to protect the poor and the unborn.

IN 1979 MOTHER TERESA WON THE NOBEL PEACE PRIZE, BUT SHE STAYED HUMBLE AND USED EVERY CHANCE TO TELL THE RICH AND POWERFUL PEOPLE TO PROTECT THE POOR AND WEAK.

SAINT TERESA OF CALCUTTA DIED ON SEPTEMBER 5TH, 1997. WE CAN LEARN FROM HER TO DEFEND AND HELP THOSE WHO CAN'T HELP THEMSELVES, ESPECIALLY THE POOR AND UNBORN CHILDREN. WE ALSO LEARN FROM HER EXAMPLE THAT WE NEED TO SPEND TIME IN PRAYER WITH JESUS EVERY DAY.

Family and Friends or God?

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus says, "If any one comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple."

You probably thought that God doesn't want us to hate anyone, right? Well He doesn't! What Jesus was saying was that we should love God more than we love the people closest to us. He means that we should be ready to do what God wants even if that means losing our family or best friends.

Normally God wants us to stay close to the people we love, but what if you had to choose between doing the right thing or keeping your friends? Are you ready to give up anything or anyone that would stop you from loving God?

The Boy from Milan | Trailer

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.
