November 9, 2025 — Dedication of the Lateran Basilica (320T-C)

A Message from Fr. Tom Donovan:

Another Ordinary Time Sunday is pre-empted this weekend as the Church celebrates the feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran, the Pope's own cathedral in Rome. The word cathedral comes from the Greek word, kathedra, which means 'seat' or 'chair'. Cathedrals are churches containing not only bishop's throne, the cathedra, but they also serve as the focal point of unity and ministry within the Church under the apostolic oversight of a bishop. Even though the pope's residence and most of his ceremonial events take place at St. Peter's in Rome, officially the pope's own cathedral as the Bishop of Rome is located at the Basilica of St. John Lateran.

As the universal church celebrates the occasion of the dedication of the pope's cathedral, we also observe the dedication of our diocesan cathedral as a Solemnity throughout the diocese. This date was originally October 14 (1928), but more recently has followed the anniversary of its dedication after renovation on December 2 (2009). Our own Church building also celebrates its dedication with a local Solemnity. Last year marked 40 years for St. Anthony Church on December 1 (1984).

The building, dedication, and maintenance of these houses of worship are important to the Church because they not only provide sacred places for worship, but they also serve in an iconic role... as a symbol of the continual spiritual building, remodeling, and maintenance going on within the people of God. To reduce the Church to the sum of its structures and institutions is to miss the insight provided by these apostles. St. Paul asks, "Are you not aware that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" (1 Corinthians 3: 16) St. Peter describes the Church as "living stones... built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices unto God." (1 Peter 2:5) Thus, this feast day is a feast of not just a church (a building) and its dedication, but the Church and its consecration as the people of God.

On the weekend of November 29-30, we will have a special collection for our parish and school staff. Each year we give a small seasonal gratuity to each of our staff members—about 30 total—who work in our parish office and at St. Dominic School. Over the last few years, we have invited parishioners who would like to make a contribution to this fund to do so with a special collection. A special envelope will be available in church, and we will accept contributions through Monday, December 8 at the parish office. As this fund is intended for the lay employees of the parish, Deacon Harry and I (as clergy) do not receive any proceeds from this fund. Contributions received will be divided by a formula accounting for those who work part time and those who work full time. While your contributions are appreciated, please do not feel obligated—especially if your own situation this holiday season makes things tight for you. Further, if you wish to make a special gift or note of thanks directly to a classroom teacher or someone whose ministry has been particularly important to you, we certainly do not wish to undermine that, either. We have an exceptional team of parish and school staff bring life and vitality to St. Anthony Church and St. Dominic School each and every day of the year. Please join me in applauding their outstanding efforts and sending thanks for all they do! Thank you!
