From the Pastor's desk....

Merry Christmas to you! I hope these last few days as we begin the Christmas season in the church, have been good and holy for you. A great time to look at your relationship with Jesus, the Christ Child in the manger, who comes and changes the world. He not only changes the world, but gives each of us hope! May you know the hope that comes to us from Jesus. May you also share that hope with those who may desperately need it.

This weekend in Christmas, we are once again reminded the importance of the family. We think of the Holy Family this weekend. Jesus, Mary and Joseph. But we may also want to think of Mary's parents, Anne and Joachim. Or the cousin of Jesus, John the Baptist. There is no mistake, that Jesus was born into a family, just as you and I were. He comes to let us know we are not alone in this life. He loves you; he KNOWS you intimately. I encourage you during this Christmas time to think about your relationship with Jesus. How might the members of the Holy Family help you in your position in your own family? I believe a big theme this Advent has been to "trust in God". When we trust in God, it is easier to say a profound "yes" to what His Will is for us.

As we finish out the New Year, may God watch over you and your family. May He protect you and bless you always.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

Knights to Host Consecration to the Holy Family

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting a brief Consecration to the Holy Family this Sunday, December 28 at both parishes. Deacon Matt will officiate the prayer service in the narthex after the 9:30 Mass at Ascension and after the 11:00 Mass at Christ the King. We ask that families and individuals gather after Mass to show devotion to the Holy Family and to dedicate themselves to Jesus, Mary and Joseph seeking their guidance, protection and grace to live lives according to the virtues of the Holy Family. We hope to see you there to show your devotion and dedication.

Consecration to the Holy Family

The Knights of Columbus Consecration to the Holy Family is a devotional act in which a family or individual dedicates themselves to Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, seeking their guidance, protection, and grace to live according to the virtues of the Holy Family.

Purpose and Significance

The consecration serves to strengthen families spiritually, helping them imitate the love, humility, obedience, and harmony exemplified by Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. It is both a renewal of baptismal vows and a commitment to live as a beacon of God's love within the home and community

Through this act, families consciously choose to sanctify their home and unify their hearts in faith, charity, and devotion

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT HAS RESUMED

Adoration has once again resume at Christ the King on Wednesdays following the 8:30 a.m. Mass until 12 Noon. Read about the Eucharist Revival at: www.eucharisticrevival.org
