Baptism of the Lord

JANUARY 11, 2026

Isaiah 42:1-4,6-7; Acts 10:34-38;
Matthew 3:13-17

The baptism ministered by John the Baptist was not our sacrament of baptism. It was a ritual sign of conversion of heart and of cleansing from a former way of life. Such ritual baptisms were practiced often by a sect of Jews called “Essenes” who had a monastery at Qumran, near where John the Baptist baptized.

Ritual baptism was also practiced by the Pharisees for a non-Jew who wished to become a Jew. (Such a person had to be circumcised and had to swear allegiance to the Torah.)

John the Baptist’s group of Jews was known throughout the Mediterranean world. John called on all people to prepare for the coming of the Messiah by change of heart and of life.

Jesus was not baptized by John as a sign of his own cleansing; rather it was a sign that he took upon himself the sins of the world. He became sin for us. He is designated as the “Suffering Servant of the Lord” described in the first reading and in other poems in Isaiah.

The baptism of Jesus is the beginning of his public life. John the Baptist is described as the last of the Old Testament prophets, the one who proclaims the Messiah Jesus. At the baptism of Jesus, the voice of the Father calls him his beloved Son in words which are identical with the first reading.

The Spirit descends on Jesus in the form of a dove, representing that Jesus is Israel personified. He takes on himself the sins of all at his baptism; he will nail those sins to the cross and redeem us in his crucifixion and resurrection.

The baptism of Jesus is also a sign to us: By our baptism, we are called to share in the mission of Jesus Christ. We are designated as servants of the Lord. By our lives, we are called to proclaim the mighty works of the Lord, his righteousness, and his Good News.

The Baptism of the Lord Feast, January 11, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. This is the official day that we conclude our Christmas season and return to what is called “ordinary time.” However, between last weekend and this warmer week, we were able to dismantle our Christmas decorations and return our Church to its normal beauty, a week before our official end. I do want to thank all those who assisted us in taking down our Christmas decorations. It is always a sad time as the decorations come down and put away as our Christmas time comes to an end for another year.

Last weekend we celebrated the Solemnity of the Epiphany. This Solemnity celebrates Jesus being revealed to the Gentile world as its Lord and Savior. The Magi represent this non-Jewish world. Today, on the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we have a second epiphany. This Epiphany reveals to us the only time in Scripture that the presence of the Triune God is revealed to us at one time. It is during the Baptism of Jesus, “He came up from the water and behold, the heavens were opened for Him and He saw the spirit of God descending like a dove upon Him. And a voice came from the heavens saying, ‘this is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’” So the voice of the Father, the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove, and Jesus, God’s Son, all revealed to us as the Triune God. What an epiphany! As we recall Jesus’ baptism, perhaps it’s a time that we recall our own baptisms. For during our baptisms, the voice of the Lord also was very well pleased with each of us as chosen by God to be ever close to Him.

Fr. Paul recently received some very sad news. His mother has been in and out of hospitals in Kenya with pulmonary issues. This morning (Wednesday) he received word that she died. Our prayers are with him and his mother and family. I ask you to remember his mother in your prayers, Cecilia ngee Lesupati. He will be leaving from our parish within a day or two and will be returning sometime before Lent. Let’s pray, “eternal rest grant unto her O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon her. May she rest in peace. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen” “God is good, all the time. All the time, God is good.”

Just to let you know that we have recently hired Jaicee Griggs, as our new director of music and liturgy at St. Peter Church. Jaicee will be part-time until she completes her employment with the school district. We are very happy to have her accept this position and look forward to her sharing her talents and skills with us as we celebrate the liturgy of the Church. This is an important position as it helps us celebrate the liturgy of our Church, attempting to keep us focused and involved in congregational singing.

Recently our finance council decided that we needed to look at our budgeted goal as presented in our parish bulletin each week. This goal of $32,000 was not matching the actual costs that we were having in our parish and school. Because of increases in salaries and insurance, a more realistic weekly goal would be $42,000. This weekly goal would be more realistic as we try to meet our budgets each week. So when this appears in our bulletin this week, you will understand the rationale behind it. I ask you to continue your stewardship to our parish family and we will be able to meet the budgeted goals of our parish and school.

The St. Peter's Men's Group will be starting a new initiative in 2026. The new group name will be The Rock: Men of St. Peter Church. Please look for upcoming information with new events and programs that will be available for all men of the parish.

As we look ahead, in two weeks we will be celebrating Catholic School's Week for the Catholic schools here in Quincy. Saturday and Sunday, January 24-25, students will begin this week by participating in all of the Masses by sharing in the readings, bringing up the gifts and greeting people. Through this week, let's take pride in what we have as we thank God for the gift of Catholic education present today and in the future.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: Although a bright and able man, my husband is almost completely helpless when faced with even the simplest domestic chore.

One day, in exasperation, I pointed out to him that our friend, Betty, had taught her husband Frank to cook, sew and do laundry, and that if anything happened to Betty, Frank would be able to care for himself.

Then I said, "What would you do if anything happened to me?"

After considering that possibility for a moment, my husband said happily, "I'd move in with Frank."

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh

"St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

Catholic Schools
United in Faith and Community

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK IS ALMOST HERE! Mark your Calendars for January 25-January 30 Shining the Light of Christ in Our Schools

It is so hard to believe that we are going to be celebrating Catholic Schools Week soon.

A full agenda of events will be sent to our school families as we get closer. We will be collecting food items for the Souper Bowl of Caring the entire week. The highest collecting classroom (per student) will earn an out of dress code week!

The following are a few highlights for our exciting week.

Saturday/Sunday, January 24 & 25:

Students will participate in all of the masses by sharing in the readings, bringing up offertory and greeting people.

Monday, January 26:

Students dress monochromatic—all in one color. We will participate in a QCS virtual rosary. BINGO will take place in the gym.

Tuesday, January 27:

Classroom Theme Day choice.
Activity: Winter Olympics among the HOUSES.

Wednesday, January 28:

Western Day—students wear western wear!
Parents invited to join us for 8:20 Mass.
Parents invited to join us for 1:15 Talent Show in the Gym.

Thursday, January 29:

Pajama Day—Jesus and Jammies—PTA providing popcorn for Educational Movies

Friday, January 30:

Athletic Day—students wear athletic wear.
Annual 8th grade volleyball game held at 1:30.

SCHOLASTIC BOWL

We are on the look out!

Do you have a passion for trivia as well as working with students? If so, we have a great opportunity for you. We are on the lookout for one to two coaches for the 6th-8th grade St. Peter School Scholastic Bowl team.

Mrs. Laura Dighe and Mrs. Jodi McDonald have graciously coached our students for the last 10 years. They are ready to pass on the torch! Both will be helpful to the new coach or coaches that agree to organize the St. Peter School students. If you are interested in leading our students please be sure to contact Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh at c.venvertloh@cospq.org or 217-223-1120. Practices for Scholastic Bowl begin in January 2026.

SCHOOL MENU

Monday: Corn dog, curly fries, peas, fruit.

Tuesday: Hamburger on bun, smiley fries, mixed vegetables, fruit.

Wednesday: Nachos, fiesta corn, salsa, fruit.

Thursday: Grilled chicken on bun, hash brown, romaine salad, fruit.

Friday: French toast sticks, sausage, veggie juice, fruit.
