From the Pastor's desk....

I pray you had a good Christmas; that you were able to encounter the Christ Child who gives healing and peace in a special way. We now open up Ordinary Time for a short while until Ash Wednesday. Our liturgical color for Ordinary Time (meaning there is "order" in our sacred readings) is green—a color of new life and growth in Jesus Christ.

This week on Thursday we want to pray for the legal protection of the unborn and the vulnerable. Life is a precious gift that you and I experience every day. We have joys and sorrows; and everything in between. The most precious among us are the little babies growing in the wombs of their mothers. We want to protect them physically and spiritually. Prayer, and how we live our life with respect to other people, all shows and promotes life itself. All human beings have a soul and are created in the image and likeness of God.

Recently here in Illinois, we have joined other states with assisted suicide. This is not going away, and we know from experience it will only grow to other states. The elderly, the sick and those on the margins of society are still sacred and holy. Right to life is for the unborn, the born, and those who may be near natural death. Let us pray for, and respect all life.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

MAKE

Create, Produce, Bring into Existence....

What Comes Next?

If we are to grow as a thriving, vibrant church, and serious about passing on our faith to future generations, we must follow the vision to be focused on these paths of our journey:

CATECHESIS, EVANGELIZATION, AND FAITH INTO ACTION

Our world and culture has changed. Our challenges are real.

But Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8).

God stays our Rock, our Refuge, and our reason for hope.

The church will be renewed by embracing His mission and committing ourselves to making disciples for the glory of God.

We (the parish) must get involved and put our faith into action.

We are a welcoming community already! Now, God calls us to live out His message to love and be service to all people.

We will be sharing the four Pillars of conversion, confession, communion, and commission that will be guiding us on this journey.

They are part of Bishop Hick's Pastoral Letter. Each Pillar will be in the bulletin each week.

The pillars are grounded in a life of prayer with your desire to live in union with Jesus.

Pray to the Holy Spirit for guidance!

We appreciate any time and involvement you can give us.

The MAKE Team Leaders,

Irene Boutiette, Maryann Hespen, Carol Paulsen, and Rachel Vaughan.

Any questions or comments, Contact Carol Paulsen –

Food Pantry Donations at Work

Christmas wound down with another reason for hope for the families we serve at the pantry. They received holiday gift cards from Target and Walmart of well over $6,700. In addition they received holiday hams with their holiday sides.

For the year we were able to provide just under $67,000 in assistance to 2,983 families which included over 10,445 individuals. We continue our partnership with Northern IL Food Bank and their member stores. The value of the food donated through our partnership with the Food Bank is estimated at $232,000.

Included below is a breakdown of some outflows:

$4,800 in client rental/utility expenses

$54,800 in Aldi gift cards to assist provided food products we aren't able to provide.

$8,242 in miscellaneous operating expenses, supplies, etc.

None of this is possible without the generosity of our parishioners at Christ the King. Hopefully this enlightens you as to what your donations are providing throughout the year. This has been a rough year for all; especially so for those we serve at the pantry.

We at the pantry are overwhelmed by the your generosity.
May the new year be good for all!

Happy New Year & God Bless!

Joe Maderak & Pantry Volunteers
SVDP Christ the King Food Pantry
