Loved to Love Others - The Baptism of the Lord

Is 42:1-4, 6-7 / Psalm 29:1-2, 3-4, 3, 9-10/ Acts 10:34-38 / Matthew 3:13-17

Our baptism draws us into an intimate relationship with God. We are cleansed, claimed and sent out as disciples. But what about Jesus? Why baptize the Word Incarnate? For thirty years, Jesus patiently waited for His moment. He knew His mission and He waited for the Father to nudge Him into action. Jesus' baptism was the beginning of His public ministry. For the next three years, Jesus lived to create disciples. He used all of His energy to teach people about the kingdom of God. Today, as you ponder the baptism of Jesus, you should also take a moment to reflect on your own baptism and those of your family members. Talk with one another about how God is nudging you into discipleship. How might you, like Jesus, use your life to teach others about the kingdom of God?
