Second Sunday of Advent

DECEMBER 7, 2025

Isaiah 11:1-10; Romans 15:4-9;
Matthew 3:1-12

Two hundred fifty years before Isaiah wrote, God promised that the dynasty of David would last forever. (See 2 Samuel 7:11-17.) But the descendants of David were a sorry lot. They were weak, corrupt, and faithless kings. Nevertheless, Isaiah — and the rest of the Bible preserves the tradition which contradicted their experience.

Isaiah sees that a “righteous shoot” shall spring from the “dead stump” of Jesse (David’s father). Isaiah calls on us to have hope, even when it contradicts our experience. Isaiah gives a beautiful picture of paradise which will come when the Messiah comes: The wolf shall be guest of the lamb; the leopard shall lie down with the kid ... etc.

In the second reading, Paul urges us to have hope because of the example of patience in our spiritual ancestors. He urges us to accept each other because Christ has accepted us: Whether we are Jew or Gentile, the Lord has had mercy on us all. Therefore we should glorify him by our charity toward each other.

The Gospel is a fiery sermon of John the Baptist. He calls the good people of his day (the Pharisees) a “nest of snakes!” He calls for everyone to turn his life around in order to escape the punishment his sins deserve. No one likes to hear a hurtful truth; but the truth is necessary for our spiritual conversion.

Let us pray today that we may have hope even when things seem hopeless, and that we may always follow the truth — even when it hurts.

Dear Parishioners,

We gather on this Second Sunday of Advent in the words of St. John the Baptist, to “prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths.” So, on this Second Sunday the Church introduces us to that Advent figure of John the Baptist. He was a figure who wore clothing made of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey, an interesting menu from the desert in which we find him. But there was something about him that made him very attractive, as people gathered around him to hear his message and to be baptized by him as they acknowledged their sins. As he met so many people coming to him, he challenged them to produce good fruit as proof of their willingness to change. Advent then becomes a time of change for us, changing from living in terms of this world only and somehow making our lives ready for the coming of Christ. There is hope for all of us. In our first reading from Isaiah, the prophet uses an image of a sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. If you ever travel through the forest or woods, you will encounter fallen trees. And what we would find in these fallen trees, are blossoms sprouting forth from the remnants of the tree, new life in the midst of brokenness and death. That is the hope Isaiah provides, helping us realize that new blossoms can still bud in our lives. This is our hope for Advent as we await the Lord whose coming gives us life and helps us bear fruit.

This Monday, December 8, is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. It is a Holyday of Obligation for all Catholics. But because the vigil of this Solemnity falls on a Sunday, the Second Sunday of Advent takes precedence so there is NO VIGIL MASS ON SUNDAY EVENING. Our Mass schedule for the Holyday is as follows: 8:20 Mass at St. Peter, 10:30 Mass at QND, 12:10 Mass and 6:00 p.m. Mass at St. Peter Church. Please join us for our celebration as we honor Mary under this title as the patron of our diocese and our country. Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, pray for us.

As we announced at our Masses last weekend, our Advent parish mission needed to be cancelled. The sudden death of Fr. Zehnle necessitated that we cancel our mission, especially since his death affected the life and vocation of our mission presenter. So, I ask you to pray for him and we will try to reschedule our mission in the future.

I also want to address an issue with you regarding Mass attendance when the weather is not conducive to being out and traveling in it. I remind you, especially the elderly and the sick, that they are not obliged to attend Mass when it’s impossible to be present because of ice and snow. Just please stay home under these circumstances and don’t risk getting out and falling and breaking a hip or leg. Under such circumstances, please stay safe at home. It is not a sin to stay home when the weather or road conditions make it difficult. The Church does not ask the impossible of us.

If you haven’t turned in your stewardship commitment cards, there is still time to do so. Please take them to prayer and ask our Lord to help you discover what He is asking of you this year. Mail or put it in the collection basket.

Fr. Leo's column continued..

An update on our construction: The last couple of weeks have allowed for good progress on the project. Steel is about 20% up, concrete floors on the 1st floor are 80% complete, and the mechanical rough ins on the 1st floor have been completed. The block layers were able to get the elevator pit up as well. With the current cold and snowy weather, we don't anticipate much movement this week and maybe next. Prayers for a slight warm-up would be helpful.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: An industrious turkey farmer was always experimenting with breeding to perfect a better turkey.

His family was fond of the leg portion for dinner and there were never enough legs for everyone. After many frustrating attempts, the farmer was relating the results of his efforts to his friends at the general store. "Well, I finally did it! I bred a turkey that has six legs."

They all asked the farmer how it tasted. "Don't know," said the farmer. "Never could catch the darn thing!"

Henny Youngman's Quotes:

1. I told the doctor I broke my leg in two places. He told me to quit going to those places.
2. I call my lawyer and say, "Can I ask you two questions?" He says, "What the second question?"
3. My wife is on a new diet. Coconuts and bananas. She hasn't lost weight, but can she climb a tree.
4. When God sneezed, I didn't know what to say.
5. "Doctor, my leg hurts. What can I do?" The doctor says "Limp!"

Parish in Action

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

December, 2025

Dear Friends in Christ,

I write to tell you about the upcoming 2025 collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. This annual appeal assists nearly 25,000 elderly sisters, brothers and religious order priests nationwide.

I am grateful for the significant influence that women and men religious, both past and present, have had on my own spiritual journey. I deeply appreciate their invaluable contributions to our diocese and the wider community. Perhaps you too have been touched by the kindness and guidance of an older woman or man religious who made a positive difference in your life.

We are called to recognize that many of our senior vowed religious have dedicated their lives to service, usually receiving little pay in return. Consequently, their religious communities face a shortage of retirement savings. Compounding this challenge are rising health-care costs and decreased income. Religious communities find it increasingly difficult to meet the day-to-day needs of aging members, including their medical expenses, nursing assistance and other necessities.

Your generous donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious provide vital financial support, enabling religious communities to care for their aging members.

I know you are frequently asked to support many worthy causes. I invite you to contribute whatever you can toward this year's collection. In addition to your financial contribution, please keep all our women and men religious in your prayers. May God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

Don't Forget to Turn in Your Commitment Card

We're still in the midst of our annual Stewardship Renewal. If you haven't returned your Commitment Card or completed one online at the parish website, www.cospq.org, it is NOT too late. Returning your card is an important part of being an active member of St. Peter Church. Please take this opportunity to discern how God is calling you to grow closer to Him this year.

2025 Giving Wreaths

Can you believe we are fast approaching Christmas. Where does the time go? Again this year, St. Peters will sponsor the Giving Wreath. This is a program that allows us at St. Peters a way to help those in our community who are less fortunate. Several local organizations send the needs of their people. Each need is put on a tag and we put those tags out on tables in the Narthex.

This is happening November 27 through December 7. You can choose a tag(s) before or after church. The gifts are to be wrapped and returned to Church with the gift tag securely taped during the weekend of December 13 and 14. The local organizations will pick up their gifts on December 15, so NO gifts delivered after December 14. This will replace the Social Concerns 1st Sunday collection for December. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Christmas Decorations (Please print legibly)

To make a donation ($10.00) for Christmas poinsettias & decorations in memory of a loved one, please put money in a plain envelope labeled "Christmas Decorations" by Sunday, December 14, or email church@cospq.org.
