Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 18, 2026

Isaiah 49:3,5-6; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3;
John 1:29-34

We return to “Ordinary Time.” This is not a very happy expression; a better name would be “The Season of the Church.” During this season, we reflect on the meaning of Church.

Who are we as a people? The liturgical color is green, the color of hope and of life. Our second reading tells us that we are called to be a holy people. Holiness means that we answer promptly to the Lord's invitation.

Our Responsorial Psalm refrain must be our ready response: “Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will.” Jesus came to do the will of his Father. He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. He is anointed by the Spirit. He is God's Chosen One.

Our first reading is from the second (of four) “Suffering Servant Songs” in Isaiah. These songs tell of a person who takes all grief and sin to himself, and by his suffering, he vicariously heals all.

As Christians, we share in the mission of Christ. We have been anointed with his Spirit (in Confirmation). We are called to change this world. As the second reading tells us, we have been consecrated in Christ Jesus, and called to be a holy people.

Like John, in the Gospel, we may not always recognize Christ in our world. Yet we must pray for faith always to see him in every person and in every situation. Let us pray that we shall be loyal to Christ in seeking to eliminate sin and to bring virtue to our world.

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, January 18, 2026

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather on this Second Sunday in Ordinary time, one might ask what happened to the first Sunday of Ordinary Time. There is no first Sunday. The Christmas season concluded with the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus, the ordinary time always began on the Monday following the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus. That first week was considered the first week of “ordinary time” with the following Sunday being the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary time. This Ordinary time will continue until February 17, the day before Ash Wednesday. Then it will resume when the Easter season ends, that is, on Monday, May 25, the day following Pentecost. This time is called “ordinary” because there is no specific aspect of the mystery of Christ that is celebrated, but rather the mystery of Christ is honored in its fullness, especially on Sundays.

In our gospel for the weekend, we hear the testimony of John the Baptist concerning his experience of who Jesus is at His baptism. When seeing Jesus coming toward Him, he proclaimed, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.” Then John concludes that Jesus was the reason why John was baptizing with water, and then revealed, to the people listening, his experience at the baptism where Jesus was revealed to him as the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit. From this gospel, we hear the testimony of John that Jesus, who was without sin, entered the waters of baptism, taking upon Himself the sins of all humankind and nailing them to the cross. Thus, being that Lamb of God who offered Himself in solidarity with humanity in order to save ourselves from ourselves. This is God’s gift of reconciliation and salvation. So let’s remember Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away yours sins and my sins and leads us into a new way of living.

Next weekend, we will kick-off what we call Catholic School’s Week. Since I am a graduate of Catholic schools, Blessed Sacrament Grade School in Springfield, and Griffin High School in Springfield, and since being ordained a priest was involved in Catholic schools, Our Savior and Routt High School in Jacksonville, and St. Anthony Grade School and St. Anthony High School in Effingham, I can speak from many experiences of the value and importance of our Catholic schools. We have been entrusted from previous generations with a gift, a gift that promotes, encourages, and supports an educational system that allows us to teach and live our Catholic faith, its values, and its teachings, and thus continue this rich legacy building up God’s kingdom here on earth. I can honestly say that I am the person that I am today because of my parochial schools and I will always be indebted to them for my Catholic faith. Were my teacher’s perfect, No. Were my teachers the greatest educators, No. But I did realize that they did care for me, promoted me and my vocation, and laid the foundation of becoming a priest. For all my teachers in my grade school years, I am thankful. I still wonder how they did what they did in teaching with no aides and having almost 50 kids in a class. And I continued to appreciate the same educational experiences whether it was in Jacksonville or in Effingham as a priest involved in the schools. And now I find the same gift here at St. Peter School with teachers who care and who are more than willing to share their faith and love of God with our students.

Please consult the bulletin for the activities taking place as we celebrate Catholic School's Week. Next weekend our students will be involved in our weekend liturgies as we begin this special week, we especially thank our parents and parishioners for their support of our Catholic schools.

I told you I would try to keep you informed concerning my health issues. This past week I had a CT scan with results being sent to Siteman Cancer Center. Then I do meet next Tuesday with the cancer specialists at Siteman to discuss what's next. I appreciate all your prayers for they give me strength to continue with all my treatments. Besides praying for me, I ask your prayers for Fr. Paul as he is with his family in Kenya. Prayers for him and his mother and family.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Former Archbishop May of St. Louis tells this story. "Down in Southern Missouri, we have the Ozarks and the people down there don't know much about Catholics. A priest's car stalled on a back road, and he went to a small house to find help. The nice couple there said they had never met anyone with a collar on backwards."

The priest said, "yeah, but how come you have a picture of the pope on the wall?" "Where," they asked. The priest pointed to a picture on the wall. It was a picture of Pope Pius XII, a former pope who wore glasses. "Who's that," they asked. "The Pope," the priest said. "Oh my God!" the couple exclaimed. "We were told that was Harry Truman in his 33rd degree Masonic outfit."

January, 2026

My dear Friends in Christ,

Catholic Times has long been a trusted and essential voice for Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. Through its clear teaching of the faith, important diocesan news, and stories that inspire hope and faith, the magazine has helped connect our diocesan family and deepen our understanding of how God is at work among us.

Over the past six years, Catholic Times has been recognized with 14 national awards from the Media Association— a testament to the dedication, professionalism, and faithfulness of those who produce it and to the value it provides to our readers. Time and again, people tell us they read the magazine “from cover to cover” and that it has helped them better understand the teachings of the Church and the life of our diocese.

In 2026, Catholic Times is taking a significant next step in mission to inform, inspire, and connect the faithful. Beginning this year, the magazine will transition from publishing every other Sunday to a monthly magazine format. This change allows us to offer more in-depth reporting, richer photography, and a more cohesive and engaging reading experience.

With expanded space in each issue, Catholic Times will be able to tell more complete stories about the life of our parishes, schools, ministries, and people's stories of faith, service, sacrifice, and hope that make our diocese so vibrant. Readers will also notice improved paper quality, and an engaging magazine that continues to deliver the features, evangelization, and diocesan news they have come to expect and enjoy.

At its heart, Catholic Times exists to serve you — the faithful of our diocese —and to share how Christ is alive and active in our communities. I am especially grateful for the opportunity to speak directly to you through my column, Lex Cordis Caritas, where I reflect on the challenges we face as Catholics today and share important decisions that impact our diocesan family.

It is all these reasons why I believe Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either digitally or by mail. During the weekend of January 17-18, 2026, please encourage your parishioners to respond gratefully in support of this communication tool so we can ensure Catholic Times remains an inexpensive source of Catholic information, education, and inspiration.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Thomas John Paprocki
