Third Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 14, 2025

Isaiah 35:1-6a,10; James 5:7-10;
Matthew 11:2-11

Today is often called “Gaudete” Sunday; the word means “Rejoice!” It is the first word of the Latin Entrance Antiphon for today. Once again, our first reading gives the “signs” of the times of the Messiah: The desert will bloom; the wasteland will be fertile; the feeble will be strong; the blind will see, and so on. But, of course, that didn’t happen.

John the Baptist, in prison now, sends word to Jesus: “Are you the one, or should we look for someone else?” He wanted Jesus to make everything perfect now. He wanted him to start acting like the Messiah whom they expected.

Jesus tells of some people who have been cured. But he proclaims blessed the person who does not lose faith because he is not the kind of Messiah they want.

What happens when things go wrong for us? What happens when we don’t get our private miracle? Jesus is still Messiah! Perfection must await his “Second Coming.”

Meanwhile, our second reading urges us to be patient. Don’t lose faith and don’t grumble. Come out of yourself and your own little world. Renew your hope and be a person of hope and joy. Show by your life that Jesus is Messiah!

Third Sunday of Advent, December 14, 2025

Dear Parishioners,

Advent this year is just three and a half weeks. There was, however, time when Advent went much longer. According to Wikipedia, “the season of Advent originated as a fast of forty days in preparation for Christmas, commencing on the day after the feast of St. Martin, that is, November 12, whence it was often called St. Martin’s lent, a name by which it was known as early as the fifth century. In the ninth century, the duration of Advent was reduced to four weeks, and Advent preserved most of the characteristics of a penitential season which made it a kind of counterpart to Lent. The spirit of the liturgy all through Advent is one of expectation and preparation for the feast of Christmas as well as the second coming of Christ, and the penitential exercises suitable to that spirit are thus continued. However, these penitential exercises were always suspended on the Third Sunday of Advent as the Church celebrated “Gaudete Sunday.” With the celebrations of many Christmas parties during Advent, we lose the meaning of this particular Sunday, and its penitential exercises. Nevertheless, the Church continues its celebration of joy and expectation with the coming of Christ. In the entrance antiphon for our Mass for this weekend, this is what is proclaimed: “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.” (Phil 4: 4-5) The Word “Gaudete” is the Latin word to “rejoice.” So we are to set aside the penitential practices as we look ahead and experience the joy that the Lord is near. As a symbol of this joy, the Church encourages the priest to wear rose colored vestments and we light the rose colored candle on our Advent wreath. So, on this Third Sunday of Advent, let our hearts rejoice for the Lord is near!

I’m not sure how many of you have noticed but the candles on our back altar near the tabernacle have been refinished and look great. In the years that I have been here, this is the first time this has been done. The candles near the altar that we use for Mass are being refinished as I write this column along with the candle holder for our sanctuary lamp. Then our Easter candle holder along with the tabernacle itself will be refinished. This project is being completed through the generosity of a parishioner in memory of his wife. It looks beautiful and this project was much needed as our candle sticks and tabernacle were well in need of this polishing.

As our candlesticks needed refinishing in order to see once again their splendor, so also our souls need the same. And the way that we finish our souls to their original splendor is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The parishes of Quincy will be celebrating a city-wide Penance Service on Sunday, 21st day of December at St. Francis Church. Our celebration will begin at 2:00 p.m. and will have a number of priests of the area present for individual confessions. I encourage you to celebrate this Sacrament of Reconciliation with us and have your lives in order as we prepare our hearts and lives for the coming of Jesus. If you haven't been to confession in a while, this is a tremendous opportunity to be filled with God’s graces and have your lives and hearts ready for the coming of Christ.

Also, for those among us who have been away from the Sacraments, I want to welcome you back to our celebration of Christmas. We hope and pray that you rediscover your faith and join us again at the celebration of the Eucharist.

Our Mass schedule for Christmas is as follows:
 Wednesday, Christmas Eve, Masses will be at 4:00 p.m., 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.
 Thursday, Christmas Day, Masses will be at 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

N.B. For those inclined to attend the 4:00 p.m. Mass, I caution you that this Mass has standing room only, as it is so crowded. In order to have a seat, one needs to be present between 3:00 p.m. and 3:45 p.m.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: After my husband and I had a huge argument, we ended up not talking to each other for days. Finally, on the third day, he asked where one of his shirts was.
 "Oh," I said, "so now you're speaking to me."
 He looked confused. "What are you talking about?"
 "Haven't you noticed I haven't spoken to you for three days" I challenged.
 "No," he said, "I just thought we were getting along."

Billy Crystal Quotes:

1. By the time a man is wise enough to watch his step, he's too old to go anywhere.
2. It's money. I remember it from when I was single.
3. At 60, I could do the same things I could do at 30, if I could only remember what those things are.
4. I don't like heights. This is why I stopped growing at 5th grade.
5. I'm married. I caught my limit.

Parish in Action

DIOCESE OF SPRINGFIELD IN ILLINOIS
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Catholic Children's Home has been protecting and caring for needy and dependent children since the 19th century. Although times have changed, their mission to serve as a 'beacon of hope' for children in need has not. The Catholic Children's Home (CCH) has been a safe harbor and a place to call home for thousands of children over the years.

Today, CCH continues their mission by meeting the emotional, social, academic and basic material needs of all the children sent for residential care or special education services. "Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a reward from him." Psalm 127:3. The children served by CCH have been chronically abused, designated "unmanageable" by their schools or simply have no place to call home. They are some of the most vulnerable in our society.

The Christmas season can be a particularly difficult time for these youths as many of them are without a family. Those who have a family often lack the special care they need. Please keep these children in your prayers throughout this holy season of Advent and Christmas. With your help, the Catholic Children's Home can continue to serve the special needs of these children in the name of Jesus Christ, as it has since 1879.

In the spirit of Christ's incredible love for all children, I ask that you continue to support the work of the Catholic Children's Home and generously contribute to the special Christmas collection. "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in Him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." (Romans 15:13) May God fill your hearts with love, grace and a spirit of giving during these blessed days of Advent and Christmas.

With every best wish and gratitude, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

† Thomas John Paprocki

St. Peter School

Week of December 14, 2025

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

THE ADVENT SEASON IS UPON US

Students and staff participated in an Advent Prayer service. Each child wrote a blessing on a chain link. The links were attached and now appear on our Advent tree in the gym lobby.

During the season of Advent our students participate in various projects. Preschool 3's collected toiletry items for Quincy Catholic Charities. Preschool 4's celebrated Advent by creating baby Jesus mangers. They also held a baby Jesus Birthday party.

Kindergarten, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades participated in a special service project to help celebrate the season. They had a baby shower for Jesus and collected baby items for Care Net. Care Net offers hope to women facing unplanned pregnancies by providing practical help and emotional support. They are always so grateful to St. Peter School for restocking their supplies each year.

Fourth grade purchased items from the Giving Wreath tags.

Fifth grade students purchased a gift from the Giving Wreath tags and wrote letter to the shut-ins in the parish.

The 6th-7th grade service project for Advent will be supporting Clarity Healthcare by providing them with fidgets, journals, and/or coloring supplies for school-based clients ages 6-18.
